by pursuit, re-f militia, and rence in the spirit ns, and determinng apprised of the pressed towards he should again ad other thoughts Already had he at war with him-s conduct. Glo. pirit recoiled from able to him than his courage tri-er his prudence, who have studied masterly. Two ia were advanced rapidity, lest, by and, preserving a d fire as they fell , to range with it mposed this line. at its head. At a ne rear of the first ationed, composed nfantry and two nia militia, comced with a compaerve. nen, in the line of ted in silence the in sight, hastily on for battle, and ult. Of this conicture is from the t parties quickly and arrayed with shouting, rushed nt line, which re poured in a close to advance with nilitia, they retirhaste, the second their horses, pro-remove them to a arlton pushed forfirmness. The tinate; and each he example of its ded for victory. o order up the reline, which again directing his right s cavalry having on that portion of I retired to their n struck at them nd drove them bed cavalry of the Morgan pressed nd the pursuit be-eneral." battle we lost ahoto twelve only a simultaneous ef

lol, Howard, Col. were killed The Both of dragoons, and swith the exception of the og in all to about guard, were nearly all killed position on the One handred, including to Lord Cornwal: five hundred privates were the artiflery, 800 muskets, two shis judicious dis.

his judicious dis.
ordship's appre
y of Ninety saix, n posts, which he ed by the movedeby the movetrans detachtrans detach and from detachhorse and foot to was immediate fornwallis to the six, with orders to if possible, to bat temper and chi

the British colosperfectly conge
ord from the british brilliant explain dental from the british colosperfectly conge
ord from the british brilliant explain
dental from the britis

"There existed in the character Gen. Morgan a singular contrade which is worthy of notice.

which is worthy of notice.

Although, in battle, no mas user more prodigal of the exposure person to danger, or manifestician deliberate disregard of death, user manifestician deliberate disregard of death, user manifestician deliberate disregard of death, user manifestical deliberate disregard of death, user manifestical disregard di

Brigadier General Morga was w and active, six feet in height, sin not too much encumbered with L not too much encumbered with and was exactly fitted for the tidin pomp of war. His mind was derinating and solid, but not compasive and combining. His maplain and decorous, neither last ing nor repulsive. His content grave, sententions, and complete and uncaptivation. unadorned and uncaptivating. He flee d deeply, spoke little, and cuted, with keen perseurince, and ever he undertook. He was ind gent in his military command, pre-ring always the affections of his tra to that dread and awe which surre

A considerable time before his du when the pressure of infirmity ben be heavy, he became seriously cerned about his future welfar. h that period, his chief solace laying study of the scriptures, and is a tional exercises. He died in a lief of the truths of christianing in full communion with the Pres rian Church.

Public Sale.

By virtue of an order from the phans court of Anne-Arundelcou the subscriber will offer, at pusale, on Friday the 12th day of 0t ber next, at the residence of the s scriber, near Sweetser's Perry,

The Personal Estat of Mrs. Ann Ritty Hammond, designed, consisting of a Negro Wexass two Children, Household and Essa Furniture, &c Terms of Succeedit of six months for all same twenty dollars and upwards, they haser giving bond with security interest from the date—under to dollars, Cash. Sale to comments

John R. Thomas, Admi. September 20.

Valuable Land.

By virtue of a decree of the Coat Chancery, the subscriber will est to public sale, on Friday the 12th of October next, if fair, if not the fair day thereafter, at Kitt's tan on the Annapolis and Baltimore

The Real Estate of the late Doctor Matthias Hams deceased, lying on the head of Sea and in the Piny Woods, being part Hammond's Enclosure, Hams lambegan to regan directed it to y. This manœuI with precision, eved, and the new ed with prompticular retrograde rsor of flight, the n with impetuosit, as it drew near, t, and gave it a fire. Stunned by ck, the most adrecoiled in confued the happy mo its advantage with elecisive step gave serve having been lately surveyed and half into lots, and will be sold entire lots to suit purchases. Terms of the purchase meany we paid in six months, one other the sare, as it is presumed the late to suit purchases. These is have been lately surveyed and half into lots, and will be sold entire lots to suit purchases. Terms of the purchase meany we paid in six months, one other the sale, with interest on each insular from the day of sale, to be secured the fugitives. As a cavalry having on that portion of a retired to their necture to the near the necture to the near the necture to the necture to the necture to the necture to t

Louis Gassaway Trusted commence at 12 o'clock.

The creditors of Doctor Math.
Hammond, deceased, are kersby fied to exhibit their claims, who vouchers thereof, to the chances of within four months from the day ande.

Locial transman of Lyste.

Baryland Bagette ANNAPOLIS: THURSDAY, SEPT. 20, 1827.

"Homespur" will be attended to I week

There was a tremundous gale of a in the West-Indies on the 17th August. Accounts from St. Thos's and St. Crofx, represent it to the day which they were now assembeen very destructive, having strated the cane crops, and blown
Gen. Philip Reed of Kent county, an bouses, &c.

There were unray-uve deaths in limore during the week ending on paday morning last.—Males 21, feles 14. Seven of the whole num-y were persons of colour—all free.

The brig Emily, Capt. Walmsley, rived here on Tuesday morning from espected that she will sail with the ern mail to-morrow or next day.

For the Maryland Gazette.

By. Green,—I saw in your paper of 6th inst. a piece signed A. Phila-lphian, taken from Poulson's Ameri-n Daly Advertiser, Philadelphia, of annual August Last, additional 20th of August last, addressed to y of War, wherein A Philadelphian "A canal cut from either Anna South or West rivers, to Wash will not in any event exceed oned, there may be some trut it, but I doubt it, nor do I think acticable to cut a canal from any cre mentioned places to the Cit eight or forty miles, unless a ormous expense, such as the U d States will never do, and that of states will never do, and that state of Maryland is not able to Ner would it be of much use to be of the places mentioned, for the trailed be of so tedious a nature attached be worse than that of the comec, as mentioned by A Philadel know that distinguished engineer e of opinion that this plan is perfect practicable, and if so, it requires no rament to prove its importance. w, sir, as it regards the engineers, m willing to believe that A Phila phian misunderstood them; it must ich there is no doubt in the mind of writer of this, but that a canal do be cut, and made within the dis-

e. I mention this to the shame ute of Maryland, that it has no since been done. The rout of contemplated canal would con esce on the Severn river, a small di two Patuzent branches by aquestly in defence of the Caralle and several two Patuzent branches by aquestly to farm or residence of John the better the farm or residence of John. Herbert, esq. in Prince-George's entry a distance of little more than the miles, if that, with scarcely an stacle in the way, when speaking of miles and of the importance of the herein contemplated; then from herein contemplated; then from Eastern Branch, and the whole of e ground between there and the Eas-m Branch, very easy to cut, the disnst would be much less. The pply of water would be from the

of twenty-four miles or less, be the Eastern Branch, a creek of the

ANNE-ARUNDEL.

FROM VALPARAISO. - The ship ter on Thursday in 80 days from of dollars. mer rose so rapidly that the mail a not received from Santiago for 10 74 a distance of 90 miles.

There are thirty daily coaches run-g between Liverpool and Manches There are besides packet boats Manchester to Runcour, and cataract of sympassis from there to Liverpool. In fare by water is 3s. 3d. The Manchest run in four hours, the strate being 36 miles. About 300 aches leave London daily to all parts the kingdom.

Cataract of sympassis for a volume, from which, however, we can draw but aparingly to-day, having other and and unexpected duties to perform.

On Thursday afternoon a party of between one and two hundred embarking the kingdom.

the war-worn soldier, who was alike distinguished in the Revolution and the There were thirty-five deaths in late war.

Gen. Tobias E. Stansbury, who commanded a brigade on this station in 1814, and who was long the Speaker of our House of Delegates. Alexander McKim, the faithful ve teran of the people, and long tried friend of their cause. Roger B. Taney, Esq. Attorney General of the state, Col. George E. Mitchell, and John W. Nelson, Esq. formerly members Congress.

Many Officers of the Navy and Ar my, and a number of the most guisland of our citizens with the Marsh als and various committees of the day The crowd, until this moment dis persed over the adjacent grounds were now summoned to the scene of celebration by the firing of two pie-ces of ordnance. One can scarcely imagine a more animathy spectacle From twelve to fifteen thousand per sons pressing forward from every contiguous quarter, and gendually con-ciensing into more solid ranks around and in front of the piatform, until the congregating multitude formed an im pervious, but tranquit mass.

The best part of the bone and sinew of the town were there, and let it be remembered, good Jackson sinew into

At half past twelve, Mr. George Winchester addressed the assembled with a temperate but decided tone up on the merits of the Presideralal con He was followed by John V. L. the two candidates brought forward by the Jackson interest for the representhe company headed by which encompassed the burnt offerings of the day. This department was dexterously administered by the pro

MANDREW JACKSON The Peo-

pt's (indidate,"
were reverently quaffed in free libations.—A national salute fired with some of the o'd, pieces that had done service on the twelvib September, 1814. closed the ceremone.

The day passed overling lee, good humour and perfect harmony, and never on any occasion was there maintained a more respectful decorrib. It will tell to the mortification, perhaps, of some of our opponents, but greatly the Potente. large a multitude of citizens, met to gether on an occasion of rejoicing patient attention on one spot, -unco-vered from the rays of a hot sun in the

> From the Rochester Telegraph. Descent of the Michigan over Nia-were are thirty daily coaches runletween Liverpool and Manches

There are besides packet boats Manchester to Runcour, and boats from there to Liverpool.

lare by water is 3s. 3d. The more than the form there to Liverpool.

If the state of the contracted the contracted truning on Month of the contract of the

Capt. R. cut loose, gave her 3 cheers, and pulled with a strong, steady and fearless stroke, (through a torrent never before stemmed) for the shore. which he maile at a point about three quarters of a mile above the falls. The interest felt for the safety of the barge, was painful. Human life had never before, in that frightful manner, been voluntarily periled. All who had ever been hurried thus far into that cur rent, went to "that bourne from whence no traveller returns." strong arms and steady nerves saved the barge—Capt. Rough is the oldes navigator on lake Erie. - He was as sisted by Mr. Allen, mate of the Mi chigan, and four hardy experienced

The Michigan was headed down stream 24 minutes before 3 o'clock The steam-boat cut loose in 18 minutes before 3-the birge left her at 13 be nutes. She reached the first rapid a. 7 minutes before 3, and broke on the precipice at precisely 3 the appointed time for the descent.

On board the Michigan was a crew in effigy; an old buffalo, whose period was only hastened a few days, an old and young bear, a fox x racoon eagle, two geese, and a had dog, tha we understood, had bit our friend Day of the Buffalo Journat.

Either the fox or the racoon, (we could not distinguish which, but it was host for nearly an hour, commenting probably the latter.) ran up the main inast as she went over the first reef. and bruin mounted the foretop as sh bounded over the second, where he was M-Mahon and Gen. George H. Steuart, distinctly seen by thousands clinging to the top, as she lay on her beam, and the represen- went by the board with the mast, susthe Jackson interest for the representation of the city of Baltimore in the Legislature of this State. Their speeches were appropriate to the occasion, frack manly and decisive, and would have be spoken of with commendation to the better judging and more tolerant of our opponents. It was near three o'clock before these matters were disposed of, at which time a band of music announced the procession of the company headed by the staunch the geese. She was taken alive, but the geese. She was taken alive, but veterans of the Revolution, Generals much exhausted, with her head badiy out, and one eye out. She was taken out of the river below the falls by the ferrymen, and was probably the only survivor of the number that made the

The day was exceedingly fine, and nothing occurred to mar he pleasures.

Extract of a letter to the Editor of the calling, and election sure." Thus has society been deprived of one of it

Extract of a fetter to the Enfor of the New York Daily Advertiser, dated Buffalo, September 9th, 1637.

"And now we approach the recreating moments of the exhibition. The high grounds on both sides. If the American and British shores were lined with results beginning full. The day passed oversing glee, good humour and perfect harmony, and never on any occasion was there maintained a more respectful decords. It will tell to the mortification, perhaps, of some of our opponents, but greatly to the honour of our city, that in so large a multitude of citizens, met to gether on an occasion of rejoicing, with so many incitements to pass the bounds of moderation,—suffering under the unavoidable fatigue of three hours natient attention on one spot,—unco-displayed at her stern.—the asset with people, having a full view of the with people, having a full view of the Rapids and of the approach of the vessel, and now it was that a thousand fast and now displayed at her stern .patient attention on one spot,—uncovered from the rays of a hot sun in the hottest part of the day, with the means of refreshment in various directions a and rising from it in beautiful style. & It is stated, that during hottest part of the day, with the means of making a plunge, shipping a value, more rain fell in Chili than ever shown before by the oldest inhance to the strictest order occurred, in fact, that not one individual could be charged with sexual 1500 houses at Santiago. It settlements the damage would settlement to two millions of chilars. pectation for her fate was now at the. highest; she swung round and presented her broadside to the dashing and foaming waters, and after remaining stationary a moment or two, was by its force, swung round stern foremost, and having passed to the third Rapid, she biged, but carried her hull apparently whole, between Glass Island and the British shore to the Horse Shoe, over

TWELFTH UF SEPTEMBER.

The following is extracted from the notice of the celebration of the 12th of September, which appeared in the Baltimore Republicant

"At half past twelve, the arrangements which were to precede the opening of the day, were completed. The Michigan was towed by the atem-boat Chippewa down to the platform was filled. On the chief seats ast

The Reverend Clergy.

The Reverend Clergy.

The Reverend Clergy.

The Reverend States, who commanded on the United States, who commanded on the day which they were now assembled to commemorate.

Gen. Philip Reed of Kent county, Gen. Philip Reed of Kent county, Gen. Philip Reed of Kent county, Republicant and and came on broadsides, but was headed down again by the barge, and kept steady for another mile, when the steady for another mile and the procedules to the for Montevideo to the control of the pectod the mounts of the pectod the pectod the mounts of the pectod to the form of the steady for the steady advice to the for Montevideo to the folial, the steady of the pectod to the pectod to the folial, the steady of the pectod to the folial, the steady of the pectod to the folial, the steady of the pectod to the folial, th Extract of a letter from Montevideo of 5th July, received at Boston.

*Enclosed is a copy of a Treaty between Buenos Ayres and Brazil, not ratified, but rejected.

Balt. American.

HYMENEAL.

Married, on Sunday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Warkins, Mr. Ben-amin Issaes to Miss Rlieabeth WOODFIELD, both of this county.

ant, by the same. Mr. PREDERICK FISH. to Miss CLARISSA PHILIPS, al of this city.

Married-At Pittsburg, on Thurs day, the 23d ult. by the Rev. Francis-Herron, Mr. William Silk, to Miss a number of Lucinda Tow, both of St. Clair Town

Intricately of tow, It seems that she is fully set

To each the sike steam.

I've read the Metamorphoces
Of Oald o'er and o'er,
But such an uncount change as this,
I never heard before.

What strange funtastic whims do dwell In minds both high and low, She likes to handle sill: full well, While he prefers the tow.

Now every day this new made wife May honey sip and milk, And if she don't dance gay through life, 'Tis not for want of silk.

RRAMARAGA OBITUARY.

ciliating; and a mind capacious, libe ped: he frequently exhorted them to prepare to meet him in the "celestial most promising members, and youth of one of its brightest ornaments; and thus has his surviving brothers, sisters and friends, been suddenly o'erwhelmed with affliction and grief; but I would leaven opes its everlasting portals high,

And bids the pure in heart perceive their God."

Departed this life on Friday mornng last, at Baltimore, after a linger ing illness of several menths. Mis

NN M. MONER, wife of Col. Samue

toale, of that city, in the 52d year o er age. Mrs. Moale was the eldest

ANNAPOLIS & BALTIMORE PACKET.

The Subscriber respectfully notifies his friends and the public, that he has lately purchased the New and Sub-stantial built

Schoon

FELICITY.

which commenced running on Monday last as a regular Packet between aughter of the late Samuel Harvey out hope," for although

"It is an awful thing to die; Yet the dread path once trod, loward, esq. of this town.

say to them-"Sorrow not as one with-· CHMMUNICATED. Departed this life on Wednesday he 5th instant, on Elk Ridge, Mr. AMES MADISON DORSEY, the young Sept. 20. -t son of the late Honourable Lloyd Dorsey of Maryland,) after a short and severe illness, in the 20th year of Will be Sold his age. The deceased very early in life evinced a fundness for study, and

At the Stare and Government Houses, STOVES, TABLES, SETTEES, reflection; he possessed a disposition frank, candid and generous; manners Window Sashes, a quantity of Lumber, &c. the property of the State, dithe most refined, affectionate and conber, &c. the propert rected to be sold by a resolution of the Legislature. Sale to commerce at 10 o'crock.

Sept. 20. Superintendant. ral, and enlightened; which he retaind unimpaired to his latest moments As his life had been blameless, so was his death triumphant; for some time previous to which event, he was almost constantly supplicating the Throne of Mercy, not only for himself, but for the human family chetally, and particularly for his relatives I hereby forewarn all persons trusting her on my account, as I am determined to pay no debts contracted by her. and friends who surrounded his dying ISAAC STEWART, Near Sweetser's Bridge. mansions," and died in the full assur-ance that he had made his "peace, calling, and election sure." Thus has

Notice

The Commissioners of the Tax for Anne Arundei county, will meet at the court house in the city of Anna polis, on Wednesday the 17th day of October next, for the purpose earing appeals and making transers,

20,000 Dollars

LARS! Will certainly be drawn on the 17th of October, the 40

HYMNS.

The New Selection of Hymns, for by the aubscribers, at the following nees: 8to in sheep binding, , 50 cents.

12ma do. 37t 18mo. 31t do. 31t Shaw & Claude.

Public Sale.

By writte of an order of the phans court of Anne Arundel county the subscriber will offer, at publi sale, on Thursday the 11th day of Oc. Ellis Thomas, jun near Sweetser's

Part of the Personal Estate of Ellis Thomas, junr deceased; con sisting of Negroes. Horses. Cattle, Sleep, Hogs. Household and Kitchen furniture, plantation utensils, &c.—
Terms of Sale—Cash Sale to commence at 10 o'clock

John R. Thomas, Adm'r.

September 20.

Chancery Sale.

By virtue of a decree or order of th ourt of chancery, the subscriber will spose to public sale, on Thursday he lith day of October next, at the Valuable Negroes, Consisting of Men, Women and Children, heretofore mortgaged by Col. Richard Harwood to Benjamin Harwood, late of the city of Annapolis, deceased. Terms of Sale—One half of the purchase money, to be paid with-in six months, and the other half in twelve months from the day of sale. with interest from the day of sale, with interest from the day of sale, to be secured by bond with approved security. Fale to commence at 12 o'clock.

Louis Gassaway, Trustee.

Sept. 20.

Caution.

The subscriber believing that the Negroes advertised for sale by Mr. Louis Gassaway, on the 11th October upst, are of right his property, forbids all persons to purchase them.

Richard Harwood, of Thos.

On Monday next, the 24th instant,

Sept. 20.

By order, R. I Cowman, Clk. Com. of the Tax A A. county.

CAN BE HAD FOR FIVE DOL.

Grand Literature Lottery of Maryland,

Containing the most brilliant scheme
in the United States

J. L COHEN jun. & BROTHERS, Managers.

SPLENDID SCHEME.

1 prize of $20,000
10 do. 10,000
10 do. 2,000
10 do. 2,000
10 do. 500
20 do. 200
20 do. 10,000
20 do. 10,000
20 do. 10,000
40 do. 500
20 do. 100
20 do.

Public Sale.

y virtue of an order from the orphans court of Anne-Arandel county, the anbacriber will offer at public pale, en Saturday the 13th day of Octo-ber next, il fair, if not the first fair, day thereafter, at the late residence of Captain James Sanders, near the Head of South River, a part of

The Personal Estate Of William R. Frailey, deceased, consisting of a Negro Boy named Sam, a Negro Woman named Beck; a Grey Mare, a Bed and Furniture, &c.—Terms of Sale—A credit of six months for all sums of twenty dollars and up-wards, the purchaser giving bond and security, with interest from the date; under that sum the cash to be paid. Sale to commence at 11 o'clock.

Sept 30.

Trustee's Sale. By virtue of a decree of the High Court of Chancery of Maryland, all the real estate of Francis Gartrill of Anne Arundel county, will be offered at public sale, in Lisbon, at Mordecal ore's tavern, at 11 o'clock A. M. on Friday the 12th day of October next; if fair, if not on the next fair day thereafter, Sunday excepted, 150 Acres of Land, more or less, called Ridgely's Great Park. This property lies near the Frederick Turnpike, leading from Baltimore to Prederick Town, and lies very near the town of Lisbon, and adjoining the lands of Philemon War-field, Mrs Azel Warfield and Otho We ch, the soil is well adapted to the growth of Tobacco, and grain of all kinds A more minute description of the property is deemed unnecessary, as those who are desirous of purchasing will view the premises. The terms are, CASH to be paid on the day of sale, or on the ratification thereof, by the chancellor, the trustoo is authorised to execute a deed

Bushrod W Marriott Trustee.

Sept. 20.

Farmers Bank of Maryland.

Annapois Sept 19, 1827.
The President and Directors of the Parmers Bank of Maryland have de-clared a dividend of three per cent, on the stock of the said bank for six months ending on the 30th instant, and payable on or after the first Monday of October next, to the stockholders on the Western Shore, at the Bank at Annapolis, and to the stockholders on the Eastern Shore, at the Branch Bank at Easton, upon personal application, on the exhibition of powers of Caurion.

Superintendant.

CAUTION.

My wife Anne Stewart, having left by bed and board without provocation, hereby foreware all persons trusting er on my account, as I am determined to pay no debts contracted by her.

IS VAC STEWART.

100 Dollas ward.
Ranaway from the Apt Striber a farm, on the head of South River, Anne Arundel county, a see of Maryland, on Saturday night the 8th September, 1827, two negro ment. The one by the nam of BEN being the servant of Mrs. Sarah Weils of Anna-lis, but the hirening of the subscriber for the present year. The other by the name of GEORGE, being my property to Ben is a stout well made fellow.

5 feet ten inches high, has a good set of teeth is very black, and when spoken to is somewhat short and chuff in his answers; as well as recollected has some scars about the upper part of his breast or neck, and aged about 25 vears; had on when he went away, a ticklenburg shirt and trousers. It is has a wife in Baltihore living on Federal Hill. I am intermed he can read and write, and it is been will