Belmont for Sale.

The subscriber will sell at private sale, a beautiful tract of land, containing about 1000 acres, and lying on the public road to Baltimore, it is bounded by the River Severn, and is intersected by creeks, which afford convenient landings.

This land is heavily timbered, and is considered the best wood land in the neighbourhood. There is a fine meadow land on the Farm, the soil is peculiarly adapted to clover and plaster, and yields Tobacco of an excellent quality.

A CARD

To all those having, or desirous of having an interest in the 5th class of the Grand University Lottery. The sale of tickets in the above Scheme, not having been sufficient to warrant the drawing to take place on the 23d instant as originally intended, without a risk of considerable loss to the manager; the drawing of the same is hereby postponed for 30 or 40 days; notice of the precise day on which the Lottery will positively be drawn will however soon be given.

P. CANFIELD, Manager. It may not, perhaps, be necessary to assign any further reasons for this short postponement than are contained in the above. The MANAGER would however beg leave to add, that when this class was issued, few persons, if any, anticipated, in the least, the late panic in the money market, which has almost paralysed every kind of business, and has caused such a singular and unprecedented stagnation in trade.

Those who have not yet taken an interest in this Lottery, now have an additional opportunity offered them, and they are respectfully reminded, that by promptly purchasing ounces in this most splendid scheme, they will insure an early distribution of the rich prizes it contains—as the lottery shall positively be drawn as soon as the sale of tickets will justify, and the prizes paid in cash immediately after the drawing; all persons are therefore invited to come forward, and take a ticket or share at either of the manager's offices; where all applications personal or per letter will at any time be promptly attended to by the public's obedient servant.

UNIVERSITY LOTTERY

Capital Prize 100,000 DOLLARS.

No time, therefore, if you would do wisely, to delay your purchase. A golden opportunity is now presented to all adventurers, will not such a timely improve it? Another like opportunity may never be yours! And as it is certain that the subscriber will soon furnish his patrons with more really splendid prizes, and more in number than were ever distributed before in America, are you not willing to accept the invitation to call immediately at his office and partake of some of the Brilliant Prizes now offered which—FORTUNE—will soon award to her votaries!

MARYLAND STATE LOTTERY OFFICE

Where have been sold and paid prizes of $50000, 25000, 20000, 15000, 12000, 10,000, 5 000, 3,000, 2,500, 2,000, 1,000, 500, &c. amounting to more than A MILLION OF DOLLARS.

Holders of Prizes in the different Lotteries just drawn, as well as adventurers and the public generally, desirous of obtaining splendid Fortunes, are respectfully invited to call at No. 180, Market-st Baltimore, and receive the Cash for their prizes, or to exchange them for some of the Magnificent Prizes in the above Scheme, soon to be drawn—Many of those who become interested therein will in a short time become rich and happy—Come then to the residence of the Goddess Fortune, "always at home," and partake of her favours. Mistake not your interest, and rely upon it you can make the best, the most profitable, and certainly the most pleasing speculation, at No. 180 Market Street Baltimore.

All orders, whether for Whole Tickets, Shares or Certificates, will be thankfully received, and promptly attended to, if addressed to P. CANFIELD, 180 Market Street, Baltimore, Feb. 21 1826.

Notice.

All persons against whom writs of fieri facias have issued, and been levied, will please take notice, that further indulgence on my part cannot be given. And to prevent the disagreeable necessity of proceeding to advertise the property at public sale, which in all cases I wish to avoid, I hope all persons concerned will come forward and settle the claims against them, immediately, without further notice.
