

Maryland Gazette

ANNAPOLIS:
Thursday, April 23, 1829.

The Journal of Proceedings of the House of Delegates
December Session, 1828,
is completed, and ready for distribution.

To the Voters of Anne-Arundel County.
I offer myself as a Candidate to represent you in the next General Assembly.
ABNER LINTHICUM Sen.

COMMUNICATED.
Annapolis, April 22, 1829.

Mr. Jeremiah Hooper, my thanks on behalf of the prisoners, brought from Baltimore yesterday, for his kindness in furnishing them, (at my solicitation,) with bedding, for the want of which they must have suffered much, having been accustomed to lie in their rooms, which I find is not allowed in this jail.
Win. Brown, Warden
of Balt. County Jail.

For the Maryland Gazette.

Good evening to you, Mister Clev,
Your friends they treat you kindly,
But we, the people, needs must say,
That you are acting blindly.
Much better for you, would it be,
If you would go in quietude,
Or just join in with social glee,
And not keep such a riot,
As you go West.

Assume the man, cease thus ranting,
That you are persecuted,
We are all tired of such canting,
Our votes have it refuted.
We surely had a right to choose,
The man who would should rule us;
Indeed, dear sir, you think fair,
Nur this attempt, to fool us,
As you go West.

Dining parties, will give pleasure,
If you will rightly, use them;
We are all tired of such canting,
Our votes have it refuted.
We surely had a right to choose,
The man who would should rule us;
Indeed, dear sir, you think fair,
Nur this attempt, to fool us,
As you go West.

Then pray keep quiet, if you can,
And cease, this useless rattle;
We do not choose to be their tool,
If they please us, we will them try,
By giving them a station;
And when we please, to lay them by,
We claim it, for the nation,
As now go West.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.
IMPORTANT.
The William Byrnes, which sailed from Liverpool 8th March, is below; and although our papers are not yet up, we have had the good fortune to come into possession of the London Courier of the 6th, which contains the outlines of the PLAN FOR CATHOLIC EMANCIPATION.
It was introduced into the House of Commons on the 6th by the Right Hon. Secretary Peel, one of his Majesty's Ministers, who accompanied it with a brilliant speech, which occupies more than thirty columns in the London Courier. The following are the outlines of the plan:
1. Its basis is the removal of the Roman Catholics of civil disabilities, and the equalization of political rights.
2. Roman Catholics are to be admitted into both houses of Parliament.
3. There are to be restrictions as to numbers.
4. Catholics becoming members of either house are to take an oath to support and defend the succession of the Crown, abjuring the sentiment that Princes excommunicated by the Pope may be deposed and murdered by their subjects, denying the right of the Pope to any jurisdiction of the British king, tithes, tithing, disowing, and solemnly abjuring any intention to subvert the present Church establishment as settled by law.

4. They may hold all corporate offices as the original or first arrest, and the officer making such second arrest, shall have the same power and right to detain or hold to bail the person arrested, as he had, or could have had, in virtue of the first service of such writs or attachment, any thing in any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.
Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That if such sheriff or officer shall produce the body of such person, so arrested, on the return day of such attachment or capias, or during the term of the court to which the writ is or may be returnable, then and in such case the said sheriff, or other officer, shall not be liable for any intermediate escape, and such sheriff or other officer, shall in such cases, be taken and adjudged to have complied with the said attachment or capias, any law to the contrary notwithstanding; and if such sheriff or other officer, shall be sued for an escape in any such cases, such sheriff, or other officer, may give this act in evidence under the general issue.

A Further Supplement to the act, entitled, An Act for the relief of sundry Insolvent Debtors, passed at November session eighteen hundred and five.
Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any insolvent debtor, who has obtained, or may obtain, a personal or final discharge under the original act, and supplements thereto, to which this is a further supplement, shall be entitled to be discharged from custody upon any attachment, or other process, which has been or may be issued against such debtor, to enforce the execution of any order for the payment of money, which may be passed by the court of chancery, any county court sitting as a court of equity, or orphans court, against such debtor, for any debt or claim contracted, or liability incurred, for such money, before the said discharge of such debtor; and it shall be the duty of the Chancellor, of the county court, or orphans court, out of which such process may issue, or any judge thereof in the recess of the said court, upon motion, to discharge said debtor from custody as aforesaid; Provided, That before any such debtor shall be entitled to his discharge as aforesaid, he shall produce to the Chancellor, county court, or judge thereof, or orphans court, as the case may be, a copy of said discharge, certified by the clerk of the court in which the said discharge may be lodged or recorded, and under the seal thereof; And provided also, that this act shall not extend to any attachment or process which may issue to compel the payment of any fine, amercement or penalty, which may be imposed by said Chancellor, county court, or orphans court.

An Act for accelerating and effectuating proceedings upon Writs of Mandamus, and for facilitating and determining the rights of Offices and Franchises in Corporations.
WHEREAS divers charters have been granted by the authority of this legislature, and divers persons have taken upon themselves, to execute offices under the same; and where such offices are annual, it hath been, or may be, found impracticable, by the laws now in force, to bring to trial and determine the right of such persons to such offices, or any matter or thing touching the conduct or agency of such persons, within the year; and where such offices are not annual, it hath been, or may be, difficult to try and determine the right of such persons to such offices before they have done divers acts injurious to the interests of individuals, and prejudicial to the state: And whereas divers persons, who had, or may have, a right to such offices, have been, or may be, illegally ousted, or have been or may be refused to be admitted thereto: And whereas the only remedy in such cases may be by writ or writs of mandamus, the proceedings on which are dilatory and expensive; therefore,
Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of May next, where any writ of mandamus shall issue out of any of the courts of this state, such person or persons, who by law is or are required to make return to such writ, shall make his or their return to the first writ of mandamus, any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.
Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That from and after the first day of May next, as often as in any of the cases aforesaid, or in any case of intrusion, or usurpation, or of any breach or violation of any of the terms, conditions, privileges or franchises, or of any lawfully holding of any of the said offices, of or in, or under, any charter,

A meeting took place this (6th March) day at the Thatched House, Jamy street, of those Irish gentlemen now in town, when was proposed by Mr. O'Connell, and seconded by Lord Killevy, that a message be sent immediately to Sir Francis Burchett, requesting that gentleman and his friends to oppose by every effort in their power, the extension of the elective franchise in Ireland from 40s to £100.
Mr. Lawless gave notice that he would tomorrow make a petition be presented to the House of Commons against the raising of the franchise, as proposed by Mr. Peel.

LAW OF MARYLAND
Passed at December Session, 1828.
A Supplement to an act, entitled, An Act for the amendment of the Law, passed at December Session eighteen hundred and eleven, chapter one hundred and sixty-one.
Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for any sheriff, or other officer, who shall have lawfully arrested any person in virtue of any attachment, or capias, and permitted such person to go at large after such arrest, at any time before or on the return day of such attachment or capias, or during the term of the court to which the same is or shall be returnable, again to arrest such person in virtue of the same attachment or capias, for the purpose of producing such person before the court, judge or justice, before whom such capias or attachment shall be returnable; and such second arrest shall be as available and justifiable in law as the original or first arrest, and the officer making such second arrest, shall have the same power and right to detain or hold to bail the person arrested, as he had, or could have had, in virtue of the first service of such writs or attachment, any thing in any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That if such sheriff or officer shall produce the body of such person, so arrested, on the return day of such attachment or capias, or during the term of the court to which the writ is or may be returnable, then and in such case the said sheriff, or other officer, shall not be liable for any intermediate escape, and such sheriff or other officer, shall in such cases, be taken and adjudged to have complied with the said attachment or capias, any law to the contrary notwithstanding; and if such sheriff or other officer, shall be sued for an escape in any such cases, such sheriff, or other officer, may give this act in evidence under the general issue.

for incorporation, granted by this state, any writ of mandamus shall issue out of any of the said courts, and a return shall be made thereunto, it shall and may be lawful to and for the person or persons, suing or prosecuting such writ of mandamus, to plead to and traverse all or any of the material facts contained in the said return; to which the person or persons making such return shall reply, take issue, or demur; and such further proceedings, and in such manner, shall be had therein, for the determination thereof, as might have been had if the person or persons suing such writ, had brought his, her or their action on the case, for a false return; and if any issue shall be joined on such proceedings, the person or persons suing such writ, shall and may try the same in such place as an issue joined in such action on the case, should or might have been tried; and in case a verdict shall be found for the person or persons suing such writ, or a judgment be given for him, her or them, upon a demurrer, or by nil dicit, or for want of a replication, or other pleading, he, she or they, shall recover his, her or their damages and costs, in such manner as he, she or they, might have done in such action on the case as aforesaid; such costs and damages to be levied by copias ad satisfaciendum, fieri facias, or attachment; and a preceptory writ of mandamus shall be granted thereupon, without delay, for him, her or them, for whom judgment shall be given, as might have been if such return had been adjudged insufficient; and in case such judgment shall be given for the person or persons making such return to such writ, he, she or they, shall recover his, her or their costs of such suit, to be levied in manner aforesaid.

EDITORIAL NOTICES.
The Ladies Literary Port Folio bids fair to stand at the head of publications of its class. The acknowledged talents of its principal editor, (who has for a number of years been engaged in similar works,) and of his able literary coadjutors, will certainly give it a character which few others possess. — Wellsburg (Va.) Gazette.
The Ladies Department is conducted by one of the most distinguished female writers of our country; — Rockingham (Va.) Register.
It is more elevated and chaste in its character than the generality of similar publications, &c. — Utica, (N. Y.) Intelligencer.
The editors have the assistance of several eminent writers, and they present a work well worthy of patronage, &c. — N. Y. Daily Morn. Chron.
In point of literary merit & mechanical execution, it surpasses every similar publication we have yet seen, &c. — Watertown (N. Y.) Register.
"Indeed it is altogether a superior work." — New York Mirror and Ladies Literary Gazette.
Several of the daily gazettes in this city, in New York, &c. with editors of many of the most respectable Journals in the United States have concurred in those opinions, which are respectfully submitted to such as have not had an opportunity of examining the work for themselves.
New subscribers are furnished with the miniature portraits of Shakespeare, Byron, Scott, Campbell and Moore engraved expressly for this work. Portraits of American authors, in a similar style, will also enrich this volume.
