

SYNOPSIS.
Married, on Sunday 25th May, by the Rev. Mr. Walkin, Mr. Howland Cross, of Prince-George's county, to Miss Maria Cross, of Anne Arundel county.

On Thursday last, by the Rev. Mr. Vinton, Mr. Jacob H. Sellman, of Anne-Arundel, to Miss Susan Hyde, of this city.

THE CONVENTION.
Of the Protestant Episcopal Church, commenced its session in St. Anne's Church, in this city, yesterday morning. The Convention is more numerous than it has been for several years.

JACKSON MEETING.
The Voters of the Second District of Anne Arundel county, friendly to the election of General ANDREW JACKSON, are requested to meet at the Free School on Saturday the 7th of June, at 11 o'clock, A. M. for the purpose of appointing a committee to correspond with the several committees of Anne Arundel county.

JACKSON MEETING.
The friends of General ANDREW JACKSON, of the 3d District, Anne Arundel county, are invited to attend a meeting at the residence of Mr. Thomas Rockhold, on Saturday, the 14th day of June next.

COL. THOMAS HOOD.
Will be supported at the October election, as a candidate to represent Anne Arundel county in the next General Assembly of Maryland, by Many Voters.

ABNER LINTHICUM, Senior.
Respectfully notifies his fellow-citizens of Anne Arundel county, that he is again solicited to represent them in the next Legislature.

CHARLES R. STEWART.
Is a candidate to represent Anne Arundel county in the next Legislature.

BARZILLAI MARRIOTT.
Is a candidate to represent Anne Arundel county in the next General Assembly.

Jackson Meeting.
Butler's Tavern, First District of Anne Arundel County.
The meeting was organized by Dr. Martin Fenwick being called to the Chair, and Dr. Hammond Stewart being appointed Secretary, Mr. MACEY was moved the following resolutions:

Resolved, That a committee of five be nominated by the chairman, to draft resolutions expressive of the opinions, feelings and objects of this meeting, and to nominate a committee of correspondence, and a committee of vigilance, for the approbation of the meeting.

The resolution was unanimously adopted, and Virgil Maxcy, John Iglehart, Solomon G. Chaney, James Davidson, sen. and Capt. Benjamin Franklin, were named by the chairman, as the committee, who having retired a while, returned and reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted by the meeting.

Resolved, That this meeting hold as a fundamental principle of Republican Government, that the WILL OF THE MAJORITY, by which the constitution itself was created, and from which it derives its authority, should be sacred, and that a deliberate violation of it is a political crime of the most heinous character.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting, that offence was committed in the election of JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, as President of the United States, and that the crime is not the less aggravated, because it was perpetrated under the forms of the constitution.

Resolved, That the preservation, in future, of the purity of our admirable constitution, demands, that an expiatory sacrifice be made for the violation of its principles and spirit in that election, by the exemplary punishment of the guilty, and their perpetual banishment from the confidence of a defrauded people.

Resolved, That the example will not be complete without the election to the office of President of ANDREW JACKSON, in whose person the spirit of the constitution was violated, and whose devoted patriotism, pure republican principles, spotless integrity, elevation and firmness of character, great talents and splendid services, give him a claim to the most strenuous exertions in his cause—a cause, which, involving as it does, the attainment due to the violated constitution, has now become emphatically the cause of liberty and our country.

Resolved, That for the promotion of this great and paramount object, the highest obligations of duty call for an exertion of exertion, and a hearty and cheerful sacrifice of all personal and local interests upon the altar of conciliation and harmony.

Resolved, That with a view to effect a concert of action throughout the country, whereby a fair expression of the wishes of the voters, favorable to the election of General Jackson, and opposed to that of Mr. Adams, may be obtain, Virgil Maxcy, John Iglehart, Major Osborn Harwood, Dr. Martin Fenwick, Rd. Sellman, Capt. Claudius Le Grand and Dr. Hammond Stewart, be appointed a committee of correspondence, with authority to correspond with the central Jackson committee in Baltimore, and the committees of correspondence or delegates, who may be appointed to the other districts of this county, and to meet said committees or delegates in convention at Merrill's Tavern, or such other central part of the county as may be agreed on, for the purpose of adopting such fair and honorable measures as may be deemed expedient to promote the election of candidates for the legislature, as well as for the office of electors, friendly to General Jackson.

Resolved, That this meeting highly approve of the nomination of JOHN S. SELLMAN, as an electoral candidate for this county, in the place of our lamented fellow citizen, the late Thomas W. Hall, and that for the promotion of his election, as well as that of Col. BENJAMIN C. HOWARD of Baltimore, the electoral candidate selected by our friends in that city, and also of the election of such candidates for the house of delegates, friendly to General Jackson, as may be deemed best qualified.

Capt. Benjamin McCreary, Samuel Harrison, Benjamin M. Chew, Henry Bassford, sen. Philip Whitwright, Edward Harvey, James Nicholson, James Davidson, sen. Eliza Chaney, Stephen Lee, William M. Coney, James Smith, Dr. Joseph Carr, Montgomery Waters, Capt. Joseph Wood, Richard Drury, Robert B. Belt, John Carr, William Urquhart, Capt. James Deale, Gustavus Weems, Joseph Moreton, Joseph Harrison, Joseph Connor, Capt. Lewis Griffith, Capt. Benjamin Franklin, Gaspar Winters-on, John Smith, Gassaway Chaney, Robert Franklin, Joseph Norris, Benjamin Griffith, Michael Collins, Henry Urquhart, Charles E. Bevan, John Beards, Gassaway Simon, Thomas Pindle, Richard Crandell and Matthew Hardesty, be appointed a committee of vigilance, with authority to adopt such measures in the approaching canvass as may be deemed expedient.

Resolved, That it be particularly recommended to this committee to circulate correct information amongst the people of the district, with a view especially to shew the unfounded nature of the charge, which, but for the counteraction, which we regret to perceive, has recently been given to it, (no doubt from want of sufficient examination) by respectable names of this district, we should have deemed it unnecessary to notice at this time—we mean the exploded charge against General Jackson of a violation of law in ordering to be carried into effect, as his official duty required, a sentence of a court martial composed of militia officers from the same district of country with the accused, with the exception of one, and from being neighbours and acquaintance naturally sympathizing with their friends and connexions, and therefore disposed to judge in mercy, pronounced upon the six ring leaders, who had seduced nearly two hundred of their fellow militia men from their duty, and who, after an impartial trial, while General Jackson was two or three hundred miles distant at New Orleans, and of course could exercise no influence over the court or witnesses, were found guilty of the fatal crime of mutiny and desertion, and persuading others to commit the same offences—crimes to which the law of the land had affixed the penalty of death—at a most critical period of the war, when their services and the preservation of subordination were necessary to secure the women and children of an exposed frontier from the tomahawk and scalping knife of the merciless savage, as well as from the invasion of the British, then hovering in large force upon the coast.

Resolved, That whereas an administration meeting, recently held in this district has requested and instructed our representative in congress to use his best efforts to induce the national legislature to enact such laws as shall protect "the citizens of the several States from acts of lawless, vindictive, and sanguinary violence, and to provide that courts martial, which shall hereafter overstep the limits of their legitimate authority, and commanding officers, who shall carry their sentence into effect, shall themselves be brought to condign punishment," we feel constrained to say that it does not appear to this meeting, from any thing that has been shewn, that any such offences have been committed, or that there is any defect of law for the punishment of such offences, whenever they may hereafter be committed; but although no such defect has been specified and pointed out for the guidance of our representative in congress yet if he shall, upon investigation, discover any such defect, we hereby concur in the request that he will use his best efforts to have it remedied.

Resolved, That we heartily approve of the national legislature for having provided laws for the enforcement of a salutary discipline in time of war, thereby making the militia, our chief reliance for defence against invasion, effectual for that purpose, and rendering large standing armies, dangerous to public liberty, unnecessary, and highly approve of the firmness of courts martial and officers, who, in defiance of the clamours of partisans and deserters, have fearlessly discharged their duty in enforcing such laws, against those who traitorously desert their country in a time of war and imminent danger of invasion.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions, attested by the Chairman and Secretary, be forwarded by the Chairman to our representative in congress.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions, attested as aforesaid, be forwarded by the Secretary to the Editors of each of the newspapers published in Annapolis, with a request from this meeting, that they will give them an insertion in their respective journals.

MARTIN FENWICK, Chairman.
HAMMOND STEWART, Secy.
The meeting was addressed by Mr. SELLMAN, and Mr. MACEY.

Jackson Meeting.
At a meeting of the friends of General Jackson in the fourth election district of Anne Arundel county, held at a meeting on Saturday 31st May 1828, at William Cecil's Tavern, Nicholas Dorsey of Lloyd esq. was called to the Chair, and Mr. Augustine Gambrell, appointed Secretary. The object of the meeting was briefly stated by the President, and after an animated address from Mr. John S. Sellman, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That owing to the unfortunate circumstance of there being different notifications published in the district calling a meeting of the friends of General Jackson, to transact business of importance in relation to the electoral candidates for President and Vice President, and to nominate proper and suitable candidates for the legislature, we who have met here this day, have adjourned to meet again, on the second Saturday of June next, at John Short's Store at one o'clock, P. M. and earnestly solicit the company and council, of the voters of the fourth election district. It is only necessary to say that the expediency of the case, and the vital principles involved in the present contest, will of themselves be a sufficient inducement to ensure a full and respectable meeting. And as it is contemplated to hold a convention at Merrill's Tavern on the second Saturday of June next. And as that day, in the opinion of those convened, is too early a period to ensure a full meeting from the several districts of the county, it is respectfully proposed, on the part of this meeting, that the day for the meeting of that convention be postponed until the third Saturday of June next.

Resolved, That the above resolutions be signed by the president and secretary, and enclosed to the editor of the Maryland Gazette, to publish the same in his paper as soon as possible.

NICHOLS DORSEY, Pres.
AUGUSTINE GAMBRILL, Secretary.

SINGULAR FACTS.
Gibbon, who in his celebrated history of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire, has left an imperishable memorial of his enmity to the Gospel, re-sided many years in Switzerland, where, with the profits of his pen, he purchased a considerable estate. This property he descended to a gentleman, who, out of his rents, expends a large sum annually in the promulgation of that very Gospel which his predecessor insidiously endeavoured to undermine, not having had courage openly to assail it.

Voltaire boasted, that with one hand he would overthrow that edifice of christianity, which required the hands of twelve Apostles to build up. At this day, the press which he employed at Ferney to print his blasphemies, is actually employed at Geneva in printing the Holy Scriptures. Thus the self-same engine which he set to work to destroy the credit of the Bible, is engaged in disseminating its truth. It is a remarkable circumstance, also, that the first provisional meeting for the reformation of an Auxiliary Bible Society in Edinburgh, was held in the very room in which Hume died.

From the Richmond Enquirer, May 23.
EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.
The Annual Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of this Diocese commenced its Session at Petersburg on the 15th inst. and closed on Sunday last. The Petersburg Intelligencer, says there were present between 30 and 40 Clergymen, and about the same number of Laymen, the representatives of the Parishes; and that the discourse of strangers from various parts of the State was large and respectable.

The Churches of the town were occupied at various times during the Convention. On Sunday, there was morning, afternoon and evening service in all the Churches which were crowded to overflowing—the Communion was administered to more than two hundred persons, and the Apostolic rite of confirmation to more than thirty. On Sunday forenoon seven gentlemen, principally students from the Theological Seminary at Alexandria, were admitted to the order of Deacons.

The Petersburg Republican does not specify the names of all the Preachers, but remarks, that "Time can never obliterate the remembrance of the eloquent address of the Rev'd Mr. Meade on terminating their christian labours and Bishop Moore's farewell address, of the most impressive scenes which we have ever experienced." The next Convention is to meet at Charlottesville. We have no room to-day for the Bishop's Address on opening the Convention. At the close of the Sabbath, the Clergy and Laity of the Convention assembled round the altar, when the Bishop addressed, and took his leave of them as follows.

Agreeably to that practice which has always marked the close of our Conventions, we surround the Altar of the Redeemer to express our thankfulness to him for that unity which has distinguished our proceedings; for the spiritual blessings we have enjoyed during our association; and also to take an affectionate leave of each other.

When we call to view the important concerns in which we have been engaged, and consider the peaceful spirit in which those concerns have been transacted, how heartfelt should be the expression of our gratitude to God! The Theological Seminary, a school of the Prophets, that nurses up the Church, from which we have received so much benefit and advantage, and from which we have reason to expect still greater results, has received from the benefactions of our friends an impulse which we trust will insure its success, and render it an object of commanding importance, not only to this Diocese, but to our religious community in general.

Seven young men, six of whom are alumni of that institution, have this day been admitted to holy orders: Many from whose labours, Parishes which have been destitute for many years, will be supplied; and the word of life communicated to those who have looked to us for spiritual help. Yes! the walls of some of our Churches in which the voice of the Gospel has not been heard for twenty years, will again resound with the glad tidings of salvation, and wake the prayers and praise of our people.—The hungry will be fed with the bread of life; the thirsty will be led to the fountain of ever living waters, that they may drink: the Cross of the Lord Jesus Christ will be exhibited to their view, and poor weeping penitents be directed to Calvary, for the salvation of their immortal souls. My heart vibrates with joy, at the glowing prospect presented to our view, and my soul rejoices in the increasing prospect of our Zion.

When we contemplate the blessings, with which God, in his mercy, hath favoured us, we have reason to take courage, and press forward in the discharge of our duty. It is by the preaching of the Gospel in its purity, that we are to expect a continuance of the Divine favour. It is the cross of a crucified Jesus, under which we have rallied; and while that cross continues to form the banner, under which we fight the fight of faith, the blessing of God will descend upon us in profusion, and our preaching prove the saviour of our life to those who hear us. Yes my Brethren, I repeat the declaration, it will expect to succeed in our ministry, and in the work of the Lord prosper in our hands, Jesus Christ and him crucified, must constitute the basis of all our discourses—the animating theme of all our addresses. Yes! my soul will exult at the thought, that the Cross, which forms the ladder, by which the believer scales the Heavens; the Cross, which throws of grace for which Jesus and his wondrous prayer; and pronounces pardon and forgiveness to the poor penitent. Carry your people to the precious Redeemer, and show them the precious blood, which cleanses from their complicated guilt, and the load of their complicated guilt, sweating great drops of blood—conduct them to Calvary—exhibit the Saviour to their view, as the only propitiatory sacrifice for you; and lest any of your charge should doubt his merciful disposition, proclaim to them the soul envigorating truth—proclaim to them that the Lord Jesus wears on his compassionate bosom the glorious inscription, "not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance." Go on, my beloved sons in the ministry, go on, in the glorious work in which you have engaged, and the Lord Jesus Christ will assist you with his grace, and bless you with the richest evidences of his love. Let controversy alone, for it will paralyze your minds, and obstruct you in your work. Preach the truth. Be attentive to the solemn vows of conformity to our worship, which you have voluntarily made. Be men of peace—imitate as far as in you lieth, your divine Master. Be firm in him, who was meek and lowly in heart, and you will find rest to your souls."

We are now, my brethren to part. Remember that such is the frail tenure of our earthly existence, that it is scarcely to be expected, we shall ever meet again in this World. The last year took two from our number; and before the next twelve months shall have revolved over our heads, others may be taken from our ranks, called to give an account of their stewardship. Strive then I beseech you, to be prepared. Be much of the throne of grace not only in the people of your charge, but also in your retirement. When you enter your closets, remember that you are entering the threshold of heaven, and say to the world and all its delusive pleasures "Stay ye here, while I go yonder and worship."—By such a course your lamps will be always trimmed, your lights burning in your hands; then when the voice of God shall proclaim the approach of the bride-groom, you will be prepared to enter into the everlasting joy of our God.

To the Lay members of the Convention, I beg leave to return my sincere thanks for their kind co-operation and support. With many of you I have met in Convention ever since your residence in Virginia, and to your labour the Church is indebted for its large portion of its success. The clergy consider you as co-workers with them, and lean much on you for your counsel and advice. Be steadfast and immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, and your labour will not be in vain here. My Brethren, I bid you all an affectionate farewell, and should we never meet in this vale of tears, Oh may we meet in that happy world prepared for noble righteous, and enjoy that rest which remain for the people of God—Brethren, farewell.

RICHARD C. MOORE.
LIFE, DEATH & ETERNITY.
A shadow moving by one's side,
That would a substance seem,
That is yet is not—though described
Like skies beneath the stream:
A tree that's ever in the bloom,
Whose fruit is never ripe;
A wish for joys that never come—
Such are the hopes of Life.
A dark, inevitable night,
A blank that will remain;
A waiting for the morning light,
When waiting is in vain;
A gulph whose pathway never led
To shew the depth beneath;
A thing we know not, yet we dread—
That dreaded thing is Death.
The vaulted roof of purple sky
That every where extends,
That stretches from the dazzled eye,
In space that never ends:
A morning whose uprisen sun
Is setting ere it shall see—
A day that comes without a noon—
Such is Eternity.

100 Dollars Reward.
Run away from the farm of the late Jonathan Pinkney Esq. near Annapolis, two negro women, one named JIM WOOTTEN, aged about thirty years, five feet ten inches high, and of a bright complexion. The other named BEN SNOWDEN, about 19 years old, five feet 8 inches high, very black and walks a little lame. It is supposed that these negroes went away in company with a bright mulatto man named Henry Wallace, belonging to Mrs Juliana Brice. The clothing of the above negroes is not known. A reward of fifty dollars will be given for the apprehension of the two negroes, or twenty five for each, if taken within this state, and secured in jail so that I get them again; or one hundred dollars for both, or fifty for each if taken out of the state.

Ran away from the subscriber living on West River A. A. county, on the 26th inst. a CRANE. The said negro is about 45 years of age, stout and fleshy, about 5 feet 10 inches high, limps when walking, and makes a quick reply when spoken to. He has lost a joint of one of the fore fingers but of which hand not known, and also one of his front teeth; he is a rough carpenter. His common clothing is a drab Devonshire kersey roundabout, a coarse whitish cloth pantaloons, fur hat and usaburg shirt but it is probable that he has changed his clothes as has a variety of them. The presumption is that he has absconded on board an oyster boat to Baltimore, where he has both friends and acquaintances. If he is apprehended within 15 or 20 miles of this place, a reward of 10 dollars will be given if taken in the state; a farther distance 20 dollars, and if out of the state 30 provided I get him again.
