It being intended for the Cavalry, Regular Army, and Militia of the United States.

This production is the result of much reflection, unswerving labor, and diligent research; the author, having at those intervals when relieved from his professional duties, consulted the ablest writers on the subject, with a view of presenting to the public a complete and well organized system of military tactics. The manual exercise is explained with a minuteness of detail not elsewhere to be found. A tyro in the military art, may, of himself, with this book for a guide, by assiduity and attention, acquire a knowledge of the rudiments, or first principles of his profession; and may also after a few months instruction under a competent teacher, qualify himself for the highest grades in the army.

Price of the work, neatly bound in boards, $1.50. A subscription page is lodged at this Office, and Mr. Geo. Shaw's Book Store.
