Forty Dollars Reward Runaway from his subscriber living West River A county, on the 24th in-
Negro HERCULE
RANE. The said is about 45 years of age, and fleshy, about 5 feet 10 inches high, limps when walking, and mistakes a quick reply when spoken to. He lost a joint of one of the fore fingers but of which hand not known and also one of his front teeth; he is a rough carpenter. His common clothing is a drab Devonshire kersey roundabout, a coarse white cloth pantaloons, fur hat and oona burgh shirt, but it is probable that he has changed his clothes as he wears a variety of them. The presumption is that he has abandoned on board an oyster boat to Baltimore, where he has both friends and acquaintances.
If he is apprehended within 15 or 20 miles of this place, a reward of 10 dollars will be given if taken in the state a further distance 20 dollars, and if out of the state $40 provided he bring him again.

On every MONDAY morning, she will leave BALTIMORE for CHES-TERTOWN, and return the same day, leaving Chestertown at one o'- clock, P. M. touching at Cassica (for the Centreville passengers) going and coming.
The Maryland, in order to prevent collision will leave Baltimore on Sunday morning next (and every succeeding Sunday) at the same hour during the season, at half past nine o'clock, A. M. (for Annapolis).
The public are respectfully informed that the MARYLAND has been 100 Dollars Reward.

Ran away from the farm of the late Jonathan Pinkney, Esq.
near Annapolis, two negroes, one named JIM WOOTEN, aged a bout thirty years, five feet ten inches high, and of a bright complexion.
The other named BEN SNOWDEN, about 19 years old, five feet 2 inches high, very black and walks a little lame.
It is supposed that these negroes went away in company with a bright mulatto man named Henry Wallace, belonging to Mrs. Julius Brice. The clothing of the above negroes is not known. A reward of fifty dollars will be given for the apprehension of the two negroes, or twenty-five for each, if taken within this state, and secured in jail so that I get them again; or one hundred dollars for both, or fifty for each if taken out of the state.

PROPOSAL
FOR PRINTING
The Journals of the Conventions of the Province of Maryland, Held in the City of Annapolis, in the years 1774, 1775 and 1776.

IF Sufficient encouragement be offered, the Subscriber proposes to publish, in one volume octavo, the Journals of the Conventions of the Province of Maryland in the years 1774, '75 and '76. It is believed that there are not more than two copies of these Journals now extant; and from the circumstance that they were printed in pamphlet form, and unbound, it may be fairly concluded that they, too, must in a few years be destroyed by the mere decay of time. These Journals are the only authentic evidence of the Political History of Maryland, during that interesting and unquiet period. Although we have, in abundance, histories of Maryland, as connected with the association of Provinces and Colonies, at that time formed, for mutual protection against the improper assumption of power on the part of the Mother Country, yet none of these works embrace what may be termed its Domestic and Internal Political History.
This part of the history of Maryland it should be her pride to hand down to posterity, not only on account of its deep interest, but as a public State Record of the voluntary sacrifices, daring spirit, and determined resolution, of her citizens, during this period of doubt and dismay.
In the confident expectation that the citizens of Maryland will consider the proposed publication of sufficient importance to entitle it to their patronage, the Subscriber is induced to issue these proposals.
The Price per Copy, not to exceed 82 00. J. GRIFIN.

DECISIONS
OF THE Court of Appeals of Maryland.
PUBLISHED
By Subscription.

THE DECISIONS
COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND,
To be Reported by Thomas Harris, Esquire, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and Reverdy Johnson, Esquire, Attorney at Law.
These Decisions will form a continuation of the first volume of Reports already published by Messrs Harris and Johnson, which closes with the year 1805. It is proposed to publish the Decisions in a Series of Numbers, each to contain not less than one hundred and twenty five pages, and four numbers to constitute a volume. The last number of each volume will contain a full and complete Index. This mode of publication, it is conceived, possesses advantages which give it a deserved preference to that of publishing the Reports in bulky volumes. It ensures the earlier publication of the Reports, and as not more than four numbers will be published in a year, the expense will not be so sensibly felt.
TERMS
The price of each number of the Reports will be $1 25, payable on delivery.
Subscriptions to the above work are received at GEO. SHAW'S Store, the Maryland Gazette Office, and the respective Offices of the County Clerks of this State.

MOSELLEARY.
From the Boston Statesman.
Bright—I'm in love, I believe, I feel so remarkably queer,
And 'spiry' are all taking leave For the land of spirits, I fear.
I wish the wind in winter, When its notes are a deep bass blue,
And my heart feels as tho' a large splinter Has stuck in through and through.
I'm eternally thinking of one, I'm last all my wish for fun, And shrink from the thoughts of a single And head has grown light as a feather—Can't stand half my quarts of sleep, I've cut the "Old Host" altogether, For gossip and tea-table slops.
I wish my soul I was dead,
And frozen as stiff as a cold, I'd rather be forthwith, and be dead, I thought it would do the job.
Whoever died like a hero,
With a sword in his hand or cup, I'd rather be ten degrees below zero,
And nothing to bring it up?
Oh, Cupid what work thou hast made With a gentle young man like myself?
How'st forced me to give up my trade, And laid me quite snug on the shelf.
My nerves are all up in a twitter, I'm ready to drop down with a fit, I'd rather be dead, sweet willow, blow me away, sweet willow.

MODERN GALLANTRY.
Comprising modern with ancient maxims, we are pleased to compliment you upon the point of gallantry, or obsequiousness, or deferential style, which we are supposed to pay to females, as females.
I shall believe that this principle according to our conduct, when I forget, that in the nineteenth century of the era to which we date our civility, we are just beginning to leave off the very ancient practice of whipping females public, in common with the coarsest offenders.
I shall believe it to be influential, I can wish my eyes to the fact, in England, women are still occasionally—hanged.
I shall believe in it, when actresses are no longer subject to be lashed off by gentlemen.
I shall believe in it, when Darwin saw a fish wife across the Kew-ney; or was the apple woman to pick up her rotting fruit, which some unlucky husband just dissipated.
I shall believe it, when the Drimants mother life, who would be thought the way notable adept in this respect, shall act upon it in places where they are not known, or think themselves not observed, when I shall see the traveller for some rich tradesman put with his adorned box coat, and with the defenceless shoulders to walk on the roof of the same stage coach with him, drenched in the rain—I shall believe no longer to see a woman sitting up in the pit of a London theatre, till she is sick and faint with heat, with men about her, seating their ease, and jostling at her distance, till one, that seems to have more patience or conscience than the rest, suddenly declares "she should be blown in his seat, if she were a little fatter and handsomer." Place this before your houseman, or that rider, circle of their own female acquaintance, and you shall confess that you have seen a politer bred man in Louthborough.
