assessment or rate of each county, and how the same has been disposed of by the levy court, and so much of the act of November session, seven hundred and ninety-three, chapter forty-three, section twenty-three, as requires the said clerks to make out and transmit to the clerk of the session, and to the clerk of the house of delegates, each, a fair copy of the levy lists allowed by the justices of their respective levy courts, and of the several charges and sums levied and assessed on their respective counties, he and the same are hereby repealed.

A Supplement to an act, entitled, An act to regulate the issuing of Licenses to Traders, Keepers of Ordinaries, and others, passed at December Session, eighteen hundred and twenty-seven, chapter one hundred and twenty-seven.
Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said original act shall not be deemed to apply to persons who do not buy or sell with a view to profit in the regular prosecution of some trade or business.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the clerks of the several county courts, and of the city court of Baltimore, upon application of the persons interested, and at such time, and in such manner as they shall find most convenient, be and they are hereby authorized and directed, to repay (out of any money belonging to the State in their hands) to those whom, at any time since the first day of May last, they have licensed in virtue of the said act, a ratable allowance for the interval between the said day, and that on which such license was granted; and in licensing hereafter, shall make a like deduction for the interval between the first day of the preceding May, and the time of granting each license: Provided always, that any person who may have obtained a license under said act, since the first day of May last, shall have the option of using, exercising or following, his trade or pursuit or calling under the same, until the expiration of one year after the actual issuing of the same, in lieu of the deduction or ratable allowance accorded to him by this section.

LAWS OF MARYLAND

Passed at December Session, 1828.

An Additional Supplement to the act concerning Crimes and Punishments, passed at December Session, eighteen hundred and eighteen, chapter seventy-two.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the directors of the Maryland Penitentiary shall have authority, and they are hereby authorized, to grade the salaries of the officers of the penitentiary according to the value of their respective services to that institution, in the opinion of the said directors; Provided, that the aggregate amount thereof shall not exceed the sum paid for the services of the officers of the penitentiary for the year eighteen hundred and twenty-four.

An Act relating to County Clerks.

WHEREAS by a resolution passed at December Session, eighteen hundred and twenty-seven, No. seventy-seven, or commission of counties, or commissioners of counties, were required, under the penalty of one hundred dollars, on or before the first day of January in each and every year thereafter, to prepare and transmit to the treasurer of the western shore, a detailed statement of the aggregate of valuation, rate of tax per hundred dollars, amount of levy, and each general charge of expenditure in the several counties of this state, according to the form which appears in the journal of the house of delegates of the said session, fronting page three hundred and twenty-two: And whereas the said treasurer, by the said resolution, was required to report to the legislature, in the second week of every session, a general view of the said statement; therefore,

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the act of November session, seven hundred and ninety-three, chapter thirty-three, section two, as requires the clerk of each county, to present to the governor and council a list and accurate account of the Sec. 2. The right of a person to retail a second article is hereby conditionally also, any act to the contrary notwithstanding.

A Supplement to an act, entitled, An act to regulate the issuing of Licenses to Traders, Keepers of Ordinaries, and others, passed at December Session, eighteen hundred and twenty-seven, chapter one hundred and twenty-seven.
Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said original act shall not be deemed to apply to persons who do not buy or sell with a view to profit in the regular prosecution of some trade or business.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the clerks of the several county courts, and of the city court of Baltimore, upon application of the persons interested, and at such time, and in such manner as they shall find most convenient, be and they are hereby authorized and directed, to repay (out of any money belonging to the State in their hands) to those whom, at any time since the first day of May last, they have licensed in virtue of the said act, a ratable allowance for the interval between the said day, and that on which such license was granted; and in licensing hereafter, shall make a like deduction for the interval between the first day of the preceding May, and the time of granting each license: Provided always, that any person who may have obtained a license under said act, since the first day of May last, shall have the option of using, exercising or following, his trade or pursuit or calling under the same, until the expiration of one year after the actual issuing of the same, in lieu of the deduction or ratable allowance accorded to him by this section.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That any person or persons who shall commence at any time in the course of the year, shall be entitled to, and they are hereby authorized, to obtain a license from the clerk of the county or city court, as the case may be, on paying therefor a ratable allowance, and every such license shall be limited to, and expire on the first day of May next thereafter.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the directors of the Maryland Penitentiary shall have authority, and they are hereby authorized, to grade the salaries of the officers of the penitentiary according to the value of their respective services to that institution, in the opinion of the said directors; Provided, that the aggregate amount thereof shall not exceed the sum paid for the services of the officers of the penitentiary for the year eighteen hundred and twenty-four.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That in case of the death of any person or persons who may have taken out a license under the original act to which this is a supplement, it shall be lawful for the widow, executor or administrator, to sell under the said license for the residue of the year for which the same shall have been granted; any thing in the said act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to require persons to take out licenses, who sell only cakes, bread, beer or cider, apples, water-melons, cheasus and other domestic fruits, or any or all of said articles.

To be drawn in the City of Baltimore on Friday the 1st day of May, 1829.

NOTICE

Whereas members of the House of Representatives, have been called in the various districts of the county of which the second congressional district is composed, and the city of Annapolis, for the purpose of nominating an opposition candidate; and whereas it is believed that this invidious course is only resorted to for the single purpose of forcing upon the people some detestable party, to oppose the administration of Jackson, right or wrong; and whereas it is the duty of all freemen, who possess inalienable rights, to be upon the alert, and to act independently of all personal or local considerations to thwart schemes which are so shallow to those who administer them, and so dangerous to the people, as to pass unnoticed—it is therefore respectfully proposed, to all the friends of the present administration, an meeting in the city of Annapolis, on Friday the 1st day of May, 1829, at 10 o'clock, to consult upon measures best adapted to give to the present administration a fair, open and liberal support.

From the New England Farmer.

HINTS TO YOUNG FARMERS.

Consider your calling the most eligible, and for most important, but never be so bold as to be afraid of the work and the sweat. Put off no business which ought and can be done to day, until to-morrow. As soon as the spring opens and the frost is out of the ground, put your feet in order. Plant no more ground than you can well manure and cultivate to advantage. Never hire a man to do a piece of work, which you can do yourself. Every day has its appropriate duties, attend to them in succession. Keep no more stock, than you can keep in good order, and that of the best kind. Never run into debt, without a reasonable probability of solving it at the time agreed. Remember that economy and industry are the two great pillars, the Jachin and the Boaz, of the farmer's prosperity.

Should you take the New England Farmer, or any other periodical Journal, pay for it in advance. Never carry your notes in your pocket book, as the desk or trunk is a more appropriate place. Keep them in an and in order, ready to be found when wanted. Never buy any thing at auction, because the article is going cheap, unless you have use for it. Never ask him to keep a place for your tools, and your tools in their places. Instead of spending a rainy day at the dram shop, as many do to their ruin, repair whatever wants mending, post your books.

Should you be fond of the chase, or the sport with the hook, indulge occasionally, but never to the injury of more important concerns. By driving your business before you, and not permitting your business to drive you, you will have opportunities to indulge in innocent diversions.

Never trust your money in the hands of that man who will put his own to hazard. When interest or a debt become due, pay it at the time, whether your creditor wants it or not. Never ask him to wait, it will not work, but pay it. Never insult him by saying, you do not want it. Punctuality is a key to every man's chest.

By constant temperance, habitus moderate exercise, and unaffected honesty, you will avoid the fees of this lawyer and the sheriff, gain a good report, and probably add to your present existence, at least ten years of active life.

When a friend calls to see you, treat him with the utmost complaisance, but if important business calls your attention, politely excuse yourself, and he will excuse you.

Should you think of building a house be not in a hurry, but first have every material on the spot, and let your cellar be as large as the frame. Keep a memorandum book, enter all notes whether received or given, all moneys received or paid out, all expenses, and all circumstances of importance.

In December reckon and settle with all those with whom you have accounts, pay your shop bills and your mechanics, if not promptly done at the time, which is best of all.

On the first of every January reckon with yourself, and reckon honestly, bring into view all debts and credits, notes and accounts, ascertain to what amount your expenses were the last year, and the loss or gain; make out a fair statement and enter the whole in a book for the purpose. Having arrived at this important knowledge, you will imitate the prudent traveller, who always keeps in view where he is next to move. You will never look forward, and calculate home, and in what way you shall best meet and prosecute the business of the ensuing seasons.

And lastly, when the frosts of winter, shall lay an embargo on your operations, and the chilling blasts of Boreas shall storm your castle, let your fire-side be a Paradise, and let the long evenings be consumed in a social glass, or in the pursuits of useful knowledge. An Old Farmer.

MANFIELD, Jan. 7, 1829.

ANECDOTE.

Viscount S. once met M. de V. and said to him, "Is it true, Sir, that in a house where I am thought to be witty, you said that I had no wit at all?" M. de V. answered, "My lord, there is not a word of truth in the matter. I never was in a house where you were thought to be witty, and I never had occasion to tell any body that you had no wit at all."

Railway from Boston to Albany.

A Western paper, speaking of the Railway project, says: this is a Boston notion, and not altogether a bad one, nor a small one, as it will open the whole West.

Where wilds immeasurably spread,

Seem lengthening as the citizens of the Zephyrus Emporium, and enable the Rocky Mountains to nod an acquaintance with the White Hills of New Hampshire.
