COLOMBIA From the Philadelphia Gazette.

Testimony of respect for the deceased pariets Adams and Jefferson, arrated by the Republic of Colombia.

However the people of this republic may differ about the form of administering the government of their own country, it appears they can duly estimate the virtues and talents of those who sustained the cause of liberty elsewhere; and this fact of itself should be received as one evidence that notwithstanding the many aspersions thrown upon their national character by interested partizan writers, there is integrity enough among them to confirm the establishment of their institutions upon the purest principles of republicanism. the 12th of October, we translate the following document:-
