Dr. AMDS G. HULL, having a peaced, during tyrenty five resus practice in Surgery; the discress and misery attending the discress and ture and the fatal consequences fre quently incident to it, and being conquently incident to it, and being con-lined that the unhappy effects were generally the result of badly con arrived Trusses or the neglect to use any, was prompted from feelings of professional duty, and as anxious de-sire to witness a more affectual remedy, to devote a share of his time to the construction of an instrument for that purpose He is now satisfied that he has brought into suce saful opera tion a Truss, constructed on a new principle and adapted to all cases of Rupture in both sexes; always, with out an exception, faithling the indi-cation of confining or keeping up the bowel, and often, especially in young persons and recent class, effecting a

Derivation cure. Levit be observed that the pad of this truss instead of being convex like that of all other Trusses, is slightly concave, like the open palm of the hand. This pad being placed over the rupture and the spring of the truss exerting its power upon the centre of it, the strong pressure is made by its circular margin, around the rupture opening and a diminished pressure by its centre. It thereby not prevents the escape of bowel, but approximates, and often unites the ruptured part so as to effect a radical cure of the complaint. The following restimonists in its fa

"A great variety of Trusses, form ed on different principles, have beed from time to time, introduced to pub lie notice; but with one exception t ay he asserted, that they have been may be ascered, that they have been found alto ether definent in those just principles upon which such insterments ought to be formed. It is with in a few years that a frust has been invented by DFA C Hill, a respectively experience and Surgeon of New invented by Dr A G Bull, a respectable Physician and Surgeon of New York, and late President of the Onei da Medical Society which is incom parably superior in its principles and properties to any of those previously in use. Dr. Holl is exclusively enti tled to the credit of first adapting the true surgical principle for the radical cure of Herata He happily conceiv ed the idea that the pad of the Truss should be so constructed as simply to support the muscular fibres around the ring or aperture as much as pos sible, in the state in which they are maintained in perfect health. Unless this be attained the parts can never recover their natural tone whatever may be the degree of pressure appli
