From the Baltimore Republican.

THE CONVENTION. The delegates appointed by the several wards of the city for the purpose of selecting a suitable person, as an additional Elector of President and Vice President, met in Convention in this District, on Wednesday evening the 21st inst. at Tammany Hall.

TEMPERAMENTS.

A theatre is the best place in the world for the study of temperaments. You may learn a man's character in the manner in which he is affected by a play, with much more certainty than from a review of his actions.

aspersions which had been cast upon it by his enemies, aided materially in producing the favorable result experienced in this district.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this Convention, be requested to present a copy of the foregoing Resolution to George Winchester, Esq.

Resolved, That a copy of the proceedings of this Convention, signed by the Chairman, and attested by the Secretary, be published in the several newspapers of this city, and the city of Annapolis.

On motion, the Convention adjourned.

Attest, BEALE RANDALL, Chairman

SAMUEL MOORE, Secretary.

NEW YORK ELECTION.

The most accurate estimate yet made of the result of the election in this state, appears to be about 30,000 Senatorial majority for Jackson, 91 Assembly for Jackson, 19 for Adams, and 11 Anti-Masonic, and 5 not yet heard from.

From the Indianapolis Gazette. The type that were left below this town by Allen Jack, as noticed in an advertisement of our last paper, have been brought to this place, and were easily identified as belonging to his office.
