

METEOROLOGICAL JOURNAL

Table with columns for date, weather conditions, and wind directions. Includes entries for Nov. 1 through Nov. 30.

ADMINISTRATIVE MEN AND FOREIGNERS

ALIEN LAWS.—It is not perhaps generally known that the pretended conversion of the Adams family to democracy, together with the King family, and then high minded allies, embraced the entire recovery of the national power, and the revival of the old federal party.

CONGRESS

It will be seen by our report of the Congressional proceedings that Mr. Stevenson of Virginia, is elected Speaker of the House of Representatives by a majority of ten votes over Mr. Taylor, the administration candidate.

KENTUCKY FRAUD

Letter to the gentleman of this city dated Louisville, Ky. Nov. 23d, 1857. Dear Sir—I wrote you some days since that Chilton was elected by a majority of 27 votes.

UNION HALL

Bigamy.—On Tuesday a young man named Edward Green was examined, charged with intermarrying with Jane Puffley; his first wife being alive. The prisoner, it appeared, was on the point of getting married to a third wife, the bans having been actually put up on the day he was apprehended.

LICENTIOUSNESS

Licentiousness (says Sir Walter Scott) leads directly to feelings the most inconsistent with manly and virtuous patriotism. Voluptuousness, and its consequences, render the libertine incapable of relish, for what is simply & abstractly beautiful and sublime whether in literature or in the arts, and destroy the taste, while they degrade and blunt the understanding.

OHIO

OHIO.—The people of Ohio appear to be alive to their interests, and hold in just contempt the manner in which our rulers came into power. The following extract from a preamble adopted at one of their meetings, exhibits the correct view they have of the Tennessee Farmer.

MINISTERS TO LONDON

Ministers to London.—In a short time we shall hear of another Minister Plenipotentiary being appointed to England, which will be the third during the reign of Mr. Adams; and if an understanding should exist between the appointing power and the incumbent, that the office is to hold good for one year only, then we shall have had four ministers with $18,000 per annum; besides picking for the 'family,' in the shape of charge des affaires, and Secretaries of Legation, during the one term of Mr. President Adams.

SCOTT'S NOVEL

It is said that "The Chronicles of the Cannongate," the forthcoming novel from the pen of Sir Walter Scott, will be prefaced, in a very interesting manner, by an introduction in the author's own proper person, wherein he explains why he preserved his incognito so long, and farther avows upon what date some of his most popular productions have been founded.

NEW YORK ENQUIRER

Who the man is to fall upon next, cannot, of course, be ascertained. It must be a friend of Mr. Adams, because no prominent man in the opposition will accept the office at this time. Probably it may be Mr. Sanford, from this State—an excellent choice—a very worthy man; but, then, our friend Clay, would say, we lose a good vote in the Senate; and should find a Jackson man in his place—that would not answer. John Sergeant, No.—he is wanted in the House of Representatives; besides, the Tacayuba Mission is fresh on men's memories. It is needless to surmise farther.—Who ever can make the best bargain, or offer the most certain equivalent will get the reversion for one year.

ADMINISTRATIVE MEN AND FOREIGNERS

ALIEN LAWS.—It is not perhaps generally known that the pretended conversion of the Adams family to democracy, together with the King family, and then high minded allies, embraced the entire recovery of the national power, and the revival of the old federal party.

CONGRESS

It will be seen by our report of the Congressional proceedings that Mr. Stevenson of Virginia, is elected Speaker of the House of Representatives by a majority of ten votes over Mr. Taylor, the administration candidate.

KENTUCKY FRAUD

Letter to the gentleman of this city dated Louisville, Ky. Nov. 23d, 1857. Dear Sir—I wrote you some days since that Chilton was elected by a majority of 27 votes.

UNION HALL

Bigamy.—On Tuesday a young man named Edward Green was examined, charged with intermarrying with Jane Puffley; his first wife being alive. The prisoner, it appeared, was on the point of getting married to a third wife, the bans having been actually put up on the day he was apprehended.

LICENTIOUSNESS

Licentiousness (says Sir Walter Scott) leads directly to feelings the most inconsistent with manly and virtuous patriotism. Voluptuousness, and its consequences, render the libertine incapable of relish, for what is simply & abstractly beautiful and sublime whether in literature or in the arts, and destroy the taste, while they degrade and blunt the understanding.

OHIO

OHIO.—The people of Ohio appear to be alive to their interests, and hold in just contempt the manner in which our rulers came into power. The following extract from a preamble adopted at one of their meetings, exhibits the correct view they have of the Tennessee Farmer.

SLICING TUKKEY

The New York Courier states, upon the authority of a letter received by a gentleman of that city from a correspondent in London, "occupying a responsible official station,"—that there is an express agreement (not a understanding), entered into by England, Russia and France, to conquer and partition the Turkish dominions in Europe and Africa.—Constantinople and its dependencies are allotted to Russia.—Egypt to England—and the islands of the Mediterranean, and some portions of the land adjoining that sea, to France. The Turk is to be driven into Asia; and the Greeks are to have a government of their own, under the guaranty and protection of the Three Powers.

BRIEF SKETCH OF THE LATE BISHOP KEMP

There is a melancholy pleasure in tracing back the history of our friends, as they fall around us—recalling the hours which we passed with them in congenial pursuits—embodying as it were before us, the image of the departed, and again taking sweet counsel together. Imagination and memory seem to combine, even in contempt of the king of terrors, to restore us the treasures we have lost. It proves, however, but a short lived waking dream—and yet we cannot bring ourselves to part with the fading vision. We cling to it, till something more earthly comes before us, and at length, we yield with a sigh to the conviction, that we seek consolation in vain under bereavements, from the recollection of departed joys, and are driven to look forward to the hope of meeting again, where all tears shall be wiped from our eyes, in the blessed presence of him who is the resurrection and the life.—The Christian feels that this is the only real consolation under the bereavements of mortality, and the bright hope which it leads him to entertain, he would not exchange for the gratification, if such could be, of seeing again around him, in the habits of mortality, the whole circle of the dearly loved beings whom he has surrendered, one by one, to his Saviour.

ADMINISTRATIVE MEN AND FOREIGNERS

ALIEN LAWS.—It is not perhaps generally known that the pretended conversion of the Adams family to democracy, together with the King family, and then high minded allies, embraced the entire recovery of the national power, and the revival of the old federal party.

CONGRESS

It will be seen by our report of the Congressional proceedings that Mr. Stevenson of Virginia, is elected Speaker of the House of Representatives by a majority of ten votes over Mr. Taylor, the administration candidate.

KENTUCKY FRAUD

Letter to the gentleman of this city dated Louisville, Ky. Nov. 23d, 1857. Dear Sir—I wrote you some days since that Chilton was elected by a majority of 27 votes.

UNION HALL

Bigamy.—On Tuesday a young man named Edward Green was examined, charged with intermarrying with Jane Puffley; his first wife being alive. The prisoner, it appeared, was on the point of getting married to a third wife, the bans having been actually put up on the day he was apprehended.

LICENTIOUSNESS

Licentiousness (says Sir Walter Scott) leads directly to feelings the most inconsistent with manly and virtuous patriotism. Voluptuousness, and its consequences, render the libertine incapable of relish, for what is simply & abstractly beautiful and sublime whether in literature or in the arts, and destroy the taste, while they degrade and blunt the understanding.

OHIO

OHIO.—The people of Ohio appear to be alive to their interests, and hold in just contempt the manner in which our rulers came into power. The following extract from a preamble adopted at one of their meetings, exhibits the correct view they have of the Tennessee Farmer.

BRIEF SKETCH OF THE LATE BISHOP KEMP

There is a melancholy pleasure in tracing back the history of our friends, as they fall around us—recalling the hours which we passed with them in congenial pursuits—embodying as it were before us, the image of the departed, and again taking sweet counsel together. Imagination and memory seem to combine, even in contempt of the king of terrors, to restore us the treasures we have lost. It proves, however, but a short lived waking dream—and yet we cannot bring ourselves to part with the fading vision. We cling to it, till something more earthly comes before us, and at length, we yield with a sigh to the conviction, that we seek consolation in vain under bereavements, from the recollection of departed joys, and are driven to look forward to the hope of meeting again, where all tears shall be wiped from our eyes, in the blessed presence of him who is the resurrection and the life.—The Christian feels that this is the only real consolation under the bereavements of mortality, and the bright hope which it leads him to entertain, he would not exchange for the gratification, if such could be, of seeing again around him, in the habits of mortality, the whole circle of the dearly loved beings whom he has surrendered, one by one, to his Saviour.

ADMINISTRATIVE MEN AND FOREIGNERS

ALIEN LAWS.—It is not perhaps generally known that the pretended conversion of the Adams family to democracy, together with the King family, and then high minded allies, embraced the entire recovery of the national power, and the revival of the old federal party.

CONGRESS

It will be seen by our report of the Congressional proceedings that Mr. Stevenson of Virginia, is elected Speaker of the House of Representatives by a majority of ten votes over Mr. Taylor, the administration candidate.

KENTUCKY FRAUD

Letter to the gentleman of this city dated Louisville, Ky. Nov. 23d, 1857. Dear Sir—I wrote you some days since that Chilton was elected by a majority of 27 votes.

UNION HALL

Bigamy.—On Tuesday a young man named Edward Green was examined, charged with intermarrying with Jane Puffley; his first wife being alive. The prisoner, it appeared, was on the point of getting married to a third wife, the bans having been actually put up on the day he was apprehended.

LICENTIOUSNESS

Licentiousness (says Sir Walter Scott) leads directly to feelings the most inconsistent with manly and virtuous patriotism. Voluptuousness, and its consequences, render the libertine incapable of relish, for what is simply & abstractly beautiful and sublime whether in literature or in the arts, and destroy the taste, while they degrade and blunt the understanding.

OHIO

OHIO.—The people of Ohio appear to be alive to their interests, and hold in just contempt the manner in which our rulers came into power. The following extract from a preamble adopted at one of their meetings, exhibits the correct view they have of the Tennessee Farmer.

BRIEF SKETCH OF THE LATE BISHOP KEMP

There is a melancholy pleasure in tracing back the history of our friends, as they fall around us—recalling the hours which we passed with them in congenial pursuits—embodying as it were before us, the image of the departed, and again taking sweet counsel together. Imagination and memory seem to combine, even in contempt of the king of terrors, to restore us the treasures we have lost. It proves, however, but a short lived waking dream—and yet we cannot bring ourselves to part with the fading vision. We cling to it, till something more earthly comes before us, and at length, we yield with a sigh to the conviction, that we seek consolation in vain under bereavements, from the recollection of departed joys, and are driven to look forward to the hope of meeting again, where all tears shall be wiped from our eyes, in the blessed presence of him who is the resurrection and the life.—The Christian feels that this is the only real consolation under the bereavements of mortality, and the bright hope which it leads him to entertain, he would not exchange for the gratification, if such could be, of seeing again around him, in the habits of mortality, the whole circle of the dearly loved beings whom he has surrendered, one by one, to his Saviour.

ADMINISTRATIVE MEN AND FOREIGNERS

ALIEN LAWS.—It is not perhaps generally known that the pretended conversion of the Adams family to democracy, together with the King family, and then high minded allies, embraced the entire recovery of the national power, and the revival of the old federal party.

CONGRESS

It will be seen by our report of the Congressional proceedings that Mr. Stevenson of Virginia, is elected Speaker of the House of Representatives by a majority of ten votes over Mr. Taylor, the administration candidate.

KENTUCKY FRAUD

Letter to the gentleman of this city dated Louisville, Ky. Nov. 23d, 1857. Dear Sir—I wrote you some days since that Chilton was elected by a majority of 27 votes.

UNION HALL

Bigamy.—On Tuesday a young man named Edward Green was examined, charged with intermarrying with Jane Puffley; his first wife being alive. The prisoner, it appeared, was on the point of getting married to a third wife, the bans having been actually put up on the day he was apprehended.

LICENTIOUSNESS

Licentiousness (says Sir Walter Scott) leads directly to feelings the most inconsistent with manly and virtuous patriotism. Voluptuousness, and its consequences, render the libertine incapable of relish, for what is simply & abstractly beautiful and sublime whether in literature or in the arts, and destroy the taste, while they degrade and blunt the understanding.

OHIO

OHIO.—The people of Ohio appear to be alive to their interests, and hold in just contempt the manner in which our rulers came into power. The following extract from a preamble adopted at one of their meetings, exhibits the correct view they have of the Tennessee Farmer.

BRIEF SKETCH OF THE LATE BISHOP KEMP

There is a melancholy pleasure in tracing back the history of our friends, as they fall around us—recalling the hours which we passed with them in congenial pursuits—embodying as it were before us, the image of the departed, and again taking sweet counsel together. Imagination and memory seem to combine, even in contempt of the king of terrors, to restore us the treasures we have lost. It proves, however, but a short lived waking dream—and yet we cannot bring ourselves to part with the fading vision. We cling to it, till something more earthly comes before us, and at length, we yield with a sigh to the conviction, that we seek consolation in vain under bereavements, from the recollection of departed joys, and are driven to look forward to the hope of meeting again, where all tears shall be wiped from our eyes, in the blessed presence of him who is the resurrection and the life.—The Christian feels that this is the only real consolation under the bereavements of mortality, and the bright hope which it leads him to entertain, he would not exchange for the gratification, if such could be, of seeing again around him, in the habits of mortality, the whole circle of the dearly loved beings whom he has surrendered, one by one, to his Saviour.

ADMINISTRATIVE MEN AND FOREIGNERS

ALIEN LAWS.—It is not perhaps generally known that the pretended conversion of the Adams family to democracy, together with the King family, and then high minded allies, embraced the entire recovery of the national power, and the revival of the old federal party.

CONGRESS

It will be seen by our report of the Congressional proceedings that Mr. Stevenson of Virginia, is elected Speaker of the House of Representatives by a majority of ten votes over Mr. Taylor, the administration candidate.

KENTUCKY FRAUD

Letter to the gentleman of this city dated Louisville, Ky. Nov. 23d, 1857. Dear Sir—I wrote you some days since that Chilton was elected by a majority of 27 votes.

UNION HALL

Bigamy.—On Tuesday a young man named Edward Green was examined, charged with intermarrying with Jane Puffley; his first wife being alive. The prisoner, it appeared, was on the point of getting married to a third wife, the bans having been actually put up on the day he was apprehended.

LICENTIOUSNESS

Licentiousness (says Sir Walter Scott) leads directly to feelings the most inconsistent with manly and virtuous patriotism. Voluptuousness, and its consequences, render the libertine incapable of relish, for what is simply & abstractly beautiful and sublime whether in literature or in the arts, and destroy the taste, while they degrade and blunt the understanding.

OHIO

OHIO.—The people of Ohio appear to be alive to their interests, and hold in just contempt the manner in which our rulers came into power. The following extract from a preamble adopted at one of their meetings, exhibits the correct view they have of the Tennessee Farmer.

ADMINISTRATIVE MEN AND FOREIGNERS

ALIEN LAWS.—It is not perhaps generally known that the pretended conversion of the Adams family to democracy, together with the King family, and then high minded allies, embraced the entire recovery of the national power, and the revival of the old federal party.

CONGRESS

It will be seen by our report of the Congressional proceedings that Mr. Stevenson of Virginia, is elected Speaker of the House of Representatives by a majority of ten votes over Mr. Taylor, the administration candidate.

KENTUCKY FRAUD

Letter to the gentleman of this city dated Louisville, Ky. Nov. 23d, 1857. Dear Sir—I wrote you some days since that Chilton was elected by a majority of 27 votes.

UNION HALL

Bigamy.—On Tuesday a young man named Edward Green was examined, charged with intermarrying with Jane Puffley; his first wife being alive. The prisoner, it appeared, was on the point of getting married to a third wife, the bans having been actually put up on the day he was apprehended.

LICENTIOUSNESS

Licentiousness (says Sir Walter Scott) leads directly to feelings the most inconsistent with manly and virtuous patriotism. Voluptuousness, and its consequences, render the libertine incapable of relish, for what is simply & abstractly beautiful and sublime whether in literature or in the arts, and destroy the taste, while they degrade and blunt the understanding.

OHIO

OHIO.—The people of Ohio appear to be alive to their interests, and hold in just contempt the manner in which our rulers came into power. The following extract from a preamble adopted at one of their meetings, exhibits the correct view they have of the Tennessee Farmer.

ADMINISTRATIVE MEN AND FOREIGNERS

ALIEN LAWS.—It is not perhaps generally known that the pretended conversion of the Adams family to democracy, together with the King family, and then high minded allies, embraced the entire recovery of the national power, and the revival of the old federal party.

CONGRESS

It will be seen by our report of the Congressional proceedings that Mr. Stevenson of Virginia, is elected Speaker of the House of Representatives by a majority of ten votes over Mr. Taylor, the administration candidate.

KENTUCKY FRAUD

Letter to the gentleman of this city dated Louisville, Ky. Nov. 23d, 1857. Dear Sir—I wrote you some days since that Chilton was elected by a majority of 27 votes.

ADMINISTRATIVE MEN AND FOREIGNERS

ALIEN LAWS.—It is not perhaps generally known that the pretended conversion of the Adams family to democracy, together with the King family, and then high minded allies, embraced the entire recovery of the national power, and the revival of the old federal party.

CONGRESS

It will be seen by our report of the Congressional proceedings that Mr. Stevenson of Virginia, is elected Speaker of the House of Representatives by a majority of ten votes over Mr. Taylor, the administration candidate.

KENTUCKY FRAUD

Letter to the gentleman of this city dated Louisville, Ky. Nov. 23d, 1857. Dear Sir—I wrote you some days since that Chilton was elected by a majority of 27 votes.

UNION HALL

Bigamy.—On Tuesday a young man named Edward Green was examined, charged with intermarrying with Jane Puffley; his first wife being alive. The prisoner, it appeared, was on the point of getting married to a third wife, the bans having been actually put up on the day he was apprehended.

LICENTIOUSNESS

Licentiousness (says Sir Walter Scott) leads directly to feelings the most inconsistent with manly and virtuous patriotism. Voluptuousness, and its consequences, render the libertine incapable of relish, for what is simply & abstractly beautiful and sublime whether in literature or in the arts, and destroy the taste, while they degrade and blunt the understanding.

OHIO

OHIO.—The people of Ohio appear to be alive to their interests, and hold in just contempt the manner in which our rulers came into power. The following extract from a preamble adopted at one of their meetings, exhibits the correct view they have of the Tennessee Farmer.

ADMINISTRATIVE MEN AND FOREIGNERS

ALIEN LAWS.—It is not perhaps generally known that the pretended conversion of the Adams family to democracy, together with the King family, and then high minded allies, embraced the entire recovery of the national power, and the revival of the old federal party.

CONGRESS

It will be seen by our report of the Congressional proceedings that Mr. Stevenson of Virginia, is elected Speaker of the House of Representatives by a majority of ten votes over Mr. Taylor, the administration candidate.

KENTUCKY FRAUD

Letter to the gentleman of this city dated Louisville, Ky. Nov. 23d, 1857. Dear Sir—I wrote you some days since that Chilton was elected by a majority of 27 votes.