ANNAPOLIS THURSDAY, APRIL 19 10

The body of a drowned found drifted on shore at the Greenbury's Point, opposite the day before yesterday, alf J. H. were punctured in arm in durable ink. His hair markably black and cut short, the appearance of one of his yras supposed to have been defective a lifetime. His dress consisted of linen trousers, cotton drawin, stockings, tied with opeyant light shoes. It is presumed the other clothes were thrown of his making an effort to save himself, body, which it is thought had best the water a considerable time, was teared by the the water a considerable time, the terred by the coroner near the where it was found.

> JACKSON MEETING IN CHARLE COUNTY.

out

could

e tak-

volun

ullock.

s, and erty in inhabi

h great on the r fugi-

ing me ared in

in pur

I have tored in s, Res-

AMS

ret.

h 15

o the U-

At a numerous and respectible in ing of the friends of General lake convened at the Court House in h Tobacco, on Tuesday, the 27h March, pursuant to public notes take into consideration the proper of sending Delegates to the State of vention to be held in Baltime.
May next, and, generally, what as sures should be adopted in regul. sures should be adopted in regulation the ensuing election of President the United States: Nicholas Sastreet, Esq. was called to the Cand William Matthews, Esq. appared Secretary; and after a brief ensuing of the views and objects of meeting by Col. William D. Memithe following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted: were unanimously adopted:

Wweness the clouded aspect de political affairs solemnly admonia country to be aroused from their group of fancied security—that those whave the deepest stake in the prevation and perpetuation of our like ties and constitution, the yeomanns the country, should come forward, the majesty of their strength, in breast the impending storm, if & would be saved from wreck: us whereas all the formidable host of partisans of power, with all their ative and secret auxiliaries, possess all the advantages of boundless wen and great talents, sharpened and dis and areat talents, snarpened and dis-plined in the sohool of foreign dip-macy and intrigue, and skilled in a the forensic logic of hair-splitting di-tinctions and technical quiddities, a zealously and unceasingly empl in diverting public attention, and a

representing the views, sentiment, opinions by which the friends of people are actuated: We deemit a pedient and becoming, on the press occasion, in a firm and plain manse to state some of the leading facts a principles which influence our co

We hold the principle that the ri of the majority shall prevail, to be a principle upon which all free good ments must be based, and wide which any form of liberty is a not which any form of liberty is a second concery.

This principle we have seen set shamefully and unblushingly violated in the late election of President of United States; and we now behold so melancholy spectacle of an individual presiding over the destinies of secondary, who has been elevated to high office contrary to the known expressed will of an immense majority of the people.

e Mexi-gdoches y march memoration of a knowledge of the un-ling for the general diffusion of and ligence, light, and truth; but either by to control and corrupt the pre-to seduce the best sentinels of freemination of a knowledge of dom.

We see on the subject of the Panina mission, the last solemn admandations of the Father of his country, himmortal Washington, disregarded despised; and we hear, on the an occasion, a President of this Repair claiming the kingly power of cream offices, and appointing officers, as consequently expending the year money, without the colour of a lat.

And we hear that same Presides in the case of a controversy ansing the the Up-e. One ular trathe a-were ad-le have And we hear that same Preside in the case of a controversy arising tween one of the States of this Use cased.

In a, comparison the same in fact, exercising, a own person, the two great power to be united with safety of and at the same time beldly president of the world, that he intended in the same time beldly president of the world, that he intended in the same time beldly president of the world, that he intended in the same time beldly president in the same time beldly presi were dapply and prosperously is any than helf a sentury, and which he purhased for us by the valour, and consecrated by the blad of our nectors. It is time, then, for the rest body of the public to coue for yard, and, as the times and be the samer pointed out by the constitution, took to their own protection and safe-

Therefore I to this awful cris-gesolved. That, in this awful cris-to, this inegting looks, with renewed hope, to the Western Planter, to the Cilizen Soldier, Gen Andraw Jack Cilizen-Solfier, Gen. Appara Jack son, whose integrity is unsophisticated by foreign issociations, unwarped by selfah ambition, and beneath whose stitring look neither intrigue nor corription can survives who, by his valoer, sided in purchasing for us those liberties, which his bravery, patriotism, and splentiid talents, have since its and preserved, as the Guarredeemed and preserved, as the Guar-dian Spirit who will, once more, shield dun spirit who will, blice more, shield and succour his suffering country, and, aided by the Genius of Liberty, restore the purity of our free Constitution; and we, the members of this meeting, here solemnly pledge ourselves to use every constitutional and honourable effort to promote his election to the Presidency of the United States.

Resolved, That this meeting highly pprove the proceedings of their politi-al friends in Baltimore; and in order bal friends in Battimore; and in order to give effect to their recommendation upon the subject of a Convention, will now proceed, on the part of this county, to elect three Delegates to represent them in said Convention. nt them in said Convention, and earnestly recommend to their fellowmeetings, and select the like number. and one fellow citizens of Calvert are also earnestly requested to convene, and select two Delegates to said Con-

Resolved, That William Thompson. John T. Stoddert, and Nicholas Stone-street, be, and they hereby are, appinted to represent the views and vishes of the friends and supporters of General Lackson in this county, at aid Convention.

Resolved, That a Committee of correspondence, to consist of five members, namely, William D. Merrick, Philip B: Key, John B. Wills, George V. Matthews, and John T. Stoddert be, and they hereby are, appointed to communicate with similar Committees in the other counties of this district.

and elsewhere.
Resolved. That the aforegoing pre amble and resolutions be signed by the Chairman and Secretary, and forward ed to the United States Telegraph for publication in that and the Baiti-

More papers.
Nicholas Stonestreet, Ch'm. William Matthews, Secr'y.

The National Journal abuses the late tongress in terms of much severity, stigmatizing it with reproachful charges and trying to foment a feeling of re-sentment in the public, and of terror of their denunciations in those who shall compose the next congress. The consistency of its course is question able when we find that one day i claims the majority in both branches of the late Congress, which majority, if it existed, had the power to carry an measure it pleased, even to the coec

NEW-HARMONY. NEW-HARMONY.

The New-Harmony Gazette, up to the 14th ult. of which date we have retrived a paper, continued silent as to any rapture in the Society of Mr. Own. The only notice of passing occurrences that we observe, in the last aumber, does not instinct a ressation amber, does not indicate a cessation f harmony among the members of the society, of which, however, that our readers may judge for themselves we copy it:

"The weekly Ball will in faare, be held on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock precisely."

N. Intelligencers

For the U. S. Gazette.

I give you the depth of water falling n snow and rain the last three months, as follows:
Anuary, Inches, 2 62

3 55 1 13 7 90 Thomas Smith,

Arch, between 7th & 8th streets from Schwikill, Philadelphia.

Mr. Project.
It will be recollected by you, that in the mouth of December last, the Chancellor of the State of Belaware Chancellor of the blate of Delaware laid an injunction on a very important portion of this great and truly national work, which injunction the Directors of the Company did expect to see re moved long aince, but they were never able to have the matter brought to a final issue before the Court of Chancey, the Chanceller always showing in March, when a hearing was ordered, which was considered. I believe by the necessity of agreeing to an arbitra tion, and one of the conditions was that the injunction should cease on the first day of April-The injunction is now at an end, and on the second day of April the work recommenced under a force of more than three hundred men, and active exertions are making to enlarge this force as fast as possible. The contract under Mr. Dester The contract under Mr Dex'er, from the center of the Deep Cut to advancing, and strong expectations are entertained by this contractor, that his contract will be completed before win Raybold and Clark, will soon be com-pleted, when the Canal will be openfrom the Delaware to St. George's: th culties on this part of the Canal are surmounted.

So much of the Delaware Harbour as is intended to be made this season, is now nearly complete, it consists of two wharves of 200 feet each, extending from the shore into the river; and, understand the Board of Directors are anxious that the Stockholders and their follow-citizens who take an interest in his work, should avail themselves of re approaching fair weather, to visit -The bridge at the examine itsummit is considered as one of the the United States.

A Stockholder.

NAVAL ASYLUM. In the ticinity of Pailadelphia on the 3d instant, the corner stone of the Naval Asyltum was laid with due ce remony, in the presence of the Navyl Commissioner and a number of citizens. After the stone had been properly secured, Commodore Bainbridge, President of the Navy Board, delivered the following address:—

"The expense of the building which is about to commence under circum stances so auspicious, is defrayed out of a fund raised by the monthly con of a fund raised by the manthly con-tributions of the Office Seamen, and Marines in the National Service. These contributions commenced in the year 1796, and of course nearly contemporaneously with the origin of our naval establishment. By the foster ing care of government the fund so raised has accumulated to a sum ex ceeding $200,000.

"This joint stock is now about to be appropriated under the direction of go vernment, to the purposes for which was originally intended .- A home will who has been either worn out or United States; and we now behold a melancholy spectacle of an individual melancholy spectacle of the inga "light-house of the sky"—and high office contrary to the known as expressed will of an immense major of the people.

We hear the President, this described that "the people.

We hear the President, this described that "the representative should be palsied by the will of his constituted that "the representative should be palsied by the will of his constituted that a wrong cause it is known, requires thus discarding the vital principles the representative republic, and attempting to degrade the free people of country into a state of vassalag.

We see the patronage of the good ment exerted, to its utmost strict upon the press, not for the benefit the people against power.

We see the patronage of the good ment exerted, to its utmost strict upon the press, not for the benefit the people against power.

Fred. Citizen.

Fred. Citizen. ountry-a comfortable harbour will secure similar honours and comforts for a "Green Old Age."

I speak the sentiments of my associ I speak the sentiments of my associates in the Board of Naval Commissioners, when I say, that we feel the highest satisfaction in witnessing the deposit of the corner stone of an institution, which is calculated to secure so many advantages and to confirm their fands within the limits of Georgia, not included by the new treaty. There can be very little doubt of suc-

An ox weighing 1100 pounds, fat-ed in Cecil county, was lately sold in the Rikton Market.

The following details are almost too shocking for belief but we feel an obligation to publish them, as they are derived from an authentic source:

HORRID BURDER.—One of the states and the country, was committed by his negroes, on the person of Mr. John Hamlin, of Lunenburg country, Virginia, on Friday night the 9th instruments of Mr. John Hamlin, of Lunenburg country, the state of Mr. John Hamlin, of Lunenburg country, was a state of Mr. Hamling It appears that the murder of Mr. H. had been in contemplation more than twelve months. Availing themselves of the absence of the overseer, the neance, settled in a private manner, and groes carried into effect their horrid design-first by choaking him to death, and then in a brush fire, prepared for which was considered, I believe by both parties as final, the Chancellor so strongly urged a reference that the Counsellors of the parties were under the necessity of agreeing to an arbitra them in with the plough. Mr Hamlin was an enterprising and intelligent far mer, whose death will be much regret-ted by that class of the community par ticularly, and by society generally Seventeen of the negroes, charge with the offence, have been committed to the gool of that county, to await their trial before a special court to be impannelled on Monday the 19th in-

Lunenburg, March 17.

WILLIAM BROWN, THE SAI LOR.

The Liverpool Chronicle of 17th Fe-bruary contains a long account of an errest on board the Commerce Stein Packet, at the moment she was about starting for Dublin, of a female passen ger who was dressed in saitor's c and passed by the name of William Brown. The officers who took her in custody, acted from information of the disguise, which they supposed might have been borne to conceal some theft The sailor was conveyed to prison From some inquiries, the house when Brown lodged was discovered, the pro o the master of the brig Laura, of New York, as knowing all about ner Her story, as well as could be collec ted, appears to be as follows: Her father is a merchant in London. About 3 years ago, she left his house to fol vessel in the North American trade. Johns, she came to Liverpool, & took passage for that port. On arriving at St. Johns, she discovered the vessel had gone to Quebec, thither she went and there learned that her lover was drowned on his passage up to Saint Lawrence. She immediately determined to become a sailor for his sake. gaged as cook and steward to the mas-ter of a vessel for London with whom she remained upwards of 12 months. months, some weeks back brought her to Liverpool, but the master, suspect-ing her sex, extorted from her the se-cret, and wished her to remain with him, but she would not consent, and she was about to proceed to Ireland. While in prison she said her name was Seina Augusts Hamilton. She is said to be a complete sailor, taking her grog and using tobacco like other four thousand pounds at her disposal when she comes of age. (she is not yet

19) and intends to equip a vessel and for examination on the 16th of February at the Town Hall, when it appeared that her arrest was caused by the captain of the Laura. The girl refused to tell the Magistrate, Alderman Bourne, her father's name; she said she could see no necessity for it; she was a sailor now and such I intend to re-main. Mr. Duffey, of the Laura.

THE ROBIN. Per Suite A parable from the German of Krumo highest sati-faction in witnessing the deposit of the corner stone of an institution, which is calculated to secure so many advantages, and to confer so much happiness.

And I humbly beseeth Him, who governs the sea and the land, to best tow his choicest benediction on all those, who may here take shelter after an honourable "March on the Mountain Wave?"

GEORGIA & THE CEEKS.

We are informed, says the Macon (Georgia) Meaninger, of the 20th ult. that the Chiefs of the Creek nation have been convened by the Agent at Broken Arrow, and that on Friday last he commenced to treat with them for the infands within the limits of Georgia, not included by the page treaty of the commenced by the page treaty of the commenced to treat with them for the infands within the limits of Georgia, not included by the page treaty of the commenced to treat with the page treaty of the commenced to treat with them for the included by the page treaty of the commenced to treat with the page treaty of the commenced to treat with them for the included by the page treaty of the commenced to treat with them for the included by the page treaty of the commenced to treat with them for the commenced to treat with the first the commenced to macher. and also brought his little mate along with him. On seeing them, the cottager and his children were much delighted, & of the children said, "Father how expressive are the eyes of the little birds; they look as if they wished to say something." But the father replied, "My dear children, if the little

VARIETY OF POPULATION

The same variety, which marks the general character of our country, dis general character of our country, distinguishes almost every portion of it.
Nearly all the countries of Europe have supplied their contingent for the United States nearly all the states of the Union have furnished emigrants to each other. Establish a new state in the western wilderness, and citizens from almost every state are seen flock-ing to its borders. Her fields are cleared, and towns are built up by the en-

This variety of feature is more con-spicuous in the young than in the old spicuous in the young than in the old states. The same mixture of materials, which is to be found in their society, is to be seen in the members of their government. Their legislatures two for Bahia and Pernambuco, and their government. Their legislatures are composed of the natives of various states. The present Assembly of Louisiana is said to be drawn from various places, as well as professions. Her 17 Senators are made up of ten planters, five lawyers and two physicians; six being natives of the state, two of France, one of New York, three from Virginia, one Marylander, one South Carolinian, one from New Hampshire, and two from St. Domin-go. The other house consists of 34 planters, 11 lawyers, 10 physicians, and 3 merchants; 28 of whom are Louisianians. 3 from South Carolina, 3 from Virginia, I from New York, 4 from Kentucky, I from Mississippi, 3 from France, 1 from Pennsylvania, 1 from the Bahamas .. t from Connecti Cut, I from New Jersey, and I from Tennessee. Richmond Compiler. Tennessee.

Lewistown, Pa. March 31. HURRIC NE.—On Tuesday night last about midnigh ( ) most awful and tremendous hurricane passed over this town. To its irresistible force and vi-olence houses yielded—stables and sheds were razed to their foundations. and partly swept off-several houses were nearly or altogether torn down. The gable end of two or three substantial brick buildings were forced in, and several frame buildings sustain ed considerable damage. Altho' the fury of the storm may be said to have been but momentary, it was one of the most violent, and destructive in its consequence, that we remember ever to have witnessed. We are happy to state that no serious accident occurred to any person except in the destruction of private property. Mifflin Eagle.

THIS CHURCH WANTS A LOG. Said my uncle, as he saw a stranger walking up the aisle just before the service commenced, and no one so polite as to offer him a seat:-"I am sur we would not treat strangers so in our church." As I did not understand his neaning, on reaching home I desired him to explain what he meant by the log-which he did, much, I confess, to my mortification. In a certain place, he said, "a man entered one of the down the sides without being invited ter, he returned bringing a large log upon his shoulder—the congregation, meanwhile, supposing him to be inmain. Mr. Duffey, of the Laura, meanwhite, supposing that wished the Magistrate to place her in and seated nimself upon it much to the to her father. At this she gave him a look of surprise, and then remarked to piness will thus be exhibited, not tessing the magistrate she had made choice of gratifying to the Patriot, than it will be useful, in stimulating the intrepid youth of our country, to enlist under youth of our country, to enlist under our Naval Banner, that they also may her.

The magistrate discharged it to the place from which it had been taken. I need not tell you," added he, to show the rapidity of our increase. the magistrate she had made choice of doors, and offered him a seat, but in that the like was never repeated in that church. The congregation have ever since been attentive to strangers, and even go so far sometimes as to and even go so far sometimes as to invite such persons to take seats with them, before they enter the house.' Reader, does your church want a log? New York Observer.

> Summary or recapitulation of the militia and volunteers of Pennsylvania,

136,944

1,859 panies Do. infantry, 250 com-Do. riflemen, 174 companies,

Grand total.

FROM RIO JANEIRO.

There is a carely a country in the world, whose population is composed of such various materials, as the United States. The benefits which is free institutions produce, and the vast field of enterprise which it presents, have invited emigrants from almost all quarters. Nearly all the States of Europe invited emigrants from almost all quarters. Nearly all the States of Europe invited emigrants from almost all quarters. Nearly all the States of Europe invited emigrants from almost all quarters. Nearly all the States of Europe invited emigrants from almost all quarters in the same put into active requisition for our advantage. The warm fiearted Frenchman, the grave Spaniard, the Industrious German, the lively is swiss, the natives of Russia and of Italy, have found an asylum among us. Our fields have been opened by the labour of other regions, and our seaports improved by their capital.

The same variety, which marks the general character of our country, dis ended.

The blockade is carried on now according to the principle uniformly asserted by us—a vessel is wanted off before she is captured; this order has been lately issued to the Admiral commanding the naval force in the river Plate. The schooners Hothe river Plate. The schooners Ho-mer and Armstrong were taken while I was at the river last, but released immediately-formerly they took every thing entering the river. Commodare Biddle is there at pre-

changed his ministry
The squadron is each healthy and all are anxious to return to ther native land.

New-York Com Adv. CQLOMBIAN PRIZE

The Colombian armed Sloop Bolivar, captal Rieband, arrived at Mobile on the 17th ult. in company with her prize, the Spanish brig Xerxes. The prize had on board, when cap-tured, one thousand doubloons. The Bolivar sailed from Carthagena on the 26th January, with a crew of 70 men, and near the Isle of Pines, on the coast of Cuba, fell in with the Xerxes, who opened a brisk fire upon the Bolivar but was soon carried by boarding. The Bolivar and her prize, a few days afterwards, were hased for 48 hours by a part of the West, and again by a Spanish brig zette. of war, from which they escaped The Xerxes had just landed a cargo of slaves when taken.

FROM LA GUAYRA.

The advices from La Guayra, by th schooner Swift, at New York, are to the 28th March. A slip our correspondent, mentions that Bolivan was still at Caracas. He had sent a way his staff and the troops which ac companied him down from Bogota. The Colombian ship of war of 64 gun sailed about ten days previous for Car-

YANKEE TRICK.

Hiram W. Lindsey, a convict re cently effected his escape from west-ern penitentiary, near Pittsburgh, by converting a pewter spoon into a key, with which he unlocked his prison doors, and then walked off—leaving his key and the following note to th keepers.

"Hiram W. Lindsey's compliment to the first and second keepers of the penitentiary, informs them that he has proceeded to Washington City, in or-der to obtain a patent for an old Yan-kee Trick."

POPULATION of CINCINNATI. Messra. Drake and Mansfield have just given to the public "Cincinnati in 1826." The most interesting result of the investigation of the authors is the amount of its population. The enumeration was made by the gentlemen in

In 1810 our population was, 1819 1826 Cincinnati, Ohio, Gazette.

At a commencement of the University of Maryland, held at Baltimore on Monday the 2d inst. the degree of Doctor of Medicine was conferred on the best and most fashionable style. 76 gentlemen.

APRIL.

How delightful the dawn of a morning in Spring! How balmy the gales; how delicious the perfumes that load every breeze! How bright and fresh and variegated the colours which minds in the flowing scheme and which How delightful the dawn of a morning in Spring! How balmy the gales; how delicious the perfumes that load every breeze! How bright and fresh and variegated the colours which mingle in her flowing robes, and which are beyond the truch of initative art. And what an inimitable chorus of praise is sent up from every thicket and grove and hill side to the great common Parent of all animated creation. Amidst all this beauty, and in hearing of this universal anthem of in-8
-30,619
-30,775
-30,775
-30,775
-30,775

Dr. Beni. Watkins.

Offers his Professional Services to his friends and the public. He can always be found at his mother's Mrs. Rachel H. Walking, on the Head of South River.

Sale Postponed.

The sale of the land advertised, by Bushrod W Marriott trustee to take postponed until Saturdag the 12th day of May next.
April 12

South River Bridge Company.

Notice is hereby given to the stock-holders of the South River Bridge Company, that an election for nine Directors, to manage the affairs of said company, for the ensuing year, will be held at Williamson's Hotel in Company, that an election for nin Annapolis, on Monday the 7th day of May next, at three o'clock P. M.

Thos. Franklin, Treasurer.

April 12th.

Sheriff's Sale

By virtue of sundry writs of fierifacias issued by Augustine Gambrill esquire, a justice of the peace for An-ne Arundel county, and to me direct-ed against the goods and chattels, of Rezin Hammond, at suit of Charles Waters, I have seized and taken in return to this place. The Emperor has, since the death of his wife, changed his ministry.

The squadron is serv healthy and all are anxious to return to ther nagro man Charles, to the highest bid-der, for cash, to satisfy the debt due as aforesaid Sala to commence at li o'clock

Attendance by George Bradford, Deputy for R. Welch' of Ben. Shff.

A A. county. April·12

State of Maryland, sc

Calvert County, Orphans Court
March 13, 1827.
On application of John J. Brooke, administrator of John Ahern, late of Calvert county deceased, it is ordered that he give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased, and that the same be published once in each week, for the space of six suc-Spanish blockading squadron off Key cresive weeks in the Mayyland Ga-

J. M. Baden. Reg. Wills, for Calvers C.

This is to give notice, that the subscriber of Calvert county, hath obtained from the orphans court of Calvert county, in Maryland, letters of administration on the personal es-ta e of John Ahern, late of Csivert county deceased; all persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same with the vouchers thereof, to the sub-criber, at or before the first day of November next, they may therwise by law be excluded from benefit of the said estate Given under my hand this second day of April anno domini one thousand eight hundred wenty seven. John J. Brooke,

Notice. The subscriber having obtained from the honourable the Orphans Court of Anne Arundel county, letestate of David Steuart, late of said county, requests all persons having claims against said deceased, to bring them in legally authenticated, and all those indebted to make immediate assumed to payment, to Henry H Steuart, Adm'r. April 12

St. John's College. The quarterly examination of the Students of St John's College, will commence on the 11 m and end of the 12th instant; to legin each dy it 10 o'clock, A.M. The Trustees of the Institution and Parents and Guardians of the Students, are respectfully invited to attend.

eVERREUG OF IZEOU 052,2 10,000 Tenders his thanks to the public 10,000 for the encouragement he has receiv-12,016 ed in his line of business, and informs 16,230 them he has declined in favour of azette. Messrs. BRYAN & BASSFORD and

> Bryan & Bassford, MERCHANT TAILORS.

Which they will be happy to make up on moderate terms, and in the neatest manner. They respectfully solicit a share of public patronage.

April 8