The United Hotel
BALTIMORE.

THE Subscribers respectfully inform their friends and the public generally, that they continue their large and commodious establishment in Pratt st between Hanover & Charles streets near Calhoun's extensive tobacco warehouse, and within a short distance of the head of the Basin, where they feel satisfied their arrangements will enable them to offer every convenience and comfort that a traveller can wish, or a desire to merit the patronage of the public can possibly demand

The peculiar situation of this establishment its immediate vicinity to the wharves and steam boat landings (the great depots of the business of all the lower and most of the upper counties,) make it exceedingly desirable as a residence for persons whose business may lie in those directions. Their tables shall always be supplied with the best provisions that the market can afford; their bar they trus may also be justly relied upon, as the liquors have been selected by the best judges Every attention will be paid to the personal convenience of those who may favour them with their custom; and attentive and honest servants will be always at hand to convey baggage to and from the steam boats and stages. The stabling is calculated to secure the safety and comfort of any horse that may be entrusted to their care and is under the superintendence of able and experienced hostlers With these assurances they can but reiterate their wish to render themselves serviceable to the public; resting as they hope always to do, under the pleasing assurance that if they cannot command success, they will at least endeavour to deserve it

100 Dollars Reward.

Ranaway from the subscriber's farm, on the head of South River, Anne Arundel county, state of Maryland, on Saturday night the 8th September, 1827, two negro men. The one by the name of BEN, being the servant of Mrs. Sarah Wells of Annapolis, but the hireing of the subscriber for the present year. The other by the name of GEORGE, being my property — Ben is a stout well made fellow, about 5 feet ten inches high, has a good set of teeth, is very black, and when spoken to is somewhat short and chuff in his answers; as well as recollected has some scars about the upper part of his breast or neck, and aged about 25 years; had on when he went away, a ticklenburg shirt and trousers It is likely he has changed his clothes, as he had other and better clothes, which no doubt he has taken with him. George is about 27 years of age, five feet seven or eight inches high, pretty well made, he is an active, cunning, crafty fellow, his colour is swarthy black, rather inclined to yellow, he is pitted with the small pox, has a very bad countenance, when spoken to hangs his head and looks down, and his voice generally low. Had on when he went away, ticklenburg trousers and shirt, his other clothes not recollected, but as he had other clothing no doubt he carried it with him He has a wife in Baltimore living on Federal Hill. I am informed he can read and write, and it is likely will write a pass himself Both of these negro men were seen in Baltimore on Sunday the 9th instant. All persons masters or captains or commanders of vessels are forbidden to employ or receive either of those negro men on board their vessels. Whoever takes up the said negro men, and secures them in gaol so that I get them again shall receive the above reward if taken out of this state, or fifty dollars for each, and if taken in this state, and secured in gaol so that I get them again, sixty dollars for the two; or thirty dollars for each.

PROPOSAL

FOR PRINTING

The Journals of the Conventions of the Province of Maryland,

Held in the City of Annapolis, in the years 1774, 1775 and 1776.

IF Sufficient encouragement be offered, the Subscriber proposes to publish, in one volume octavo, the Journals of the Conventions of the Province of Maryland in the years 1774, '75 and '76. It is believed that there are not more than two copies of these Journals now extant; and from the circumstance that they were printed in pamphlet form, and unbound, it may be fairly concluded that they, too, must in a few years be destroyed by the mere decay of time. These Journals are the most authentic evidence of the Political History of Maryland, during that interesting and unquiet period. Although we have, in abundance, histories of Maryland, as connected with the Association of Provinces and Colonies, that time formed, for mutual protection against the improper assumption of power on the part of the Mother Country, yet none of these works embrace what may be termed its Domestic or Internal Political History.

This part of the history of Maryland it should be her pride to hand down to posterity, not only on account of its deep interest, but as a public State Record of the voluntary sacrifices, daring spirit, and determined resolution, of her citizens, during the period of doubt and dismay.

In the confident expectation that the citizens of Maryland will consider the proposed publication of sufficient importance to entitle it to their patronage, the Subscriber is induced to issue these proposals.
