To the Editor of the American Daily Advertiser.

Sir—Enclosed you have a letter, a deposition, and certificate entitled to the highest consideration. If such detail as is here swein to by the unhappy sufferer herself and certified to be true, as of their own knowledge, by two most respectable Physicians and by the Magistrate, before whom the deposition was made, then do I aver that those who resist such evi dence would not believe even though dence would not believe even though the miraculous cure should be performed under their own eyes. This case has made a deep and lasting imprestion on the neighbourhood where Mrs
