100 Dollars Reward
FOR JIM, NO MATTER WHERE TAKEN.
Ran away from the subscriber near the Governor's Bridge, Prince George's county, Maryland, on the 24th of March last, a Negro Man named JIM, upwards of 40 years of age, his complexion not very dark, of ordinary height, but uncommonly large and broad across the back and shoulders very bowlegged, by which he is known, limps a little in his walk, an old scar near one of his eyes, and clothing was a suit of white domestic kersey, and one of dark woollen cloth, but no doubt has a variety. Jim, if alive, lives with Mr. Joseph N. Stockett, near South River Church, and he has brothers and other connections belonging to Mr. George Knighton, and I have no doubt Jim is lurking thereabouts, or somewhere between South and Patuxent rivers, or he may possibly be for some fishing landing, or some of the waters at this season of the year, and there hire himself. All persons are hereby warned not to harbour or employ said fellow. Gratification

VOL LXXXI. ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 17, 1826. No. 83.]

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
JONAS GREEN,
NORTH-STREET, ANNAPOLIS.
Price—Three Dollars per annum.
To the Independent Voters of Anne Arundel County.
I offer myself to your consideration as a Candidate for the office of Senatorial Elector, in this county, at the approaching election. It is unnecessary to say much on the subject. I have been long known to those who like myself, are well stricken in years, and those who have become Voters, and whose heads have become white, can ask their own hearts and what I am. But I pledge myself to you, that I will be true to the word and honour, which I trust have never been doubted, that, if elected, no party shall influence my vote. The only thing which I wish, as to any person who may be put in nomination, will be as to his integrity, capacity, and devotedness to our country and happy government. I will only say, that I am brought forward by the unanimous consent of my fellow-citizens, and that I feel grateful for the confidence of the consulting reflection, that Anne Arundel county has men better qualified to serve her on so important an occasion as herself. HORATIO RIDOUT.

A Valuable Farm FOR SALE.
The subscriber will sell at Private Sale, the farm whereon he now resides, containing about 400 acres of land, the soil of which is equal to any in the county. This land lies immediately on Herring Bay, in Anne Arundel county, adjoining Tracey's Landing, and possesses all the advantages of Oysters, Crabs, Fish, Wild Fowl, &c. The distance to Baltimore is about fifty miles, and from Annapolis 13 miles. This farm is in a high state of cultivation, well adapted to the growth of Tobacco, and of every other description. Clover, and Wheat, &c. acts with astonishing fertility. The improvements are a commodious dwelling house, four tobacco barns, and every other building necessary to the comfort and convenience of a family, with a Windmill, of considerable profit. Blacksmith's Shop, a large commodious Store House, and immediately on an excellent road for business—Few farms possess so many advantages as this. The dwelling is situated upon a hill commanding a beautiful and extensive view of the Chesapeake Bay, and is healthy. This land will be divided, or the whole sold to suit purchasers. Terms made known on application.
GUSTAVUS WEEMS.
The Editor of the National Intelligencer, will insert this once a week for eight successive weeks, and charge for each insertion.

Take Notice.
The subscriber being desirous of settling finally, his former business, is compelled to request ALL indebted to him on note or open account, to set the same on or before the 15th of September next, otherwise suits will be commenced, without discrimination, against those who neglect to do so, or enter into some arrangement to the purpose. He hopes proper attention will be paid to this notice, and thereby relieve him from the unpleasant necessity of adopting coercive measures.
Nicholas J. Watkins.
Notice.
The Commissioners of the Tax, for Anne Arundel county, will meet at the Court House in the City of Annapolis on Tuesday the 29th day of August, for the purpose of hearing appeals and making transfers, &c.

Land for Sale.
The subscriber will sell at public sale (if not previously disposed of), on Monday the fourth day of September next, if fair, if not on the first fair day,
THE TRACT OF LAND
on which he lives nearly adjoining the farm of Philip J. Thomas, esq. West River, containing 330 acres, about 7 miles from the Bay, 13 from Annapolis, and 23 from Washington. This land has been highly improved, and will produce equal to any in the state of Maryland. There is a sufficiency of wood for the support of the farm; it is well watered, having several fine streams through it. There are 140 acres in clover, a timothy meadow, which yields abundantly, and an extensive apple orchard. The improvements are a comfortable frame dwelling house, kitchen, meat house, ice house, &c. with four large tobacco houses, three of which have been built within the last three years. Any person wishing to view the property will call on the subscriber living on the farm, who will make known the terms.

A Valuable Farm FOR SALE.
The Subscriber offers at Private Sale, on a liberal credit, the following
REAL ESTATE:
A Farm situated in Broad Neck, Anne Arundel county, seven miles from Annapolis, adjoining the estates of James Mackubin and Horatio Ridout, esquires, and containing about 250 Acres,
With a sufficient proportion of wood land, the growth of which is principally oak, hickory, walnut, locust and poplar. The soil is naturally of an excellent quality, and susceptible of an easy and rapid improvement, by manuring with sea-ore, marsh manure, &c. This estate is situated at the mouth of Magothy River, in an agreeable neighbourhood, and binds on the Bay shore, affording a convenient water conveyance to market at all seasons, and one of the most beautiful and extensive water views in the county. The buildings are small, and of an inferior description; the fences in tolerable repair. From the excellence of the soil, and its peculiarly advantageous situation, this farm ought to be a desirable object to a man of industry and enterprise.
Mr. Henry Hammond will show this property to any person who may wish to view it, and the terms, which will be liberal, and suited to the times, may be known on application to Col. Henry Mayaxier, of Annapolis, or to the subscriber, living ten miles from Baltimore, near the United States Arsenal.
