Public Sale.
By virtue of a decree of the honorable the Chancellor of Maryland, the subscriber, as trustee, will expose to public sale, on Tuesday the 31st of October next, at the house of Mrs. Hall on the premises, all the real estate, viz One tract of land containing about 234 acres, lying on Patuxent river, just above the Governor's bridge, in Anne Arundel county. This land is valuable being finely wooded and about 60 to 80 acres of which is valuable Perconson land. The improvements are a small dwelling house and other out houses with two good tobacco houses. This land is susceptible of improvement by the use of clover and plaster, and will be divided into purchasers if required. Also on other tract of land lying on the Patuxent River, just below the Governor's bridge, containing about 243 acres of improvements on which are a good dwelling house, kitchen, corn house, stable and other out houses. The soil of this land is light, but is kind, and produces corn, rye and tobacco, and is also a sufficiency of wood and timber for the support of it.
The terms of sale are—A credit of twelve months, the purchaser or purchasers giving bond, with good and sufficient security, to be approved by the trustee, bearing interest from the day of sale, and on the ratification of the sale, and the payment of the purchase money, the subscriber's trustee is authorized to execute deed or deeds for the same. Sale to commence at 11 o'clock A. M.
John Iglehart, Trustee.
The creditors of the late Dr. Joseph Hall are requested to lodge their claims with the register in chancery within 4 months from the day of sale.
John Iglehart, Trustee.

Marriage of a Deaf and Dumb person.
On Monday evening, 18th, I witnessed a ceremony which to me was very interesting on account of one of the persons engaged. This person was the beautiful and attracting Miss Mary E. Rose, who is deaf and dumb, and who on that evening was married to Mr. D. C. Mitchell, in the Rutgers Street Church, by the Rev. Dr. M'Auley.
The ceremony though short was impressive, and was performed before a crowded meeting of friends, and strangers to the parties, attracted by the novelty of the scene and the circumstance of one of them being a mute. The parties took their stations in the middle aisle of the church, and Dr. M'Auley commenced by making a very impressive and appropriate prayer. He then, addressing the groom gave the usual charge and repeated to him the words of the marriage covenant to which Mr. Mitchell signified his consent. He then stated that as Miss Rose was mute the covenant had been written out in full and explained to her, and that she clearly comprehended it. It was accordingly handed to her, she read it with deliberation, indicated by signs that she understood and consented. Dr. M'Auley presented a pen and ink and she subscribed the covenant, when the same was done by Mr. Mitchell. The minister then pronounced them husband and wife, and concluded with a prayer. The marriage certificate was handed to Mr. Rose, the father of the bride, and the covenant, after having been subscribed as witnesses by a dozen or more persons, was delivered to the Directors of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb in this city, in which Miss Rose had been educated.
The late Miss Rose, now Mrs. Mitchell, is almost 19 years old, an exquisitely beautiful and agreeable woman. She has been about seven years in the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, the latter part of the time as an assistant teacher. Her husband is engaged as principal teacher in the Central school for the Deaf and Dumb at Cambridge, in Montgomery county, of this state, whither the new married couple, we understand, will shortly proceed. May happiness smile on their union, and success attend their labours in giving instruction to the unfortunated deaf mutes. This is the second female mute who has been instructed in New-York, and married to a gentleman who can hear and speak.

West River Land FOR SALE.
The subscriber will sell at private sale, the plantation on which he now lives, lately the property of Daniel Marway, esq. This tract contains about 330 acres, and for its size contains as many advantages as any in the state, having been highly improved by clover and plaster, and well adapted to the growth of tobacco, wheat, corn, &c. It has an extensive meadow well set in timothy, and another of equal size may be set this fall. The improvements are a comfortable frame dwelling, with every necessary outhouse, say dairy, smoke-house, ice-house, &c. with houses sufficient to cure 40,000wt. tobacco, nearly all new. There is wood enough for the support of the farm; it is well watered, having several natural streams through it, a pump of excellent water at the door, and a well in the farm yard. In short it will suit the planter, farmer or grazier. As nothing but pecuniary embarrassments induce me to offer this property for sale, a great bargain may be had by early application to the subscriber.
William G. Sanders,
