Lands for Sale.
The subscriber intending to remove to the western country, offers for sale on liberal terms, a valuable lying in Broad Neck, 7 miles from Annapolis, near the estates of Mr. Horatio Hulout, Henry Mayer and Robert Bryan, containing between 250 and 300 acres, with a sufficient proportion of woodland. This estate is beautifully situated on the bay shore, possessing the advantage of a convenient water conveyance to market, and under judicious management would make a first rate market farm. The soil, which is naturally of an excellent quality, can conveniently and easily be improved by sea, or manure, &c. Mr. Jno Hickey living on the land will show it.

FARM,
Also another

Farm of 200 acres,
with good improvements, lying in Baltimore county, near the Patapsco Falls, about four miles from Cocke's town, the soil of which is peculiarly adapted to the growth of the Maryland tobacco. For terms apply to Col. Henry Maynard of Annapolis, to Mr. Charles Robinson at the custom-house, Baltimore, or to the subscriber.

The American Farmer
Every friend of this journal should understand, and that they would have the kindness to make it known, that to any one who will procure four subscribers and remit on their account $20, we will send a fifth copy of the American Farmer without charge—or, any one who will procure five subscribers will be allowed to retain $5 on his remitting the remaining $20. We beg also to repeat, that all which is necessary to be done by any one, wishing to subscribe, is to inclose a five dollar note by mail, at the risk of, and addressed to "the Editor of the American Farmer, Baltimore"—and whether the money be received or not, the paper will be forwarded immediately, and the actual receipt of each number of the volume will be guaranteed by the Editor.
The American Farmer is published weekly, by J. S. Skinner, Postmaster of Baltimore, printed on fine paper the size of ordinary newspapers, folded so as to make 8 pages; about one half, or four pages, devoted to practical Agriculture, the remainder to Internal Improvements, Rural and Domestic Economy; selections for housekeepers and female readers, and Natural History and Rural Sports. A minute index and title page to the whole volume is published, and forwarded with the last number of each volume. A single number will be sent to any one who may desire to see a specimen of the publication.
To all editors who will give the above one or two insertions, we shall feel much indebted, and will gladly reciprocate their kindness.

THE DECISIONS
OF THE
COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND,
To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Reverdy Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law.
These Decisions will form a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs. Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume. The last number of each volume will contain a full and complete Index. The mode of publication, it is conceived, possesses advantages which give it decided preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt.

TERMS
The price of each number of the Reports will be $1 25, payable on delivery.
* Subscriptions to the above work are received at GEO SHAW'S Store, the Maryland Gazette Office, and the respective Offices of the County Clerks of this State.
