never subscribed.—If to depend directly upon the people their representative in Parlament if, as a servant of the crows to lead on an other support than that of the direction of the confidence,—if that be to be adventurer, I plead guilty to charge, and I would not exchange that situation, to whatever that situation, to whatever among may expose me, for all the advatages which might be derived from ancestry of a hundred generations

New York, May 17 SHOCKING AFFAIR A most horrible occurrence tody place at noon yesterday, at 71 Water street. A man named Alexander M'Lean, a labourer in several mecantile stores in the lower party the city, stabbed his wife, which caused her death in less than an sourafterwards. They had separate nearly two months in consequence of ill treatment on his part. A child aged four years, was their sole of spring, and was present at the com-mission of the horrid deed. M'Leav presented himself before his wife, at about twelve yesterday, having visited her twice previously in the same day, and inflicted, after a short di tercation, the wound which caused her death. A young girl, who was n the room at the time, hearing ? shriek, turned around and and knife from the body of his wife. Be ing alarmed, she ran down stain b call her mother, and was followed by the unfortunate woman, who claiming that "M'Lean In tillitaher." Two men who has teographe in the apartment below caught her in their arms. carried her falls. room above and placed her on a bed, upon which she shortly after expir-ed. M'Lean having mixed a dose of poison, (arsente) which he had ineffectually desired his wife to take swallowed part of it immediately after the commission of the act. Ho was after a short delay apprehended add carried to Bridewell, where medicines were administered. At a late hour last evening he was beion lieved to be relieved from itseffects and likely to survive.

From the New York Gaz. May 18. The late Milcan, who murdered his wife on Wednesday, expired in Bridewell between eleven and twelve o' clock yesterday morning, from the effects of the arse in he had swallowed. unt adathe oli-

een

con-

ases erit:

bili-

this.

n wil-

THE MURDER OF WHIPPLE The Albany bapers have disap-pointed us this marning, in regard to a further development of facts respecting the assassination of Mr. Whipple. We spoke yesterday of the arrest of a man calling himself, Joseph Orton. He has been fully committed under detrong programs. committed, under a strong presumption of guilt. The Governor, more over, has offered a reward of $500 for the detection of the murderer. or the detection of the murderer.

Orton has been employed for the last six or eight months as a laboure on the farm on which Mr. Whipple's family reside. He is about 30 years of age, was born in Westchester county; but for a number of years and the state of the st has resided in Kentucky and Ohio, a part of the time in the vicinity of Cincinnati. While ander examination, after much contradictory eti-dence, he refused to make further answers without obtaining the sid of council. John Van Ness Yates, esq. was sent for, who, after some private conversation with the prison-er, refused to defend him. but er, refused to defend him. It seems that this man lived with Mr. Whip n Mr. ple—and it appears up n examining fame, Mrs. Whipple, that the had had scribe suspicions of his intentions, or if or which information is correct, the prisoner had expressed to her his determination is correct to the fine of the had expressed to her his determination to kill her husband, which significant in the state of her from developing.

It is stated by arrons from Albanes, with whom the course of week, before last, Mr. Whipple being about to this city, whence he was expressed. sent to this city, whence he was erpected to return to Albany on Silver day, Mrs. W. went down to Fiber hotel, where her husband was in the habit of stopping as he landed from the boat, and wrote him a latter country has a present the stopping as he sanded from the boat, and wrote him a latter country him not to come home. an pa-dation. after dark as she feared he would be an palation. after dark as she feared he would be where, of hopery in and he will be persons lurking about the premise And on her examination on same day, it is said she confessed that the self to a serialities a gn and hat this parents wern respectable, and in Inteless county, and not in Onteless county, and not in the I have

Faryland Wagette ANNAPOLIS:

HURSDAY, MAY 24, 1827. ndidates for the Legislature. ANNE-ARUNDEL COUNTY. Abner Linthicum, Charles R. Stewart, Robert W. Kent, William J. W. Compton, Christopher L. Gantt, Charles S. Matthews, John S. Williams, John S. Sellman, Edward E. Anderson, Stevens Gambrill, Joseph Nicholson.

The Prairie, a new novel by Coope published in Philadelphia last at Albany on the 15th inst. from west; they were laden with wheat, aber, &c.

ies the prospect is so entirely ess that many of the farmers are thing up or pasturing their fields.

prizes, amongst the number, a erchant brig from Vigo, in Spain, th the King's Mail and a rich cargo, and to Havanna, sent her to Ver 72, also a sloop and brig. with cares of little value; liberated the for and sent the latter to Havanna the prisoners; and the officers te that the squadron of Commissione er entered and sailed from Cayo t pleasure; that whilst Laborde was arently blockading Commodore g on both sides of the Island of Cua, capturing every vessel under the loanish flag they met with, which was ufficient to keep the Captain General and Laborde in a continual state of ion of Havanna, we copy from the "We have before us a letter from Isvanna, dated 29th ultimo, from t pectable source, in which a melantest city and of Cuba generally. rale is said to be dull; money very carce, and interest high; the public d disquiet and suspicious; the ad nistration of criminal justice lax and ards, while offences and culprits muliply. It is added that notwithstand of Laborde was to effect, nothing done, and every day crews airiv onging to vessels captured by the TWO EARS FOR ONE EYE. A person was lately convicted in Davidson county, N C. of maining gouging out an eye) another man, and entended, according to law, to stand.

HAVANNA. The following account of the situa-

the hospitals." (Lins was at the size of Gerona.) Whe man did nothing to lare back.

ECYPTIAN MUMMY.

The yeardies of opening an Ecyptian in the provided of Gerona. The provided in the continually attered the most in the first of the provided in the Gelfey of the Dupphines and curres exhausting the whole region that do not called present attended. The lines of the provided in the Gelfey of the provided in the grant of the general and the presented of Gerona. When and the grant of the the facts of the case, which were well touched, were these:

A bricklayer's labourer, who had fallen from a scaffold in considerable height, was brought in the course of the hintern contains the following distriging account of the wheat in ginia:

The Winchester Virginian of the hintern contains the following distriging account of the wheat in ginia:

From all quarters of the country we leve the most unfavourable intelliged to the day of the state of the wheat crup; some parts of the state of the wheat crup; some parts of the state of the wheat crup; some parts of the sand the adjacent some parts of the facts of the case, which were well the 2d inst. at St. Jean port July, near the scene of the wreck.

A bricklayer's labourer, who had the 2d inst. at St. Jean port July, near the scene of the wreck.

I have unfortunately just been a winess of a frightful shipwreck. On the 30th ult. at 11 o'clock at night, a vessel from Belfast with 150 settlers. It is after some hours, he spoke a language which no person about him could understand. Inquiries were made of the worknen who had known him, and had brought him to, the hospital, but all that could be learned was, that he was on some uninhabited island or should which the tide would cover the was an Englishman; and no one had ever heard him speak any other language than English. At the end of hood, soon drove the huge waves over hood.

fered as a burfesque case upon the doctrines of Phrehologists, it would be voted excellent. And yet a great many very strong facts, and well authenticated, may be found in support of it. There is a case which I believe may be fully relied on lof a gentleman who went out to dine (it was in the country) at the house of a friend; and, out of a gig and fell upon his head. He was a good deal hurt, and lay tor some hours stunned by the dow; and on his recovery, never could recorder the fact of his having gone out to din-knowledge; arising, not from sudden violence, but from affection of the brain by temporary disease. An affi brain by tempora folisease. An fill rest had proceeded to Quebec by land, cer on service in Spain with whom! I rest had proceeded to Quebec by land. The survivors were loud in their prairie of the inhabitants of the country near brain fever. I had known this man from his youth; and I fully believe that e had never thought of turning rhyme in his life, much less of compos-ing poetry. On the second day after his head became affected, he, to every appearance, composed, and certainly wife and three children. Another uttered verses, which no one about out of four children lost three him had ever heard before. The mat-ter was rambling that the rhyme was Mrs. Lamb lost her husband, one most inconceiveable rapidity. As this gentleman recovered, his poetic fever left him; and with it I believe the fac ulty; he could make no verses after

Mr. Southey's second volume of the History of the Peninsula War which is just published, contains an account too, of two very curious instances, pretty nearly to the same purpose.

gouging out an eye) another man, and steeded, according to law, to stand the brain were observed at this time in the hospitals." (This was at the siege of Gerona.) "One man did nothing but count, with a loud and deliberate to seventy, always."

guage than English. At the end of thood, soon drove the huge waves over two days, however, a milk woman the vessel, giving it repeatedly heavy came into the ward where he lay, to visuching up or pasturing their fields. The result is, and she understood in minimum diarely; the language which he spoke was Welch. The result is, that this man had left Wales twenty years before his arcifect, and had so completely forgotten the Welch language at the date of it, that he was unable to speak that tongue at all.—The big Antelope at Philadelphia, the sinst. Great Heneaga beards the sinst. Great Heneaga beards by the Mexican National brig of Var Bravo, W. A. Wyse, Esquire, bomanader, 28 days out from Cayo lusso, on a cruize, and was treated the moment previous to his fall, he had lost; and entirely to deprive him of that of speaking English, which, up to the moment previous to his fall, he had lost; and entirely to deprive him of that of speaking English, which, up to the moment previous to his fall, he had lost; and entirely to deprive him of that of speaking English, which, up to the moment previous to his fall, he had lost; and entirely to deprive him of that of speaking English, which, up to the moment previous to his fall, he had lost; and entirely to deprive him of that of speaking English, which, up to the moment previous to his fall, he had lost; and entirely to deprive him of the moment previous to his fall, he had lost; and entirely to deprive him by their distressing and hopeless condition. Those who were left on board were only landed on the ist about three o'clock in the afternoon. Of the story at first sight, seems the condition of the board were only landed on the ist about three o'clock in the afternoon. Of the story at first sight, seems the condition of the board were only landed on the ist about three o'clock in the afternoon. Of the story at first sight, seems the condition of the board were only landed on the ist about the story at first sight, seems the condition of the board were only landed on the ist about the story at first sight, seems the condition of the board which he can dwhen this failed to relieve the when this failed to relieve the weesel by lightening her, the other teen dead bodies in one house, men, women and children, but chiefly of the latter. These will be interred to morrow .- At another house there are ? other bodies. It is impossible to de scribe the heart-rending scenes which nave passed before us.

"If these unfortunate settlers had disembarked at low water when the vessel first went ashore, none of their would have perished. One woman ha husband are in a state of delirium. Another account states that the ori ginal number of passengers was 151; where they were wrecked, who treated them with the utmost kindness, slaugh vaided at 30,0001 which is alone all lost or damaged. One man lost his the survivor is deaf and dumb. And generally correct; and this process was child, and money, and property to the continued for many hours with the amount of 700l, and is now with six children left destitute .- The vessel is

Letter to the Editor of the New-York Com-

DHRENOLOGY, at: —There is in the Europhy Monthly Magnzine for sufficient to the Europhy Monthly Magnzine for sufficient to the Europhy Monthly Magnzine for sufficient to the State of the

Capt. G. mentions that Admiral Misulis from each electoral district, to p is very popular: that in him more than any other man among them, the confidence and affection of all the Greeks unite. On the arrival of Capt. G. at Napoli, he was requested to navigate the frigate over to \mathcal{E}_{S} ins, and consented to do so; that with him went passenger Admiral Misulis; whom he treated, having the means to do so, with that ed, having the means to do so, with that what measures are proper to be what measures are proper to be other man among them, the confidence and affection of all the Greeks unite. On the arrival of Capt G. at Napoli, he was requested to an aignate the frigate over to Ægina, and consented to do so; that with him went passenger Admiral Miaulis; whom he treated, having the means to do so, with that generous hospitelity which characterizes the naval service of our country. On the arrival of the ship at Ægina, the command was surrendered to Miaulis, and Capt. G. became his guest. They were immediately put on stinted allowance, and snapplied with very-common food. The Admiral apologized for this change of fare, by telling Capt. G. that there were so many thousands of his countrymen destitute of the sustenance of life, that he dare not susplic him with better food. Indeed it is most affecting to fear Capt. G.—relate the fact that there are thousands of destitute human beings crowding the streets of Napol, who eagerly seize even to blades of grass within their reach, to sustain life Capt. G. is of opinion that the coarsest and cheapest dried provides the Greeks—bean, pras, killadried corn meal, he represents to be equal, if not preferable, as articles of provision, to wheat flour. Fish are in great demand among the Greeks—bean, pras, killadried corn meal, he represents to be equal, if not preferable, as articles of provision, to wheat flour. Fish are ingreated the mand among the Greeks—bean, pras, killadried corn meal, he represents to be equal, if not preferable, as articles of provision, to wheat flour. Fish are ingreated the mand among the Greeks—bean, pras, killadried corn meal, he represents to be equal, if not preferable, as articles of provision, to wheat flour. Fish are ingreated the mand among the Greeks—bean, pras, killadried corn meal, he represents to be equal, if not preferable, as articles of provision, to wheat flour. Fish are ingreated the mand among the Greeks—bean, pras, killadried corn meal, he represents to be equal, if not preferable, as articles of provision, to wheat flour. Fish are ingreated the m stand, the sum remaining to defray the civil list of the present year, except a special deposit, in the Western Respecial deposit, in the Western Reserve and Franklin Bank of Columbus. of these were drowned, 19 children, 3 women and 2 men. The Waterloo brought away 27 men, 16 women, and 27 children—in all 70 persons—the rest had proceeded to Quebec by land.

Columbus. (Ohio) May 10.

The survivors were loud in their maise gainst banks has so far prevailed that no direct assent could be obtained to lodge the funds in any of them for seurity.

The instruments made use of by these daring felons, were two chisels and a large augur which they, it appears from the testimony already taken, obtained by breaking into a cabinet shop. The shutters of the back window of the room connected with the vault of the treasury were opened by prying of the bar which secured the nutter; on entering the room they commenced their operations upon the wault which was secured by two large iron doors. These were forced by remov-ing the wood and brick work.—The public treasure was in two iron chests one within the other. Both were forced and the entire forms taken away. Six—We hasten to inform you, that upon an application made by the most real and the entire forms recalled merchants of Quebec and Montreal, to the government and council, for permission to import flour from the United states by land or inland navigation, to go into bond for export to the West Indies, a decision is made permitting this trader and orders will be given immediately at the ports of entry at the Coteau de Luc and St. Johns accordingly.

GREECE.—The intelligence from Greece is of a vague, though generally favourable character. One really favoura office of Lord Chamberlain.

The Marquis of Anglesea has accepted the Master Generalship of the age. This is to give Notice, That the Ordnance, and despatches have been road leading to Castle Haven Whari. On the night of the 7th inst. the vault of the Treasury of this state was broken open and a large sum of money taken therefrom, being as we under the sum remaining to the control of the office of Commander in the sum remaining to the control of the office of Commander in the sum remaining to the control of the office of Commander in the sum remaining to the control of the office of Commander in the control of the office of Commander in the control of the office of the offic Chief.

Sir N. C. Findal, the Solicitor General has given in his adjussion to Mr. Canning's administration. Sir Chas, Wetherell, Attorne, General, Hon. J. Becke, Judge Advocate General, Earl of Straftsbury, Chairman of the Committee of the House of Lords, Hon. Chas. Arbuthnot, Commissioner of Woods and Forests, &c. have resigned. The following arrangements are under says the Mercury of the 20th-Duke of Clarence, Lord High Admiral; Hon. G. Canning, First Lord of the Treasury and Chancellor of the Exchequer; Earl of Harrowby, President of the Council: Lord Granville. Secretary of State for Foreign Af fairs; Mr. Huskisson, Secretary of State for the Home Department; Mr. Robinson (with a Peerage) Secreta ry of State for the Colonies; Mr. Wynn, President of the Board of Control; Lord Bexly, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster.

warehousing of corn is to be permitted tendance by Philip Pindell, deputy under the new act, and that the duty for R Welch, of Ben.

Adams Meeting

In Anne-Arundel County
The citizens in the fourth, fifth and stxth election districts of Anne-Arundel county, who are in favour of the re election of John Quincy Adams; to the Presidency of the United of States, are respectfully requested to assemble at Merrille Tavern, Water. loo, on Saturday the 2d of June, enauing at 11 o'clock, for the purpose of taking measures to promote that

Annapolis, Patriot, American, and Morning Chronicle in Baltimore, are respectfully desired to publish the a-

May 21

Trustee's Sale.

By virtue of a decree of the Chan-cery court, the subscriber will expose at public sale, on Saturday the 6th of June next, at 11 o'clock, on the pre-

All that part of a tract of land lying All that part of a tract of land lying and being in Anne-Arundel county, called Hammond's Second Connexion, containing 139 acres, formerly occupied by the late James O'Rourke This land will be sold subject to the right of dower of the said O'Rourke's Windows dow Terms of sale are—Cash to be paid on the day of sale, or on the rati-fication thereof by the chancellor. On paymen of the purchase money, the subscriber, as trustee, is authorised to convey the property to the purchaser Somerville Pinkney, Trustee. May 21.

Caution to Travellers. Attempts having been repeatedly made by Captam Levin Jones, the proprietor of one of the lines of stages, rom Castle Haven to Cambridge, to force passengers by the Steam Boat Maryland, to take seats in his Stage, by enacting 25 cents from those who alie seats in the subscriber's Carri-and consequently free for all travellers. _ Captain Jones has no right to make any such unjust demand.

Public County Road.

The Subscriber's STAGE with good horses and careful driver, will at all times be in readiness to convey passengers to or from the Steam Boat Passengers If more than one, 50 cents only-if but one, 75 cents

Horses and carriages will be furnished at a moment's warning, to convey travellers to any part of the Peninsula, on the most moderate terms.

WILLIAM C. RIDGAWAY.

Sign of the Steam Boat and Stage. The proprietor's INN is ready he reception and accommodation of May 24.

Sheriff's Sale.

By virtue of a writ of fieri facias ssued out of Anne Arundel county ourt, and to me directed, against the goods, chattels, lands and tenements, of Elizabeth Whittington, executrix I shall proceed to sell the said pro-perty to the highest bidder, for cash, to satisfy the debt due as aforesaid. Sale to commence at 11 o'clock At-

Notice is hereby given, That the subscriber has obtained from the orphans court of Anne Arundel county, short letters of administration on the personal estate of Ezekiel Stewart; late of said county deceased All persons having claims to present them, legally authenticated and those indebted to make immediate pryment.

All they Stewart, Adm's.

Mr. 24.

Notice

The Commissioners of the Tax for Anne Arnodel county, will meet at the court house in the city of Asse-polis, on Toesday the 19th day of June next, for the purpose of hearing appeals and making transfers, 64.

By order, R. I. Cownes, Ch.

June 24,