modes of communication terstand his profession; ger upon her polse.

surprising that she should imprehend the efficacy an easy to relate other desirable that this arti ot desirable that this artic of ar extended as to fatigue and Splendid VET CLOTES REE WATER

rchant Tailor, returned from Philadelp d Biltimore, with a ge Stock of Goods, his line, consisting of the bast Velvet Cloths, a ortment of Cassimeres and a variety of VESTINGS, he latest fashions, with an assortment of Hores, Collars & Surp ich he will sell low for Co ctual men on moderate te n Chancery, 17th Sept. 1829 as Hammond, and others,

Hammond. and others. d, That the creditors of Friend, late of Anne Aron deceased, file their claim authenticated, in the on or before the 17th y next, and that a copy be inserted in some n newspapers once in es ctober next.

Ramsay Waters, Reg. Cor. Ca

CE IS HUREBY GIVE the Subscriber has obt having claims against sai authenticated o make immediate pays informed, that the cian Dog Apoll EXHIBITED at MINW INSHOTEL (in the Long R rdiy next, at three is the and eight in the Evening. H

and eight in the Evening. H is object of so many Ed to object of so many Ed to object of so his abilities to expatiste on his abilities to expatist on his abilities to e

Maryland Wagette ANNAPOLIS: puriday, September 18, 1828. PEOPLE'S TICKET. FOR PRESIDENT. ANDREW JACKSON-FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

JOHN C. CALHOUN. king any part in the enanth

MARYLAND ELECTORS, n District—Joseph Stone.

District—John C. Herbert. M District-William Fitzhugh, jr. William Tyler.

4th District-John S. Sellman, Benjamin C. Howard. sh District-Elias Brown. 6th District-Thomas M. Forman District-John T. Rees. . sth District-James Sangston. th District-Thomas K. Carroll.

lickson Ticket for Anne Arundel. in S. Sellman, of 1st District, four Linthicum, of 4 do. Garles S. Mathews, of 5 do. Charles D. Warfield, of 6 do.

k, by the Rev. Mr. vintal, melan S. Selby, to Miss Margaret are, daughter of the Rev. Nicholas fireins, all of this city.

ORPHAN ASYLUM. We particularly recommend to our seles, the interesting Report of the igers of "The Female Orphan Asy and Annapolis." We are confident by a factor of the feelings of the cha table, will not be made in vain.

For the Maryland Gazette. SONG-FROM THE ITALIAN. who art thou of pensive beauty Whose lips so soft, so sad appear! Il court thee with assiduous duty, and yet all greet thee with a tear? -1 sing in low. and plaintive measure,

Of juys and sorrows long past by;
Ad young and old, with sweeping plea Dwell on the strains of MEMORY!" Ol who art thou of youthful brightness. With airy step, and locks of gold; The heart, to meet thee, bounds in lightness. The eyes, with smiles, thy form be-hold? -"I strive to gild this world of sad ness.

And change it to a sunny slope, Blive my song and tale of gladness.
And call me by the name of Horz.

The Female Orphan Society. The Managers of the Female Orphan sylum of Annapolis, respectfully infimthe public, that they have succeed it in placing under the care of a suitable matton, four fittle Orphans taken matterns, destitution—matices of se mairon, four fittle Orphans taken, for extreme desilution,—notives of pridence alone procent them from ad-deg to the number. It will be grati-fing to the Managers if such nersons first to the number. It will be gratified to the Managers if such persons in feel an interest for the welfare of this lustitution would visit the children at the house of Mrs. Welch, in Cornell of the children are the majority confidently believe, the evident improvement of the children rould enhance that interest, and indeed the willing to aid in supplying the face same as well as well as the coressary for Sweet potatoe please you.

Grapevine sap wash you fair, Meatliquor grease you.

Meatinguor grease you.

Miss Dinah she look very proud.

And say he fit to eat her.

Head & pluck make you stare, &c.

Miss Dinah she look very proud.

And say he fit to eat her.

Head & pluck make you stare, &c.

Miss Dinah she look very proud.

And say he fit to eat her.

Head & pluck make you stare, &c.

Miss Dinah she look very proud.

And say he wish he pat dead,

And say he wish dereth the Poor, the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble."

The Editors in the city of Annapolis will confer a favour on the Managers of the Female Orphan Society of this place, and the cause of humanity, by giv ing the foregoing a place in their pa-had some days before left home to fatigues of the former part of the day, visit, and who resides in one of the lower counties of this state. The lower counties of this state. western sky was mantled with a cloud of deep blue streaked with red, which, as the parting rays of the sct-ting sun struck upon it, assumed a splendour beyond the conception of human imagination, and which the finest touches of art can never equal. HYMENEAL.

Rarried, on Thursday morning

by the Rev. Mr. Vinton, Mr.

bis Selby, to Miss Margaret sty, daughter of the Rev. Nicholas try, all of this city.

ties, and contemplate the wonderous works of Hist, who "called forth creation." Absorbed in thought, I forgot the shortness of twilight, and tarried on the delightful spot, as tho bound to it by the spell of an enchantress, until the rising dampness warned me of the nearness of night. I again turned my horse into the road, and moving forward in a brisk pace, at the expiration of half an hour, reached a field of my friend's distant about half a mile from his house. A loud noise, which I conjectured at the time was made by a number of persons singing, now sa-luted my ear. As I approached luted my ear. As I approached nearer I found my conjecture right. plantation hands, and many others who had volunteered on the occasion, were employed in husking corn, and as they worked, were beguiling their labour with rude songs of their own composition. To me, who had been raised in a large town, and who knew nothing of country life, the marger of their singing was no less note than their songs. One of them divertal me so much, that I prevailed on a son of my friend's, a sprightly boy twelve or thirteen years of age, who knew it by rote, to repeat it while I committed it to paper. He did so; and I now send it to you for publication in your paper, should you be disposed to insert it. The perusal of it may serve to amuse some of your town readers, who it may be, know as little of country matters, as I did when I first heard it sung. HUBRING SONG.

Cousin Dinah dress so smart Dicky Bowshin languish,
And swear her frown shoot tro' he heart,
And fill it full of anguish.

Head and pluck make you stare, Sweet potatoe please you, Grapevine sap wash you fair, Meatliquer grease you.

the unfulfered Fenale Orphan, which provides by its wine regulations should be surrough the substitution and an interference of the Maryland Garactic and interference of the Angeles of the substitution of t conduct of the Jacksoniana was considered by the author of the extract, exceedingly reprehensible while Colonel Boyle was speaking, from the circumstance of their having drawn and huzzaed for Jackson whiskey! We think such a common circumstance as the sull has injure any cause. There To the Editor of the Maryland Gazette.

It was on a calm, pleasant evening about the close of October, that I found myself within five miles of the dwelling of an old friend, whom I had some days before left home to fatigues of the former part of the day.

domestic endearments.

Philip Pettibone, Stephen Boone, John W. Williams, Richard Gardiner, John A. Merriken.

Sept. 16, 1828.

this city, dated Patapsco Neck, Sept. 16, 1828. Extract from a letter to a gentleman in 16, 1828.

"I observe in the Maryland Republican of Saturday last, extracts of several letters, complaining of the behaviour of certain folks at the meeting at Waters's and charging the people of this district, at least such of them as attended that meeting, with the an inordinate love of riot and whiss with that they could not leave the stuff low enough to listen to Col. Boyle. What kind of people, from this account of us, must strangers take us to be? They will conclude that we are a set of out laws, blackguards and drunkards. Can the blackguards and drunkards. Can the people of this section of the county be so simple as to support the administration tights after such as the section of the county be so simple as to support the administration tights. tion ticket, after such a libel on their character, emanating from the source it character, emanating the system of close? This is truly a novel system of clectioneering. You are sufficiently acquainted with the district to know, that there is as mer trepublicanism, morality, nay religion feeling among us as any other district in the county.

"The Marylander' has lately been industrictly distributed among our peo This is truly a novel system of dustriously distributed among our people, with engravings representing monumental inscriptions, to perpetuate the infamy of a band of traitors, who just infamy of a band of traitors, who justly suffered the penalties of the law, for mutiny, descrition, &c. at the moment our gallant militia, who nobly performed their duty, well daily expecting an at tack from our enemy, the British, and their Indian allies. The peoplehere say, they might as well include the traitor

BENEDICT ARNOLD, and pernetuate his

MR. ASHMUN-Died in New Haven on Tuesday morning, the 26th inst. J. Ashmun, Eq. late Agent of the American Colony at Liberia, in Africa, aged 34 years.

Mc-Ashmun arrived in this city a hout a fortnight before his testh; (as we have already noticed) via the West Indies, laboring under severe bodily infirmities. He was immediately placed under the care of the best medical skill. under the care of the best medical skill, and had every attention which sympathy and friendship could render. For a few days he appeared to be much refreshed and strengthcaed by the change of climate, and was a labled to ride out several times, and more several times, and his constitution which had endured many hardships and uncommon trials, was so far broken down, that human skill could not renovate it, or friend-skill could not renovate it or friend-skill could not under the management of this great, this distinguished man, the little band has become a nation in miniature. From a chaos of heterogeneous naterials, he has formed a well organized community of more than 1200 freemen. Like the patriarchs of old, he has been their captain, their law giver, judge, priest, and governor.—They are now enjoying the blessing of freedom, for which and Schneider. General Baron Durien, to improve it and render it annually ing the blessing of freedom, for which he has sacrificed his life; and he is reaping the rich reward of his labours, we

The interest of the scene was consider ably increased by the arrival of the afflicted mother of the deceased, after he services in the church had commen ced. She had hastened from the shores of Lake-Champlain to see her shores of Lake-Champlain to see her son once more. But she was too late. She could only be permitted to join in the last sad tribute of affection. The solemn procession doved to the place of burial, where a communent will be reared to the memory of this friend of Africa.—Religious Intelligencer.

FOREIGT.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

By the ship Caledonia, arrived at New York on Tuesday, Liverpool papers to theed of August and London papers to the 31st July inclusive, were papers to the 31st July inclusive, were received by our respective correspond-ents, to whom we are indebted for a varicty of extracts

PROGRESS OF THE RUSSIANS. PROGRESS OF THE RUSSIANS.
Two additional Bulletins (the eight and ninth.) have been received from the Russian army. The eighth merely gives some further particulars of the siege of Brailow, and states the lose of the Russians at 3,000 them. The other announces that on the sixth, the head quarters of the Presion account to the state. announces that on the sixth, the head quarters of the Russian army were to be moved. They were to proceed, by forced marches towards Bazargik on account of the scarcity of water. The main army consists of fifty four battalions, torty-eight squadrons, six regiments of Cussacks, with two bundled and fifty pieces of cannon. Ample supplies of provisions were arriving regularly, both by had and sea. The heat had been moderated by frequent showers—so that the sick was not very numerous, the thermometer had been 905 of Farenheit. Varna is the next point

Accounts from Bucharest at the 1st of July, announce that the Russians and begun to bombard Silistria, to which place the Turkish garrison of Braila had been permitted to retire. The garrison which consisted originally of 12,000 men, had sustained considerable lesses both in killest and wounded. The 12,000 men, had sustained considerable losses both in killed and wounded. The Grand Quake Michael arrived at the front quakers on the 5th of July, and appeared with the order of Sr. George of the 2d class given him by the Emperor for the couquest of Braila.

A German paper asserts that 100,000 Russians are advancing to force the passage of the Balkan mountains. The Turks, it is said, depend on their lines at Schumla, which are defended by 1,500 cannon.

France. This General with may diden-his command Major Generals Viscount Tiburce, Sebastiani, Baron Higonet, and Schneider. General Baron Durien, is appointed Chief, and Col. Freeze se-cond Chief of the Staff. The artillery will be commanded by Col. Viscount data Hitte the Engineers by Lieut advantage to be derived by France from having an army on the spot, in order to secure something for herself in the partition of the Ottoman empire, which is likely to take place. This is speaking out, at least, and if such be the sentiments of France, the prospect of maintaining the integrity of the Turkish Empire heremes, were faint than every Empire becomes more faint than ever t has been.

France is said to take this step at the request of the Emperor of Russia, and it is added that England is to co-operate with a naval force, so that the three powers are represented as still atting n concert. Such a step would ? iv add to the embarrassment of Sultan, and probably hasten his sub-

A report is spread that Abduraham Pacha of Bosina. was assassinated just at the moment that he was going to join at the moment that he was a col-the corps of troops which he had col-lected conformably to the firman of the Sultan. If this news should be con-firmed, it is easy to foresee that trou-bles in the interior of Bosnia will be the consequence, and that the situation of that province with respect to Servia of that province with respect to Servia will be essentially changed. The Servians, however, remain in the same position, and do not appear disposed to commit any acts of hostility against the Porte; or on the other hand, to suffer any armed budy of Turks to enter their province.—The hurricane which ravaged Bucharest on the 25t: June, and which extended to all the country alone. which extended to all the country along the Danube, is said to have done much damage to the baggage of the Russian

The London Sun of the evening of the Sist July (the latest paper received)

According to French papers receiv talk at Paris of a Congress, which is to be held at Laybach. Its object is said to be the regulation of the existing in prevent its falling into the hands of the Russians.

From the Vislula, July 4. The movements of troops in the interior of Russia have not yet ceased. In the vicinity of Mostow, above 30,000 men are encamped, who have been raised for the most part by the late levy of recruits. According as they are trained and equipped, they are marched in detachments of 500 men towards the South-western provinces of the empire. The number of regular Cossacks corps is said to have increased very considerable and the contraction of the same be published once in each week, for the space of six successive weeks, for tachments of 500 men towards the South-western provinces of the empire. The number of regular Cossacks corps is said to have increased very considerably, and that a large part of the re-inforcements lately sent to the army of the Caucasus consisted of troops of this description.

to improve it and render it annually more and more profitable. The dwelling house is of brick, large and in good repair, as are all the out houses, ing the rich reward of his labours, we have no doubt, in Heaven.

On Wednesday his funeral was at tended by A large concourse of citizens, the Faculty and members of Yale Coll. Andoy. Baron Voltand, the Militzens, the Faculty and members of Yale College, a number of the neighbouring clergy and the Governor of this State. His remains were carried to the Centre Church where an appropriate sermon was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Bacon.

The interest of the seene was consider.

and the U. S. Telegraph, will publish the above in the country paper 3 weeks

Chancery Sale. By virtue of an order of the Chance-By virtue of an order of the subscriber of Court of Maryland, the subscriber will offer at public sale, ON TUESDAY the 21st day of October next, at the Court House in Annapolis, at 12 o'clock, (noon.) part of

A Tract of Land Called 'GREEN'S PURCHASE," near Mount Pleasant Ferry, in Anne Arundel county, containing by late survey, 1781 acres There are no improvements on this land. Terms of sale—One third cash, and the residue in six months, with interest from the day of sale—on bond or note with surety.

Jno. J. Donaldson, Trustee.

Rent 18.

Bept 18.

tate of staryland, sc.

Anne Arundel county Orphans court,
Sept. 17th, 1828.
On application by petition of Alexander J Murray, Adinr. of James E Brico, late of Anne Arundel county, decessed, who died in the Island of St.
Omingo, it is ordered that he give the notice required by law for crehe notice required by law for crelitors to exhibit their claims against is said deceased, and that the same e published once in each week, for the space of six successive weeks, in the of the newspapers printed in the ity of Annapolis.

Thomas T. Simmons, Reg. of Wills, A. A. County &

Notice is hereby given,

That the subscriber of Anne-A-rundel County, hath obtained from the Orphans Court of Anne Arundel county, in Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of James E Brice, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased. All persons having claims against the said Arnold was not hanged or shot, and for the best of reasons, because he estair coped, and took reluge with the enemy. You may be assured, my friend, there is id too much intelligence annong our people to be so easily galled."

COMMUNICATED.

APLAIN QUISTION.

Let every Poor Man, before he gives his Vote at the October election, put this question to himself—

Would it be right in me to vote for candidates who support the election of Mr. Adams—a man who, when the Sonate of the United States were a string on the bill to erect Louisiana into two territories, coted, that no person should have a gode who did not own ffly acres of land?

Ma. Ashmun—Died in New Hayen on Tuesday meeting of the Man. Ashmun—Died in New Hayen on Tuesday meeting of the Man. Ashmun—Died in New Hayen on Tuesday meeting of the Man. Ashmun—Died in New Hayen on Tuesday meeting of the Man. Ashmun—Died in New Hayen on Tuesday meeting of the Man. Ashmun—Died in New Hayen on Tuesday meeting of the Man. Ashmun—Died in New Hayen on Tuesday meeting of the Man. Ashmun—Died in New Hayen on Tuesday meeting of the Man. Ashmun—Died in New Hayen on Tuesday meeting of the Man. Ashmun—Died in New Hayen on Tuesday meeting of the Man. Ashmun—Died in New Hayen on Tuesday meeting of the Man. Ashmun—Died in New Hayen on Tuesday meeting of the Man. Ashmun—Died in New Hayen on Tuesday meeting of the Man. Ashmun—Died in New Hayen on Tuesday meeting of the Man. Ashmun—Died in New Hayen on Tuesday meeting of the Man. Ashmun—Died in New Hayen on Tuesday meeting of the Man. Ashmun—Died in New Hayen on Tuesday meeting of the Man. Ashmun—Died in New Hayen on Tuesday meeting of the Man. Ashmun—Died in New Hayen on Tuesday meeting of the Man. Ashmun—Died in New Hayen of the Man. Ashmun—Died the Man. Ashmun—Died the Man. Ashmun—Died the Man. Ashm

Notice is hereby given, Notice is hereby given,
That the subscriber of Anne Arundel county, hath obtained from the orphane court of Anne Arundel county, in Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of Ministration of Anne-Arundel country, deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, at or before the 18th day of March next, they may otherwise by