

TOYSON'S Patent Spring Stock

When it is considered in what a conspicuous situation a gentleman's Dress Stock is placed as an article of dress, it must be conceded, that in its structure and shape it should combine elegance in appearance, and fit with ease to the wearer. The subscriber takes pleasure in announcing to the public that he is enabled to offer to them an article calculated to meet their most sanguine expectations, and combining in itself those qualities in a greater degree of perfection, than any thing of the Stock kind heretofore offered to them for their use. He invites gentlemen to call and examine his Patent Spring Stock, and make themselves acquainted with its convenience and utility. He informs vendors of the article that he has on hand a handsome assortment, in the manufacture of which he has spared neither pains nor expense in material and workmanship to produce an article worthy of their attention.

With country merchants, as well as others, the subscriber will deal on such liberal terms as to make it an object for them to give him a call.

His assortment consists of Silk Stocks, of a variety of colours, trimmed to different fanciful ways; Plain Silk Stocks assorted colours; Morocco Stocks, admirably calculated for the wear of the military gentleman, as well as the citizen.

Had on when he went away, ticklenburg trousers and shirt, his other clothes not recollected, but as he had other clothing no doubt he carried it with him. He has a wife in Baltimore living on Federal Hill. I am informed he can read and write, and it is likely will write a pass himself. Ran away from the subscriber's farm, on the head of South River, Anne Arundel county, state of Maryland, on Saturday night the 8th September 1827, two negro men. The one by the name of BEN, being the servant of Mrs Sarah Wells of Annapolis, but the hiring of the subscriber for the present year. The other by the name of GEORGE, being m. property—Ben is a stout well made fellow, about 5 feet ten inches high, has a good set of teeth, is very black; and when spoken to is somewhat short and chuff in his answers; as well as recollected has some scars about the upper part of his breast or neck, and aged about 25 years; had on when he went away a ticklenburg shirt and trousers. It is likely he has changed his clothes, as he had other and better clothes, which no doubt he has taken with him. George is about 27 years of age, five feet seven or eight inches high, pretty well made, he is an active, cunning, crafty fellow, his colour is swarthy black, rather inclined to yellow, he is pitted with the small pox, has a very bad countenance, when spoken to hangs his head and looks down, and his voice generally low. Had on when he went away, ticklenburg trousers and shirt, his other clothes not recollected, but as he had other clothing no doubt he carried it with him. He has a wife in Baltimore living on Federal Hill. I am informed he can read and write, and it is likely will write a pass himself. Both of these negro men were seen in Baltimore on Sunday the 9th instant. All persons masters or captains or commanders of vessels, are forbidden to employ or receive either of these negro men on board their vessels. Whoever takes up the said negro men, and secures them in goal so that I get them again shall receive the above reward if taken out of this state, or fifty dollars for each, and if taken in this state, and secured in goal so that I get them again, sixty dollars for the two; or thirty dollars for each.
