ANNAPONIS: Thursday, March 26, 1829.

HYMENEAL Married on Thursday evening but, by the ster Jonathan Munroe, Mrs. Excited Analogy of the city of Battimore, to Miss Bebecen Ann Munroe of this city.

To the Voters of Anne-Arundet County

I offer myself to your considerall on, to represent you in the next General Assembly of Maryland.

JOHN S. SELLMAN.

For the Maryland Gazette. BE Some great men—as I'm a sinner,
Have given Henry Clay a dinner,
Cook'd by one Bernard, sir;
Their wine was good, their wit was keen,
For they had disappointed been,
Which was very hard, sir,

They had a General at their head, Did those pawiots feel no dread?

They each might be a tool, sir;
When two Colonels gave support, As Vice's in this brilliant court,

'Twas military rule, sir. The wine went round, the toast was girty.
With loud acclaims the room was rirty.
Each thought himself a host;
As soon as silence was obtain'd,

As soon as silence was obtain'd,
The orator attention gain'd,
And then his mile his boast.
Now, Mr. Pres term ou see,
Custom require there should be,
Some mock embarrassmenf,
I feel it all, it gives a grace, So be you all content.

jury pack'd you are, I see, A jury pack d you are, I see,
Our rerdict then I'm sure will be,
All in my own favour,
Each witness has intelligence,
To praise you all is no offence,
It has a pleasant sayour.

low what I say you know is meant, About the country to be sent,
Sent to gull the people;
But much I fear it may tell,
As if it were my funeral knell,
Sounded from a steeple.

Could I my temper but command, well might hold a higher stand, And vent no abuse, sir; But I am a patriot bold, 've lost my place, and I must scold. Tho' it is no use sir.

I deprecate this election,
For it has benefit a specific,
No office we hold, sir;
I'll make a fuss 'bour the bargain,
And gloss it over with nice jargon,
The story's now grown old sir.

l'll send it out in printer's ink,
That half a million with me think,
All for their country's good, sir,
All of them are wise and true,
And patriots, sir, fike me
Who for ourselves

And patrious, 10

I will not delgn to think the laugh, 1s by a million and a half,
Rais'd against your Clay, sir,
They are a set whose greatest sin,
Was their not keeping Adams in,
And driving me away, sir.

But all of them I now defy,
I'll not retract or modify,

Or alter an expression;
But will like foreboding raven,
Fright them all, from their safe haven,
By a well tim'd lesson. And I'll so nicely cloak my spices,

That all the patriot shall be seen,
When I'm all for self, sir; For I will never be at rest, Then we'll have the pelf, sit.

I'll tell them all America,
Oh! awful time, Oh! awful day,
Is ruled by truncheon band, sir.
15

My countrymen, they are not wise.
They will not see with my good eyes,
They are now in dang, r,
They're dismiss'd the patriot band,
Who wish'd to rule this happy land, And feed a public manger.

It griev'd my heart when I did hear, The cannon roar, and then the cheer, While Jackson took his station; I could curse him, I could curse fate, And all who did him elevate, O'er this happy nation.

Yet I am a patriot bold,

Myself in readmess I hold,

If time everserve sir,

If I don't rule them yet—you see,

The fault will never be in me,

For I'll never swerre sir.

Injustice has been done to me.
The men turn'd dut who join'd yed see,
To pur Adams in, sir,
I'm sure I did it for the best,
To join the East unto the west,
Self was all the sin, sir.

And now, before I do sit down,
My thanks I give to all this town,
And all the people round, sir;
For 'tis my purpose, when I rise,
To shrow the dust into their eyes,
With words of empty sound in.

I cheerfully add my testimony in favour of Mr Swaim's Panacea, as a remedy in Scrofult. I saw two invo terate cases perfectly cured by it, after the usual remedies had been long tried without effect-those of Mrs Offner and Mrs. Campbell.

SWAIM'S PANACEA. To the Editor of the American Daily Advertiser.

Sir—Enclosed you have a letter, a deposition, and cartificate entitled to the highest consideration. If such detail as is here sween to by the unhappy sufferer herself, and certified to be true as of their own knowledge, by two most respectable Physicians and by the Magistrate, before whom the deposition was made, then do l aver that those who resist such evi-dence would not believe even though dence would not believe even though the miraculous cure should be perform-ed under their/own eyes. This case, has made a deep and lasting impres-sion on the neighbourhood where hira Applegate lives; and I do not at all doubt but it will leave an impression little less dérable wherever it shall be read. I sake and am asked by others, with ment wenderful course anotained consequently be known to be genuine when my signature is visible; to counterfeit which, will be punishable as forgery.

The increasing demand for this case. The increasing demand for this case which was extremely painful, the unasiness and swelling of it caused here so much a swelling of it caused here so much a swelling of it caused here so much a swelling of it caused here. The increasing demand for this ce lebrated medicine has enabled me to reduce the price to two dollars per bot tile, thus bringing it within the reach of the indigent.

My panacea requires no encomium; its astonishing effects and wonderful corration, have drawn, both from Pa Medical skill was entirely unavailing to check the progress of the disease. tients and Medical Practitioners of the highest respectability, the most unqualified approbation, and established for it a character, which envy's pen, the displaced to be separated from the homes. cers, completely prostrated the pa tient's strength, her appetite was gone; and nature nearly exhausted.

In this state of misery Mrs Apple gate passed under the hands of several skilful Physicians, without experiencing benefit for a period of seven years The Proprietor pledges imment to the public, and gives them the most solemn assurances, that this medicine contains neither mercury, nor any of the deleterious drug.

The million recautioned not to pur self, my accredited agents, or persons of known respectability, and all those will consequently be without disease, when as she was riding the horses ran away, overturned the car riage, threw her out, and caused compound fracture of the hip. Under this accumulation of misery and suf this accumulation or milery and sui-fering she lingured two years. Her bones and integuments were laid bare. large pieces of the remaining flesh she had were coostantly sloughing out, and her situation was wretched and pitiable beyond comparison, cheered by no ray of hope, doomed to wear a way a miserable existence, and hourly way a miserable existence, and hourly wishing for death. She was told by some of her friends that Swaim's Panacea would, if any thing could, relieve her Mrs Applegate consented to remove, and did remove to Philadelphia; this removal was with difficulty accomplished, and she remained, as you may recollect, under your care for about two weeks Being at the end of that time convalescent, she returned to the state of the s that time convalescent, she returned > during the seven years of her suffer ings. She was soon, to general admiration, restored to perfect health Thus, Sir, by the use of your Pana cea, which is acknowledged to be one of the richest gifts bestowed on suffer ing humanity—this unfortunate wo man was restored to health and use fulness. Three years have elapsed since Mrs A was cured, since that time she has become the happy me ther of a daughter, and a finer or healthier infant I never beheld. This fact, while it is a convincing proof of the efficacy of your medicine in removing affections that originate from impurity of the blood, is equally convincing that it regenerates and invigorates all the vital principles and functions of humanity

This case should be published-_it is your interest to publish it & it is for the benefit of the whole human family, that such astonishing and well authenticated facts be made known although, perhaps, to those who are already acquainted with the virtues of Swalin's Panacea, it may not be necessary, yet believe me there are yet numbers entirely ig-norant of its many virtues, and powernorant of its many virtues, and power-ful restorative properties, who are la bouring under all the horrors of dis-ease, that for their benefit alone such cases should be made as public as pos-
