space of fifteen years. The following items are from E g
The following items are from E g
The governor of Vera Cruz is an proclamation on the 28th of April, a ting forth that an attack upon the smight be expected from the Span squadron under Com. Laborde, a commanding all Spaniards vising the coast, as should come in sight, a tire twenty leagues into the intrinant not to return till they receiper in the commission from government.

the Mexicans, excepting therein however, the nations of the Prairs (Old Spain.) of Havana, and Person, who shall be taken in arms age the Spanish flag.

The debates of the Mexican Congress only agrees only approximated to the 90 ft.

vere only reported to the 9th of A cal concerns, and contain nothin

Consulate of the Netherlan

jesty the King of the Netherlands has received official information His Excellency I Van Der B commissary general of his map possesssons in the West Indies. that the port of the Island. March 1828

The port of St. Eustatius is de free to all nations, from the April next, and the same pris will be granted to all without d tion of flig. Art 2 of every description, imported ported, shall be tree of duty,

ne editor

Eigh

this port

position of sumption is d at Ports

les cotton.

Commerce. XICO.

aptain Sim-arrived yes-ampico, we an l'ampico

Mexico to

It shall be optional to vessels into the port, to take a pilot of and only to be paid when his finspec-or 1828. are required

It shall also be at the option of chants or masters of vessels, we they will make use of the public or not; and only in cases wh nay choose to have the use of

nor. The pital with vernment weights, payment w Art 5. All other direct or indirect inay have been, and which has

> Art. 6 harbour, all captains of reset

Annapolis June 19

Farmers Bank of Mary

In compliance with the ch the Farmers Bank of Maryh with a supplement theretoeth Branch thereof at Frederic Notice is hereby gives to the holders on the Western Short-election will be held at the house in the city of Annapolis house in the city of anosy-tirst Monday in August next, the hours of 10 o'clock. A M o'clock P M for the purpose o ing from amongst the social exteen directors for the Bank napolis, & nine directors for the Bank at Frederick town.

By order, Samuel Maynard, C

June 19.
The Editors of the Mary publican, Annapolis, and Fed zette and American, Balins requested to publish the above week for four weeks.

Notice is hereby g That the subscriber has rom the orphans court of American for his recommenced recommenced

Maryland Baxette

ANNAPOLIS: Thursday, June 19, 1828.

Jackson Meeting.

At a meeting called at John Shart's store in the Election District, on Saturday the interior between one and two hundred Foundation of the Chair, and Avecarian Garanti Eq. appointed Secretary, and Taisman S. Dozzar, appointed Assistant Secretary.

PREAMBLE

in the American Quarters of the proposed of th

Lowman, jr. James Phelps, John Samuel Gaither, Thomas White; A-a Duvall, Raph Duvall, Noah Duvall, is Deshier, James Araold, George W. ond, Thomas Hammond, Singleton Issac Duvall, Gabriel Duvall, Edward opera, and the Lying Valet, are have been particularly popular.

ing the season, the former was four, and the latter six time or publication.

NICHOLAS DORSEY, of Lloyd, Chairman.

Augustine Gambrill, Secretary

Augustine Gambrill, Secretary

Assistant Secretary

Assistant Secretary

Assistant Secretary Augustine Gampili, sectors, Assistant Secretary.
Tristram S. Borsey, Assistant Secretary.
After the adoption of the above preamble and resolutions, Virgil Maxey, esq. being previously requested to attend, with the unanimous consent of the company present, arose and delivered an eloquent and appropriate discourse, after which the stand was appropriate discourse, after which the stand was appropriate discourse, after which the stand was appropriated by the company of t

The first Theatre IN THE UNITED STATES. For the Maryland Gazette.

there was no regular Theatre within the limits of the United States, previously to the Revolution. In New England, the religious habits and opinions of the people were opposed to almost every species of public amusement. In New York, the prevalence of the Dutch latiguage, and Dutch manners, opposed great obstacles to the progress of English literature. In Philadelphia the staid and sober character of the Quakers neither relished nor tolerated sce of the first principles of our republications; Therefore, olved. That in a republican governolved. That in a republican governolved, in the people ought to be the will of the people ought to be the there were few, if any cities, sufficient populous to support a way for the original populous to support a hearter. While the city of New York was in possession of the British, during the way of the revolution, it was customs from the populous to support a hearter. While the city of New York was in possession of the British, during the war of the revolution, it was customs by the populous to support a populous to support a populous to support a way in possession of the British, during the war of the revolution, it was customs by the populous to support a populous to tleman, who often volunteered a cha racter at these representations. first regular theatre was, we believe, in bern World. It would hereafter have become an object, to which the citizens of tons ancient metropolis would have pointed with pride; which the curicu-would have sought, and which the admirers of genius and the Drama would have revered. I have never ceased to regret that some individual of taste and feeling, superior to the prejudence of the first regular theatre was, we denote the New York."

The South from the universally admitted character of its population seems to me the principal, if not the only point to which the Reviewer should have turned his inquiries to as about the existing of the Herman in the feeling, superior to the prejudices of the day, did not step forward to purchase which in his opinion, operated to prevent in the North & East, the introduction of the Theatre, prevailed in the smallest, degree to the South The feeble and scattered. The Southern cities, though now surpassed by the Northern and Eastern, were in the early period of our history, their rivals in population and their superiors in wealth. In most of them, gentlemen. accomplishment, resided. Educated in the Universities of Europe with the noble of the land, they imbibed a taste, perhaps a passion for the anusement of high and fashionable life. When they returned to their native country, they hesitated at scarcely any expense Rodered, That we will appear, at the search of the content of the Thursday, June 12th Present. But onarray, Ch. J. and Barle, Arches and Donary, Jr. The cases of Scott ve. Hruce, (Nos. 55 & 58.) were singed by Ashton for the appellent, and by C. Dorzey for the appeller. Americkay. prices of admission were for the Box. 10% for the Pit 72. 6d. or 71. for the Gallery 55. The same Company performed in Williamsterg, Va. and they give notice, that upon leaving Annapolis, they intend rocceding to Upper Mariburough, Macataway and Purt Tobacco, then pices of consequence and wealth in Maryland. The names of the company as no Dramatis Persona are give, I am unable in ascertain. In the Savertisement of Richard that the character of Richard was to be performed by a Mr. Herbert. In any ther play, the name of Mr. Eye army is mentioned. The fact that the Treatre existed 19 this city before the play, the name of Mr. Eye army is mentioned. The fact that the Treatre existed 19 this city before the play, the name of Mr. Eye army is mentioned. The fact that the Treatre existed 19 this city before the specific of Ladd & Co. vs. Durall, (No. 78.) was argued by J. Johnson and Levolution, and was much encouraged by the citizens, can be substantiated as strongly as any other fact of the time.

by the citizens, can be substantiated as strongly as any other fact of the time. Besides—the columns of the Maryland Gazette, thich further reference might be asde, there are several centlemen now living, who were in the hibit of visiting the Theatre for some years before, the Revolution. It was the under the direction of Mr. III. III. Study of the company from England.

that the first regular Theatre in the United States was built in New York? The Theatre, which in 1752, is called The New Theatre, was a neat brick building, tastefully arranged, and competent to contain between five and six me (No. 1874) was argued by A. U. soon or the appellants, and by A. U. Ma ruder for the appellee. Hoge vs. Pent. (No. 1894) was argued by Boyle. For the appellant, and by A. C. Magrued der to the appellee. Murdock vs. Brew der to the appellee. Murdock vs. Brew was opened in part by Muse. Perhaps it was the first spot. Pe.

upon which the characters of Shakspeare for were exhibited to the people of the Wesern World. It would hereafter have er.

Brice for the appellant.
Tuesday, June 17th.—The opening of the last mentioned case was concluded, and it was argued by Brice and Speed, for the Appellant, by Brewer jun, for the Appellee, and concluded by Speed and A. C. Magruder for the oy Speed and A. C. Magruder for the Appellant, it reply.
EDWIN M DORSEY, esq. of Prince

A CITIZEN. George's c

(No. 178.) was argued by R. B. Ma gruder, for the Appellant. Wednesday Anne 18th—The Hon ments:
By permission of His Honour the Localdent.
At the Naw Fizatra, in Animpolis, by the Company of Comedians, on Monday now, being the 13th of this instant, July 1762, will be performed a Comedy called JOHN STEPHEN, Judge, appeared in

The Court of med the decree in Knott vs. Cheselding, et al. They reversed the decree in Yord vs. Ford, and offirmed the decree in Brown et ux. vs. irreconcilable.

Helb & Hatton.

The argument in Maccubbin et al. vs. Cromwell, was continued by R. B. Magruder for the Appelants, and by Mayer for the Appelants. Mayer for the Appellee Awhen the fur-ther argument was postposed. Hudson es. Warner & Vance. (N. 177.) was argued by Mitchell for the Appellant. The further argument was then post-poned. The argument was raumed in Maccubbin et al. vs. Cromicell, by Mo-solith for the Anneller.

azette of 1772:

Latest from Europe.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT—RUSSIAN DE-CLARATION OF WAR.

The mail from the Eastward arrived about six o'clock last evening, bringing the follow-ing late and highly important intelligence from Europe.

From the New York Commercial of Menday

LATE AND IMPORTANT.

resident for the appellant, and by F. S. Key for the appellee. The decree in Renner vs. Dellinger. (No. 134.) was offirmed nisi. The case of Price vs. Read, (No. 136.) was argued by F. S. Key for the appellee. No counsel appeared to the appellant. Mockbee's adm'r. vs. Gardner. et ux. (No. 145.) was argued by Hole for the appellant, and by F. S. Key for the appellant, and by F. S. Key for the appellant, and by F. S. Key for the appellant, and the Manifesto by which it is accompanied, will be found beloam. Whitenstein's x-mine that two columns, this evening it is more than two columns, this evening. It will appear to morrow. Wittgenstein's x-mine that two columns, this evening. It will appear to morrow. Wittgenstein's x-mine that two columns, this evening. It will appear to morrow. Wittgenstein's x-mine that two columns, this evening. It will appear to morrow. Wittgenstein's x-mine to give the Declaration extending to time to give the Declaration of War in the two columns, this evening. It is will appear to morrow. Wittgenstein's x-mine to give the Declaration extending to time to give the Declaration extending to the will appear to morrow. Wittgenstein's x-mine that two columns, this evening. It is also do that the found beloam the columns, this evening. It is more than two columns, this evening. It is more than two columns, this evening. It is more than two columns, this evening. It is also do will be found beloam. Will appear to morrow. Wittgenstein's x-mine the price of give the Declaration of War in the two columns, this evening. It is also do will be found beloam. We will appear to morrow. Wittgenstein's x-mine that two columns, this evening. It is also do will be found beloam the distinct of give the Declaration of War than two columns, this evening. It will appear to morrow. Wittgenstein's x-mine that two columns, this evening to will appear to morrow. Wittgenstein's x-mine that two columns, this evening to will appear to morrow. Wittgenstein's x-mine the local two columns, this evening. It will be found

Extraordinary Supplement to the Rus sian State Gazette

BERLIN, May 4.
We have received to day from St.
Petersburg the following official docu-MANIFESTO OF HIS MAJESTY

MANIFESTO OF HIS MAJESTI
THE EMPEROR.

"By the Grace of God, we, Nicho las I. Emperor and Autocrat of all the Russias, &c. &c. The Treaty of Bu charest, concluded in the year 1812 with the Ottoman Porte, after having with the October Porte, after having been for sixteen years the subject of reiterated disputes, now no longer subsists, in spite of all of our exertions to maintain it, and to preserve it from all attacks. The Porte, not satisfied with having prestricted the basis of that treaty, now defies Russia, and prepared to wage against it a Bellum ad internationem; it summons its people in a mass to arms—access Russia of being irreconcilable exemy, and tramples under foot the Convention of Akerman, and with that all preeding treaties.

"Lastly, the Pore does not hesitate to declare that it accepted the condititions of this peace only as a mask to conceal its intentions and its preparations for a new war. Earcely is this remarkable confession made, when the rights of the Russian flag are violated;

Our subjects found themselves compel-led to break their oath, or to leave withphorus is closed—our trade annihila ted—our southern provinces deprived of the only channel for the exportation of their produce, are threatened with incalculable injury.—
Nay more! At the moment when the negotiations between Russia and Persia are nearly concluded, a sudden change. pears that the Ottoman Porte exerts it self to make Persia waver, by promis-ing powerful aid; arming in haste the ing powerful aid; arming in haste the impose in the adjoining provinces, and preparing to support, by a threatening attack, this treacherous hostile language, attack, this treat too when a the following: Ordered that the first rounds of the many of the sacrifices and the general language. Henry Hall, late of Anne Arundel County, and the sacrifices and the general language. Henry Hall, late of Anne Arundel County, and the sacrifices and the general language. Henry Hall, late of Anne Arundel County, and the sacrifices and the general language. Henry Hall, late of Anne Arundel County, and the sacrifices and the general language. Henry Hall, late of Anne Arundel County, and the sacrifices and the general language. Henry Hall, late of Anne Arundel County, and the sacrifices and the general language. Henry Hall, late of Anne Arundel County, and the sacrifices and the general language. Henry Hall, late of Anne Arundel County, and the sacrifices and the general language. Henry Hall, late, of Anne Arundel County, and the sacrifices and the general language. Henry Hall, late, of Anne Arundel County, and the sacrifices and the general language. Henry Hall, late, of Anne Arundel lowing: Ordered that the hosting: Ordered that the hosting: Ordered t

"We are convinced that our faithful subjects will join with our prayers, this nost arrient wishes, for the success of our enterprise, and that they will import the Athenty; to lead his support to out brave soldjers, and to shed his and out seleved country, religion at 8r. Petersburgh, the [26th] April, in the year of and the selection at [26th] April, in the year of our Lord, 1928, and the third of our reign.

[Bign 1-]

[Counter agned the Vice Chancellor.]

CULNT NESSELRUDE."

toregoing Main rato, enters into a more ample review of the conduct of the Porte. Itreproches her with duplicity in signing the greaty of Ackerment which she never the state of Ackerment which she never the state of Ackerment the state of t The DECLARATION which follows the foregoing Manuelto, enters into a more Porte. Itreprospects and the second of the s Servians; instead of which the Torks invaded their terrilry, and made; a dreadfull massacre. The privileges of the Principalities were to be guaranteed; instead of which a systim was established of the most sweeping plunder. The incursions of the Turks inhabiting the left bank of the Lahamara cucurage ed. Yet Russians only deal.

and that Don Migating without opposition aimed king without opposition aimed king without opposition aimed king without opposition to his niece, arks that he is now a traitor to his niece, arks that he is now a traitor to his niece, arks that he is now a traitor to his niece, arks that he is now a traitor to his niece, arks that he is now a traitor to his niece, arks that he is now a traitor to his niece, arks that he is now a traitor to his niece, arks that he is now a traitor to his neurations of the he is now and a feet bunk of the Vocations only designate and past print the care and just print t

The following additional items are con-tained in the second edition of the New York Journal of Commerce, under date of Mini-day, half paylone, P. M.

Paris pagers of the 14th state that a Royal Orlinence has been issued for a toyy of 60, 600 men of the class of 1827.

That the subscriber ton obtained sons having claims agains' said eating are requested to present them, proposity authenticated, and those indebted are requested to make payment.

Charles T Flusser, Adm'r.

June 19 The Editor of the Frederick Herald, will please to give this one insertion in each week for three successive Maryland, Sct.

At a session of the O phans Court of Anne Arundel county, in the State of Alaryland, held on the 11th day of ryland, held on Ridout. Justices. White.

Gideon White. Justices.
Thomas H. Hull, Register.
Richard Iglebart, Sheriff.