And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the inspectors of primary schools aforesaid, to visit all such primary schools within their respective counties, as shall have been formed in pursuance of this act, quarterly, or oftener if they shall deem it necessary. and to examine into the state and con dition of such schools, both as respects the proficiency of the scholars, and the good order and regularity of schools; and from time to time to give their advice and direction to the trustees and teachers of such schools, as to the go vernment thereof, and the course of studies to be pursued thereof.

19. And be it enacted, The a majority of the said inspectors present, and acting in the performance of any of the duties required of them by this act, shall be competent to perform any such duties; Provided, That in the examination of teachers, and certifying their qualifications as aforesaid, or in annulling any certificate as aforesaid, not less than .three of the said inspectors shall be present; and in all other cases not less than two of said inspectors shall be present.

20. And be it enacted, That the establishment and regulation of public or primary schools within the city of Baltimore, shall be vested in the mayor and city council of Baltimore; Provided, That if the said mayor and city council shall not within the space of five years after the passage of this act, establish a system of public education within said city, then this act to be in full effect within the city of Baltimore.

21. And be it enacted. The tit shall be the pluty of the commissioners of primary schools of the several counties in this state, on or before the first day of July in each year, to make and transmit a county report to the clerk of their county, sembrating the same mat-ters as shall be contained in the report of the trustees of school districts, to the said commissioners; and the clerks of the several counties shall, on or be-fore the first day of December annually, make a county report, embracing all the matters contained in the several county reports aforesaid, and transmit the same to the superintendant of prithe same to the superintendant of primary achools, whose duty it shall be annually, on or before the first Tuesday in January, to make a report to the legislature, embracing all the matters codtemplated by this act.

22 And be it enacted. That the commissioners of primary schools in each country shall be enabled to hold any property which may be seen tend to the

for the use and benefit of the primary schools in their county; and such pro-perty, whether real or personal shall be to them and their successors in office, in the same manner as if they were a body politic and corporate in laws and such property shall be deem-ed to be vested in the trustees of the several school districts for the use and benefit of their school, in the same manner as if such property had been granted to them for that purpose, and the said trustees of any school district. shall be enabled to hold any property which may be vested in them for the use and benefit of their school; and such property, whether real or personal, shall be to them and their successors in office, in the same manner as if they were a body politic and corporate in law.

23. And be it enacted, That as soon as the revenues which may be assigned and appropriated to the encouragement and support of public instruction, shall he sufficient for commencing the munificent purposes of this act, the same shall be apportioned and distributed to each of the several counties of this state and the city of Baltimore, for the use and benefit of primary schools as is herein before provided.

24. And be it enacted, That the funds accruing under the act, entitled, "An act to incorporate a company to make a turnpike road leading to Cumberland, and for the extension of the cliarters of the several banks in the city of Baltimore, and for other purposes," and its several supplements, and the acts of assembly passed at December session, eighteen hundred and seventeen, chapters sixteen and ninetythree, according to the provisions of the said acts, shall be considered as included in, and composing a part of the revenues to be assigned and appropriated for the encouragement and support of public instruction; Provided. Ehat no other rule of apportionment of the funds which have heretofore been raised, or which may hereafter be rais ed under the provisions of said acts than as in such acts is provided, shall be applied to said funds.

And be it enacted, That all funds hereafter to be assigned and appropriated for the support and main tenance of public instruction, as relating to primary schools, shall be apportioned and distributed amongst the several counties of this state, and to the city of Baltimore, when the said city shall have established public schools either by authority delegated to the said city, or under this act, according to the ratio of white population, as ascertained by the last preceding census of the United States; and it shall be the duty of the superintendant of public instruction, to give notice thereof in writing, to each of the clerks of the county courts of such counties, setting forth the amount of money appropriated to his county, and the time when the same shall be payable to the commissioners of said county.

26. And be it enacted, That if any collector appointed under the provisi ons of this act, shall in any case collect more than is due, the person aggrieved shall have his remedy against such collector by suit or warrant, and if he recover, he shall have judgment for double the amount improperly and unjustly extorted from him, and costs. 27. And be it enucted, That the governor and council cause this act to be published for the information of the people, in such of the newspapers in state and the District of Columbia, as they think proper.

28. And be it enucted, That at the next election of delegates to the gene ral assembly, every voter when he offers to vote, shall be required by the judges of election, to state whether he is for or against the establishment of primary schools, and the said judges shall record the number of votes for and against primary schools, and make return thereof to the legislature during the first week of the session, and if a majority of the said votes in any county, shall be in favour of the establishment of primary schools as is therein provided for, then and in that case, the said act shall be valid for such county or counties, otherwise of no effect whatever.

29. And be it enacted, That if a majority of the votes of any county in this state, shall be against the establishment of primary schools as established by this act. then and in that case, the said act shall be void as to that county.
