Cold Water, or Realth & Beauty.

A Vermont Lady, the papers say, lately cured herself completely of a very uncomfortable liability to take cold, by buthing her face, neck, and arms, early every morning with pure cold water, profusely applied. Besides guarding her health, the application, it is averred, greatly feightened her beauty, and we understand it is getting to be very generally believed in the coun and approve of the trustee's bond, and the securifies thereto, in the same manner as if the same were presented for that purpose in term time.

The Captain and the Ambassador. An anecdote is told of a Captain in the service, since dead, that whilst car rying out a British Ambassador to his station abroad, a quarrel arose on the subject of precedency. High words were exchanged between them on the quarter deck, when at length, the Ambassador, thinking to silence the Captain, exclaimed, 'Recollect, Sir, I am the representative of his Majesty!''Then, Sir,' retorted the Captain, 'recollect, that here I am more than ma-jesty itself.
