100 Dollars Reward.

Ran away from the subscriber near the Governor's Bridge, Prince-George's county, Maryland, on the 24th of larch last, a Negro Man named JIM, upwards of 10 years of age, his com-plexion not very dark, of ordinary height, but uncommonly large and broad across the back and shoulders, very howlegged, by which he may be known, limps a little in his walk, has an old scarnear one of his eyes, his clothing was a suit of white domestic kersey, and one of dark woollen cloth, but no doubt has a variety. Jim's father, if alive, lives with Mr. Joseph N. Stockett, near South River Church. and he has brothers and other connexi-ons belonging to Tr. Gassaway Knighton, and I have no doubt but Jim is lurking thereabouts, or somewhere between South and Patuxent rivers, or he may possibly make for some fishing landing, or some of the waters at this season of the year, and there hire himself. I will give enty dollars hending Jim within twenty miles of Itome; fifty dollars if over twenty miles, and theabove reward if taken out of the state of Maryland and District of Columbia, so that in either case, he is brought home or secured so that I get him again. All persons are hereby warned not to harbour or employ said fellow.

DECISIONS

LAND PUBLISHED By Subscription.

THE DECISIONS OFTHE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND,

To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Reverdy Johnson; Esquire, Attorney at Law.

These Decisions willform a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume. The last number of each volume will contain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, it is conceived possesses ad-vantages which give it a decided preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt.
