The Misses Rookers' ACADEMY.

The patrons of this institution and the public generally, are respectfully informed, that the duties of the seminary will recommence on Monday the 1st day of September. Having long resided in this city, it is not deemed necessary to make any statements to the citizens of Baltimore, with respect to the merits of the school, or the qualifications of those who preside over its concerns. They venture to appeal with some degree of confidence to those best acquainted with them for testimonials of their assiduous efforts to form the minds of their pupils.

But for the sake of those residing at a distance, they ask leave to say, that the spacious and convenient house in which they reside, is admirably calculated for the comfort and health of the Young Ladies belonging to the Boarding School—that all the branches of a useful and ornamental English education will be taught in their Seminary, and that strangers to them are referred to the following gentlemen for their character and qualifications as teachers.

The Rev. Mr. Duncan, Rev. Mr. Henshaw, Doctor Donaldson, Messrs. Cushing & Jewett, Ridge & Morris, Hopkins & Moore, M. Isaac Tyson, Mr. James Campbell, Mr. William Henry, Mr. George Stonebraker, Mr. James Barroll.
