100 Dollars Reward.

Ran away from the subscriber near the Governor's Bridge, Prince George's county, Maryland, on the 24th of March last, a Negro Man named JIM, upwards of 40 years of age, his complexion not very dark, of ordinary height, but uncommonly large and broad across the back and shoulders, very bowlegged, by which he may be known, limps a little in his walk, has an old scar near one of his eyes, his clothing was a suit of white domestic kersey, and one of dark woollen cloth, but no doubt has a variety. Jim's father, if alive, lives with Mr. Joseph N. Stockert, near South River Church, and he has brothers and other connexions belonging to Mr. Gasaway Jim is lurking thereabouts, or somewhere between South and Patuxent rivers, or he may possibly make for some fishing landing, or some of the waters at this season of the year, and there hire himself. I will give any person twenty dollars for apprehenso that I get him again. All persons are hereby warned not to harbour or employ said fellow.

DECISIONS

COURT OF APPEALS OF MARY-

THE DECISIONS

OF THE COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND,

To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Reverdy Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law.

These Decisions will form a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume.
The last number of each volume will contain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, it is conceived possesses advantages which give it a decided preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be sensibly felt.

TERMS.
The price of each number of the Reports will be $1 25, payable on delivery.

Subscriptions to the above Work are received at GEORGE SHAW'S Store the Maryland Gazette Office, and the respective Offices of the County Clerks of this state.

and respectfully solicit your suffrages.
Your obt. servant,
W. H. MARRIOTT.

Feb. 22d, 1826.

To the Independent Voters of Anne Arundel County.

Fellow-Citizens,
I offer myself to your consideration as a candidate for the office of Senatorial Elector, for our county, at the approaching election, for our county, at the approaching election, I deem it unnecessary to say much of the occasion. I have been long known to those of you, who like myself, are well stricken in years, and those who have become Voters since my head has whitened, can ask their Fathers who and what I am. But I pledge my word and honor, which I trust have never yet been doubted, that, if elected, no party bias shall influence my vote. The only injury will be done, as to any Person who may be put in nomination, will be as to his integrity, capacity, and devotedness to our free and happy government. I will only further remark, that I am brought forward by no Caucus or secret association, my pretensions are submitted entirely to the judgment of my Fellow-Citizens. Should they honor me, I shall feel grateful for the sanction done me, if otherwise, no one can deprive me of the consoling reflection, that Anne-Arundel county has men better qualified to serve her on so important an occasion than myself.
HORATIO RIDOUTT.

April 6th, 1826.

To the Voters of Anne Arundel county.
Fellow Citizens,

I did not intend to have placed my name on the list of candidates for the house of delegates at the next election, but upon the very friendly solicitations of many, who kindly advocated my cause on a former ocasion, and the voluntary proffers of support of others who did not then vote for me, I am induced again to offer my services for your consideration.
And whilst doing this, permit me to ask of those who kindly intended to have supported my election last fall, but who were induced to decline it afterwards, in consequence of the false and unprovoked report put in circulation against me at the heel of the canvass, not to give too much credit to reports thus indisidiously brought out, as they not only bear strong marks of "foul play," but prove almost invariably to be slanders, as I have amply proved in my vindication, in regard to the one against me. This sort of persecution is not compatible with the feelings of an American Republican—but ought, as I am sure it will, meet with that honest indignity which its character so justly entitles it to. If there is any charge against a candidate, it is but an act of simple justice, which every honest man is willing to allow, to let it be frankly told him, and then judge him by his defence. As it is much the fashion to "pick holes" in the character of candidates, I invited on the last occasion, if any such were against me, to charge me with them before the people. I now challenge any of these honourable "reporters," if they have any thing to say to me on the ensuing canvass, to say it to me, before the people, by which tribunal I am willing to be judged.

FOR PUBLISHING BY SUBSCRIPTION,
The Disciplinary, or Soldier's Guide.

It being intended for the cavalry, regular army, and militia of the United States.

This production is the result of much reflection, unrewarded labour, and diligent research; the author, having at those intervals when relieved from his professional duties, consulted the ablest writers on the subject, with a view of presenting to the public a complete and well organized system of military tactics. The manual exercise is explained with a minuteness of detail not elsewhere to be found. A tyro in the military art, may, of himself, with this book for a guide, by assiduity and attention, acquire a knowledge of the rudiments, or principles of his profession; and may also, after a few monthly instructions under a competent teacher, qualify himself for the highest grades in the army.

Price of the work, neatly bound in boards, $1 50. A subscription paper is lodged at this Office, and Mr. Geo.
Shaw's Book Store,
