LOUISVILLE, Ken. July 21. More dreadful Murders .- Two men were assassinated in the county of Nelson, last week, on Friday. One was a Mr. Cauffman, of that county, the other a Mr. Courtney from Mississippi. They were shot in a by path, in a dark, shady woods, a few miles east of Bards-The bodies were not found until Saturday evening or Sunday morning. They were both shot with rifle balls, in the back. One appeared to have been killed instantly, and to have been dragged a little distance from the path, into the woods. 'The other who had two wounds, appeared to have received the first in the shoulder, and t have run some forty yards, dropping blood freely as he went, and then to have received another and a fatal shot, and was left in the path. The account has been brought to this place by two different gentlemen from Nelsou, and may no doubt be relied on.

Three individuals, a father and two sons, we understand, are suspected, and have been arrested and confined, upon a charge of having perpetrated this horrible outrage, and circumstances of great weight are mentioned as grounds for suspecting them. [Commentator.
