pretty guirk indeed! Wis I soly at we consent to but him off the is him will make another requally him will make another requally him the best. But we, so he Nock, do like those false statements are the guilders has lay a great area, the guilders his friend in the extraction of the late of the extract in the Md. But like of the late of the extract in the Md. But like of the late of the l Irean of the 18th instant) can make the assertion contained in that extract the assertion contained in that extract the state of the voters of Branch Neck have changed from Jackson Adams, since the meeting at Was found." This triffing dealer in the tin tongue had, I think, better the English dictionary under his Surplane. lance, and try, when next he write, he possibly can, to get a word, wo for words, of more import than to signed to his last piece, however we and furnish him a name, which we the more applicable than this anistelligi

To the Editor of the Mil. Gazett

ward

rman arroll.

strict will be to the illiam

runde

EL.

a note o have epancy n thro' ed, say

vithous le ano

HT for at But-vere a-voter he ad-if any he adin the ith the

To the Editor of the ML Gazel MR GREEN, Sir, We have seen a communicat published in the Md. Republican, wh we suppose to be intended as an anato some remarks made by us in the Czette of Thursday last, relative to extract of a letter, which appeared the Md Republican of Saturday thirteenth inst. This communicates so very trifling, that we point merely by way of consigning it for contempt which it so deservedly mer It appears to have been written be gentleman of Annapolis, in vindest of an assertion made by his friendia. if an assertion made by his friendia of an assection maile by his friendia aforesaid extract, which for the area modation of those who may get he seen the extract we will here insert it is as follows: "Three of my see bours will vote for Adama now, nave been all along for the Tenzes an." which is dated Broad Nack, Se 10th 1825." This we believe to here electionsering trick, and demonstrate and demons mere electioneering trick, and dep nounce it to be as BASE as it is U FOUNDED. We shall notice noth which may hereafter be said, an some responsible name be affixed to Philip Pettibone, Stephen Boone, John W. William Richard Gardiner John A. Merriken September 24.

For the Marvland Gazette. To the Friends of the Temesse F mer in Ame-Arundel County. You have been told that Anne-Are You have been told that Anne-Ardel county will give her vote in favor of the Administration. You have we nessed the boasting on this subjection where seen the misrepresentative respecting the meetings in the county our have seen every art resorted to you have seen every art resorted to, effect the purposes of the Ebony privile ingenuity could suggest. I have seen false militia documents of fin hand bills, and monumental inser-tions, circulated with zeal and inde tions, circulated with zeal and indity. But rest assured the county safe. There is nothing to fear. I fallen crest of your opponents indicates pair. Their desponding looks, hopelessness of their cause. I friends of Jackson—the people the selves, have been roused from their thargy, they are up and a doing. U on is all. A long pull, a strong point and a pull altogether, and the day yours. He active and vigilant Ye motto Jackson, and Reform.

For the Maryland Gazette. A NUBIAN BRAUTY...

A NUBIAN BRAUTY.

Bruce, while travelling through Se patout it mass, the Southern Klagdom of Nabwas taken for a Physician by the was taken for a Physician by the stives, and called by the Max to period for "several of the sable Ladin his harem." After describing the gives the following description of the principal ROYAL BRAUTY:—"Upon large bench, or sols, covered with blunt from the neck to the feet with blunt from the neck to the feet with blunt form the neck to the n he first cotton shirts. One of these, who ed the found was the fuccurite, was about a is in feet high, and corpulent beyond majoring the elephant and rhinecers, the large is at the results. ill not the elephant and rhinoceros, the lar ike it.

The cest living creature I had met win the course of a negro; a ring of guid passed the her under lip, and weighed it down till like a lip, and weighed it down to her shoulder had made black with antireof feet. Her ears recached down to her shoulder his her ears recached down to her shoulder and had the appearance of wings; s Mary she had made biscs with and had the appearance of wings; and had the appearance of wings; and in each of them a large rise of a neashittle finger, and about five inches of a let-ublican like what we used to call exclavage, nication appears rom the decreased rows one below another; which were hung rows of sequins pire of gold larger than any I had eye be upon the feet of fainas; with which could not conceive it possible for he walks; but I afterwards found they were hollow. The others were et. A dressed much in the same manual.

faellers upon earth. On my first risk to the room, my notice was atmeted by a grave dame, whose head meso full of the moon, that she thought the moon full, and comtre, as she could not see more than hilf of her. The Exhibiter, fo getfil for a moment, hastened to examhe he glass, when somebody re-alken yoke of Hymen, and made to uste the sweets of timale companionship. Bachelors! thought I, what sort of things are they? It was the first time I had ever heard that I felt surjour not only. afthem, and I felt curious not only be told what they were, but if essible to see one of them. It was ot long before I was gratified .-Here comes one of the Detestables, now," said one of the speakers, thirty five winters have passed aray, and he still lives for himself sely." I immediately turned towards the door, and observed a man of middle stature, who had just enked, approaching the company. I tughtone view of his face—Peevish-es, discontent and churlishness, were imprinted upon his countenice. That one view was enough rere none such among my people, ropped this into your communication box, and hurried back to the been dashed to atoms by the fall. The astonishing intrepidity of Mr. R. never forscook him for a moment. His phy sical powers would have given way before that could fail him. Sometimes he was holding on the car, sometimes grasping at the flag, which he mistook for the rope, and sometimes arruggling at any thing about him. At last, by one powerful effort, he caught the rope one powerful effort, he caught the rope in his hand. A shout of delight rose from the crowd. The next instant he fell out of the car, and hung by one hand in the air. Several of the female sinded him that the moon was yet a her first quarter, and of course speared only in part. A general high ensued, and even the staid dane, whose mistake had provoked it, pined heartily in it. A beautiful pined heartily in it. A beautiful cuntenance bespoke a guilelessheart, but drew my attention, by inquire. The crowd gathered around but he started on his legs and made his way to the house, assisted by two of the by standers. The grand of the by standers.

at one. Don't you know, my dear, the tevery Lady in the moon is entited to fire husbands." "Bless the interplate wornaut is uninjured, but his believe to fire there." "What a paradise the mon must be," said another. "I wish it was so upon earth," said a third, "that the whole host of Backlers might be brought under the illen yoke of Hymge, and made

Late from Europe.

The packet ship Canada, at New-York from Liverpool, brings London papers to the 15th, and Liverpool to the 16th August, both inclusive, and the packet ship Charlemagne from Harre, brings Paris papers to the 16th of the same month. For the interesting intelligence which follows, we are chiefly indebted to the New York Commercial Advertiser. cial Advertiser.

FROM THE SEAT OF WAR It will be seen by the news from the Theatre of the Russian and Turkish war, that the invading army on the Dan-ube moves steadily on, & that a powerful descent has been successfully made up-on Asiatic Turkey, by the army of the Cancasus, under Gen. Paskewitch.

NEWS FROM THE ARMY OF THE CAUCAGES.

"Gunry, on the Turkh
Frontiers dune 26. 5

"The village of Gunry was appointed as the rendezvous for beginning the military operations against Asiatic Turkey. This village is in Schuragel, on the river Arpatchai. Here the troops were all assembled, all the magazines spain screamed. In another instant, he caught the rope with his other hand, and descended forty feet with the velocity of an arrow. He fell at the fort of the flagstaff on the parapet of the saction on the sector of the saction on the spectators was great. On his way to the whole of the spectators was great. On the saction of the flagstaff in the morning, and requested to have it taken down.

The interest of read and heavy artillery on the flagstaff on the parapet of the saction of the saction. The troops, which had so lately endurated the flagstaff in the morning, and requested to have it taken down.

The interest of read another of the flagstaff in the morning, and requested to have it taken down.

The interest of read another of the flagstaff in the morning, and requested to have it taken down.

The interest of read another of the flagstaff in the morning, and requested to have it taken

Before Kars, July 2 .- The army under General Paskewitsch having passed the frontiers on the 26th of June, advanced directly towards Kars, the ca pital of the Pachalic of the same name through the villages Dignis Palderavau and Meschkow. This whole tract, which is inhabited by Armenians, now presented a portion of entire desolation, as the Turkish Government has removed all the inhabitants to the most remote parts. The enemy was first seen near Meechkow on the 29th. His cavalry in great numbers had come from the fortress a distance of 16 wersts, and attacked our advanced posts, but was repulsed as reinforcements came up. The boldness of this cavalry, in venturing so far from the pital of the Pachalic of the same name posts, but was reputed as reinforcements came up. The boldness of this cavalry, in venturing so far from the fortress, as well as the accounts that werful the upof the and consisted of very good troops. The cavalry amounts to about 500, and the infantry, which appears to include all the inhabitants capable of bearing arms, probably amounts also to 5000 men. Cancasus, under tien. Paskewitch.

The Bulletin of the 21st, prepares us for a Jecisive blow at Choumla. The Courier says "the main armies were so near, the advanced guard of each being within sight almost of Choumla, that a battle can hardly be avoided, unless, which does not appear a probable, the within sight almost of Choumla, that a battle can hardly be avoided, unless, which does not appear probable, the Rassians prosecute their march in a more easterly direction without attacking Choumla, or the Turks retire from their strong position without risking a battle."

The General resolved by a side movement, to turn the fortress and by taking a position on the great road from Erzerum to cut off the communication between Erzerum and Kars, and thus deprive the fortress of the reinforcements which the Seraskier was bringing to Kars at the head of 20,000 men.

TOU THE MAN IN THE 460N.

The Editor of this Marginal Gardine and the Care and desired his period of another the proposed of the power affects of the Marginal Gardine and the Care and desired his period of another corner of the Gardin, and the Care and Ca fortressescaped into the mountains. The garrison amounted to 11,000 men. We had one officer and 33 privates killed; one Captain, 13 officers, and 216 privates wounded. We found in the fortress 151 pieces of cannon, 33 standards, and a considerable quantity of ammunition, arms, magazines of corn. &c. Kars is one of the principal fortresses of Asia. Three ranges of thick walls flushed by towers, which are con a detachment towards Pravadi, in order to drive the enemy from that place, and to make himself master of the com-munications between Choumla and Var-

The Emperor has issued an Order of the Day, strictly enjoining the troops to behave with humanity to the cnemy, because the men were extremely indignant at the Turks, having, according to their custom, cut off the heads of the Russians who were slain.—On the 18th July, the head quarters moved to Turk Armouthar, in a fertile country; and, on the 19th, they moved to the eminences of Jene Bazar, opposite the enemy's out-posts, whose tents were on the heights of Choumla. On the 20th, the army marched towards Choumla; the army marched towards Choumla; the enemy, consisting of eight or ten thousand men, cavalry and artifery, vigorously defended the eminences, but were driven took into the entrenchments before Choumla, and the army immediately bivouacked on the enfinences opposite that place. Our losa is inconsiderable, but the death of Col. Read. the Emperor's Aid-de-Camp, is Read, the Emperor's Aid-de-Camp, is much Agretted. (In the 21st, part of our army occupied, without resistance, the heights near to Choumla.

Treases of Asia. Three ranges of thick walls flanked by towers, which are constructed in the form of bastions, surround the town and part of the suburbs. The whole is protected by a citatel, situated on the summit of a mountain manned Karadrag. One hundred and fifty one pieces of cannon command the plain in every direction. A rocky soil, which rendered the works of the basiegers difficult, added to the obsta clea which he had to conquer.

The news from the Provinces is not more satisfactory. The Pachas are not able to furnish their contingents of levies of men complete, so much do the desertions of great bodies of men complete, so much do the desertions of great bodies of men complete, so much do the desertions of great bodies of men complete, so much do the desertions of great bodies of men complete, so much do the desertions of great bodies of men complete, so much do the desertions of great bodies of men complete, so much do the desertions of great bodies of men complete, so much do the desertions of great bodies of men complete, so much do the desertions of great bodies of men complete, so much do the desertions of great bodies of men complete, so much do the desertions of great bodies of men complete, so much do the desertions of great bodies of men complete, so much do the desertions of great bodies of men complete, so much do the desertions of great bodies of men complete, so much do the desertions of great bodies of men complete, so much do the desertions of great bodies of men complete, so much do the desertions of great bodies of men complete, so much do the desertions of great bodies of men complete, so much do the desertions of great bodies of men complete, so much do the desertions of great deficulty and the desertions of great deficulty explains the subschemes are complete, so much do the desertions of great deficulty explains the subschemes are complete, so much do the desertions of levies of men complete, so much do the desertions of levies of men complete, so much do the desertions of levies of soil, which rendered the works of the besiegers difficult, added to the obsta cles which he had to conquer.

Thirteenth Bulletin of the Russian

I may the conquer of the grand army which defends Shumlar is by nature an inexorable disciplinarian, bordering on a sanguinary character, and at the same time the destroyer of the clanissaries. He same time the destroyer of the clanissaries is therefore, extremely unpopular, as allow his master, with the offended musselmen. To the danger resulting from this, Hussein Pacha is fully sen as ally and repulsed it with considerable loss. On the 17 of July, after a very fatiguing march through bad roads, broken up by the unfavourable weather, the Imperial head quarters arrived at Jasi-

Imperial head quarters arrived at Jasi-unpopularity, by telling us, that offi tepe. cers refuse obedience to his orders. *General Benkendorff was sent with and soldiers are said to mutiny and de sert by companies of two and three hundreds at a time.

Thus Shumla the grand key of the Turkish Empire, which has ever resisted the attacks of Russia, seems now to invite the ambitious enemy by the rebellious seeds which at this important juncture of affairs spread themselves in the Musselman armies.

The letter alluded to in the Times of the 19th adds—These germs are spreading far beyond the camp of Hussein Pacha, the ranifications extend as far as the pachalik of Erzerum, where exiles has collected the relies of the Jannisaries massacred by the councils of Hussein.

of Hussein.
This and the like news is with great industry kept secret as it may be supposed, from the people at Constantinople.

Anne-Arundel county, to wit: Anne-Arundel equatry, to with On application by patition, in writing, of Bamuel Anderson, of Anne Arundel county, to me the subscriber one of the Associate Justices of the Orphans Court of Anne Arundel county, stating that he is in actual confinement for debt, and praying for the benefit of the Act of the General Asamble of Maryland, entitled: An act sembly of Maryland, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debt ors, and the several supplements there to, upon the terms therein prescribed; a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, so far as hear at present acceptain them, being can at present ascertain them, being annexed to his petition; and the said Samuel Anderson having satisfied me by competent testimony that he has resided within the State of Maryland bits, does not appear probable the mon-where I may be seen the first deraight, by every one who will have the trouble to walk to the Assayl Room to look at mo.

ANN GINKY ADAMS & KING
GENGE.

The following ancedder was related by the six of the same and the street been the case.

There seem to have been actions discensions in the councils of the Porte. The information received from Constantinople seems to indicate this, from its contradictory character.

A report has been received at Constantinople of a victory obtained by Hussein Pacha (the Seraktier) over the Russians. This was not believed by the inhabitants in Pera.

The Seraktier has caused Ejoub Pacha to be beheaded, who did not sufficiently defend himself on the 13 mube.

WAR IN THE EAS I.

The O dessa accounts of the 24th Ju-

There will be a Barbacus given by the friends of the Tennisses Parmer; on Thursday the 2d of October next, near Col. Jeonb Waters's Bill, on the head of South River, in the second election district in Anne-Arandel county. The Voters of the county, without political distinction, are hereby invited, and all the Candidates both for Electors and the Lorislature, are also Electors and the Legislature, are also invited to attend. Sept. 25.

Notice is hereby given,
That the subscriber has obtained from the orphens court of Anne Arunadel county, letters of administration on the personal estate of Thomas H.
Hall, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate, are requested to produce them, legally authenticated, and those indebted are requested to make payment. make payment.

John N. Watkins, Admr.

no blanks, In the Three first Schemes of this

Lottlery. MARTLAND STATE LOTTERY,

•	80	HEME.
1 prize	of	810,000	is	810.000
1 prize	of	3,000	is	3.000
4 prizes	of	2,000	is	8,000
4 prizes	of	1,000	is	4,000
5 prizes	of	500	is	2.500
20 prizes	of	100	18	2 000
37 prizes		50	is	1,850
100 prizes		20	is	2,000
202 prizes		10	js.	2,02
105 prizes		6	is.	63
4000 prizes		5	is	20,000
6000 prizes		4	is	21,00
10470			+-	980.00

10479 prizes amounting to $80,0

The Schemes are as follow, the first one of which will be drawn on WEDNESDAF the 22d of October. FIRST SUB SCHEME.

	FIRS	1 2	UB SUN		L).
1	prize	of	82000	is	85000
1	prize	of	1000	is	1000
	prize			is	500
	prizes		100	is	500
	prizes		50		450
	prizes		20		400
	prizes			is	340
	prizes		6	is	210
	prizes		4	is	8000
	•
2106	prizes				813,400
-			C178 CC		NI.

1	2106 prizes				813,400
·	SECO	ND	SUB 8CI	HE!	IE.
١		of	$2000	is	82000
		-	1000	is	1000
	1 prize			is	500
	5 prizes	of	100	is	500
	9 prizes		50	18	450
	20 prizes	of	20	is	400
•	34 prizes	of	10	is	340
2	35 prizes	of	6	is	210
	33 prizes	o.F	ĭ	is	8000
	2000 prizes	٠.
•	2124				813,400
	2106 prizes				D ,

			313,400
2106 prizes
THIRD S	UB SCHI	EMI	2.
1 prize of	82000	is	82000
1 prize of		is	1000
) prize of	500	is	500
1 prize of	100		500
3 prizes of	50		450
9 prizes of	20	is	400
20 prizes of	10	is	340
34 prizes of		is	210
35 prizes of	. 6
2000 prizes of	4	is	8000
			419.400
2106 prizes			$ 13, 4 00
FOURTH	SUB-SC	LEN	IE.
t mine of		fe :	000.018

6000 2000 1000 1000 500 500 500 1000 1 prize 1 prize l prize of 2 prizes of 500 is 100 is 50 is 20 is 5 prizes of 10 prizes of 40 prizes of 20,000

839,800 4161 prizes

Notice.

The Commissioners of the Tax for Anne-Arundel county, will meet at the Court House in the city of Annapolis, on Wednesday the 22d day of October next, for the purpose of hearing ap-peals and making transfers, &c.

By order, R. J. Cowman, Ch. Sept 26.

Maryof Sept.
onlished