J. DYKES,

Teacher, Baltimore, BALTIMORE, July 12, 1827 From the Rev. Mr. Morrison.

I have attentively perused Mr. Instantian Brown's American Grammar, and stating my opinion of it, I man that it possesses much merit. And the student who has been through Mr. ray's System, I consider the America Grammar an invaluable work. To sectional reading is certainly an in provement, and on that accountils a

DEAR SIR:—Agreeably to yourn quest, I have examined the Americ Grammar, and am much pleased vi it. To state wherein your work of cels the old system, would far excel the limits prescribed. I think how ever, it would be unjust to confinent ever, it would be unjust to confine as self to a cold and general assent as merits. The attention which you may be a clear lucidation of the maject, and to the exclusion of entiting which might obscure it, must cessarily recommend your products far higher than any thing which I call say.

As a teacher, I have found from es perience, that while the old system perience, that while the old system is studied as a druigery, and impositupon youth as a wearisome task, year is seized with avidity, and its stay entered into with delight. This is as surprising, when it is considered as in place of burdening the memory a does the old system, you gradually in the intellect. In your system is learner has the satisfaction of knowing what he is about—in the old, bid the dissatisfaction, and discourages. of committing to memory without derstanding what he commits. I had to add only, that your work is as valuable production, even to those what a leady attended to Murray's many and the same already attended to Murray's many attended to Murray attended to Murr tem. And I hope, that your Grams will recommend itself to others at has to me, and that teachers will get rally introduce it.
