May 2. 100 Dollars Reward.

Ran away from the subscriber near the Governor's Bridge, Prince George's county, Maryland, on the 24th of March last, a Negro Man named JIM, upwards of 40 years of age, his complexion not very dark, of ordinary height, but uncommonly large and broad across the back and shoulders, very bowlegged, by which he may be known, limps a little in his walk, has an old scar near one of his eyes, his clothing was a suit of white domestic kersey, and one of dark woolen cloth, but no doubt has a variety. Jim's father, if alive, lives with Mr. Joseph N. Stockett, near South River Church, and he has brothers and other connections belonging to Mr. Gassaway Knighton, and I have no doubt but Jim is lurking thereabouts, or somewhere between South and Patuxent rivers, or he may possibly make for some fishing landing, or some of the waters at this season of the year, and there hire himself, I will give any person twenty dollars for apprehending Jim within twenty miles of home; fifty dollars if over twenty miles, and the above reward if taken out of the state of Maryland and District of Columbia, and that in either case, he is brought home or secured so that I get him again. All persons are hereby warned not to harbour or employ said fellow.

Public Sale.

By virtue of a decree of the High Court of Chancery of the state of Maryland, the subscriber will offer at public sale, on Monday the 15th day of June next, at Williamson's Hotel, in the city of Annapolis,

A Tract of Land in Anne Arundel county, situated near the road leading from Annapolis to Baltimore, and midway between the two cities. The property was lately in the possession of Francis Osborn, and is now occupied by the heirs of the said Osborn, from whom every information in relation to its quality, &c. may be obtained. It contains 800 acres, the greater part of which is heavily timbered. There are distinct improvements on different parts of the tract, which render it susceptible of an easy division into separate farms, with comfortable accommodations on each.

The terms of payment are six, twelve, eighteen, twenty-four months; the purchase money to be secured by bonds with approved security, bearing interest from the day of sale.
Sale to commence at 11 o'clock A. M.
Wm M. Worthington.

of Isaac H. Hopkins, at suit of Edward Williams, John S. Camden Junr use of Jacob Waters, Thomas S. Alexander, admr. of William, I have seized and taken in execution, the life estate of the said Isaac H. Hopkins, in and to all that tract, or part of a tract or parcel of land, called The Vineyard, being the dwelling plantation whereon the said Hopkins now resides.
And I hereby give notice, that on Monday the 22d day of May, at the premises, I shall proceed to sell the said property to the highest bidder, to satisfy the debts due as aforesaid.
Sale to commence at eleven o'clock, terms cash. And at the same time and place I shall proceed to sell, by virtue of a distress for rent at the instance of Mrs. Ann Watkins, against the said Hopkins, sundry Negroes, and other property too tedious to enumerate, to satisfy the rent for which the distress is laid. Terms of sale,

DECISIONS

OF THE
COURT OF APPEALS OF MARY-LAND
PUBLISHED
By Subscription.

THE DECISIONS
OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND.

To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquires, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Keeverdy Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law.
These Decisions will form a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty-five pages, and four hundred and fifty in a volume.
The last number of each volume will contain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, it is conceived presents advantages which greatly preponderate in favor of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt.

TERMS.
The price of each number of the Reports will be $1.25, payable on delivery.

Subscriptions to this work are received at GEORGE SHAW'S Store, the Maryland Gazette Office, and the respective Offices of the County Clerks of this State.

RAGS.

Clean Linen and Cotton Rags, will be purchased at the Store of the subscriber.

To the Voters of Anne Arundel County.
I offer myself as an ELECTOR OF THE SENATE, at the Election to be held on the first Monday in September next, and respectfully solicit your suffrages.
Your obt. servant,
Wm. H. MARRIOTT.
Feb. 22d, 1826.

To the Independent Voters of Anne-
Arundel County.
I offer myself to your consideration as a candidate for the office of Senatorial Elector, for our county, at the approaching election, I deem it unnecessary to say much on this occasion. I have been long known to those of you, who like myself, are well stricken in years; and those who have become Voters since my head has whitened, can ask their Fathers who and what I am. But I pledge my word and honour, which I trust have never yet been doubted, that, if elected, no party bias shall influence my vote. The opportunity with me, as to any Person who may be put in nomination, will be as to his integrity, capacity, and devotedness to our free and happy government. I will only further remark, that I am brought forward by no Caucus or secret association, my pretensions are submitted entirely to the judgment of my Fellow-Citizens. Should they sanction them, I shall feel grateful for the honour done me, if otherwise, no one can deprive me of the consoling reflection, that Anne Arundel county has men better qualified to serve her on so important an occasion than myself.
HORATIO RIDOUT.
April 6th, 1826.

To the Voters of Anne Arundel county.
Fellow Citizens, I did not intend to have placed my name on the list of candidates for the house of delegates at the next October election, but upon the very friendly solicitations of many, who kindly advocated my cause on a former occasion, and the voluntary proffers of support of others who did not then vote for me, I am induced again to offer my services for your consideration.
And whilst doing this, permit me to ask of those who kindly intended to have supported my election last fall; but who were induced to decline it afterwards, in consequence of the false and unprovoked report put in circulation against me at the heel of the canvass, not to give too much credit to reports thus insidiously brought out, as they not only bear strong marks of "foul play," but prove almost invariably to be slanders, as I have amply proved in my vindication, in regard to the one against me. This sort of persecution is not compatible with the feelings of an American Republican—but ought, as I am sure it will, meet with that honest indignation which its character so justly entitles it to. If there is any charge against a candidate, it is but an act of simple justice, which every honest man is willing to allow, to let it be frankly told him, and then judge him by his desence. As it is much the fashion to "pick holes," in the character of candidates, I invited on the last occasion, if any such were against me, to charge me with them before the people. I now challenge any of these honourable "reporters," if they have any thing to say to me, before the people, by which tribunal I am willing to be judged.
Your Fellow Citizen,
JOHN S. WILLIAMS
Fifth Election District, Elkridge, April 10, 1826

Arundel County.
To accommodate the earnest solicitations of my many friends, I am thus induced to offer myself as a candidate to the next general assembly. Should I be so fortunate as to be the object of their choice, having always been the friend of freedom, I pledge myself to their interest, an industrious and faithful discharge of duty.
