PROPOSAL FOR PRINTING

The Journals of the Conventions of the Province of Maryland, Held in the City of Annapolis, in the years 1774, 1775 and 1776.

IF Sufficient encouragement be offered, the Subscriber proposes to publish, in one volume octavo, the Journals of the Conventions of the Province of Maryland in the years 1774, '75, '76. It is believed that there are more than two copies of these Journals extant; and from the circumstance that they were printed in pamphlet form, and unbound, it may be concluded that they, too, must have been destroyed by the mere lapse of time. These Journals are the authentic evidence of the Political History of Maryland, during that interesting and unquiet period. They have, in abundance, illustrated Maryland, as connected with the situation of Provinces and Colonies that time formed, for mutual protection against the improper assumption of power on the part of the Mother Country, yet none of these works are what may be termed its Domestic Internal Political History.

This part of the history of Maryland it should be her pride to hold down to posterity, not only on account of its deep interest, but as a State Record of the voluntary sacrifices, daring spirit, and determined resolution of her citizens, during that period of doubt and dismay.

In the confident expectation that the citizens of Maryland will consider proposed publication of sufficient importance to entitle it to their patronage, the Subscriber is induced to these proposals.
