By virtue of a decree of the High Court of Chancery of the state of Maryland the subscriber will offer at public sale; on MONDAY the 11th day of September next, at Isaac Hol-land's Pavern, known as the half way house on the road leading from Annapolis to Baltimore,

A Tract of Land

In Anne-Arundel county, situated near the aforesald Tavern. This proporty was lately in the possession of Francis Osborn, and is nay occupied by the heirs of said Osborn, from whom every information in relation to its quality may be obtained. It contains eight hundred acres, the greater part of which is heavily timbered. ere are distinct improvements on different parts of the tract, which render it susceptible of an easy division in separate farms, with comfortable accommodations on each.

The terms of payment are six, twelve, eighteen, and twenty-four months; the purchase money to be secured by bonds with approved security, bearing interest from the day of sale. Sale to commisse at twelve o'clock.

W. M. Vorthington. July, 27.

A CARD

The Manager of the Grand University Lotlery Respectfully informs hij friends and patrons and the public, that upon can. vassing the sales in the 8th class up to this period, he finds that it will not altogether be prudent or safe for him to proceed with the firawing on the 30th instant, as articipated. He therefore solicits a little further indulgence and delay. But, he would beg leave also to state with respect to the scheme of the 8th class that, although it is one of great magnitude, still it is within the limits of the general de-mand, since it does not contain more than about three tickets for each post office town in the United States, and that no exertions will be spared to effect the sale of the greater part of the tickets in said lot ery by a very early period in the fell, upon which the drawing will assuredly take place, and that several new arrangements are also on foot to facilitate the sales of the tickets, some of which, if not all, must prove very successful; beside the distribution of several millions of dollars soon to be made by the general go-vernment, will it is hoped, put a new aspect upon almost every kind of business, and allow a more liberal pa-tronage to this lottery than has been for some time past in the power of for some time past in the power of the public to pestow. He therefore confidently refees on a continuance of the approbation of a postponement, for the reasons assigned, of those who have embarked in this class in preference to all minor schemes. In the mean time, however, he will offer his friends and patrons a scheme or two similar to the 6th and 7th classes of same series of Lottery which were extremely popular; and those if any, who, having purchased tickets in the eight class, may dislike to wait a short period, and rather than hold on and retain their chance for some of the large capitals therein, would wish to exchange the same for other chances, can at any time have the privilege of doing this at either of the Manager's offices, for tickets or shares in the 9th blass, which will positively be drawn at the time mentioned.

It would be out a reiteration of former statements to speak of the brillianck and richness of the 8th class, which has no parallel in this country, and will not have its equal for many years; and adventurers will find many years; and adventurers will find no reason to regret a continuance of investments is said lottery on the score of advantageous speculation.

One half the profits of the sales of tickets or advance above the scheme price, made at either of the Manageous offices in this latter of the management.

ger's offices, in this lottery, from and after the 30th instant until further no-tice, will be equally divided and appropriated as fellows, viz .- One por tion will be appropriated to the JEF-FERSON FUND, and the other to the benefit of the heirs of ROBERT FULTON; thus giving our citizens an opportunity of contributing a substantial testimony of their regard to the venerable Thomas Jefferson, who shared in the production of that char-ter so dear to Americans, is an endurrer so dear to Americans, is an endur-ing claim upon their gratitude. There is another case to which the public may with just self approbation turn its beneficence that of Robert Fulton's decendants—It is true that the great genius himself is not here to enjoy the tribute, but certainly there are none who can deny the incalculable impor-tance of his inventions and of the ce tance of his inventions and of the ce-lerity and care, the facility and cer-tainty of conveyance and communica-tion by steam navigation; there are few who could refuse a slight effort of liberality to his orphans to express their high sense of the benefit he has their high sense of the benefit he has conferred on the community.

P. C. has the pleasure of offering the scheme of the 9th class to his friends and patrons, which will positively be drawn at the time now announced, if see sector.
