JOURNAL OF HEALTH

CONDUCTED BY AN ASSOCIATION OF PHYSICIANS. The primary object of the Journal is to point out the means of preserving health and preventing disease. To attain this end, all cases and health cases shall be addressed, in a style familiar and friendly, and with an avoidance of such professional terms and illustrations as would in any way embarrass the mind of the reader. The objects of the Journal are, to draw the attention of the public to such subjects as are of general interest, and to present them in a clear and concise manner, so arranged and applied as to conduce most efficaciously to their bodily comfort and mental tranquillity. To whatever profession or calling they may be engaged, the readers of this Journal will find precepts susceptible of valuable application. In its food, exercise, the reciprocal operation of mind and body, climate and localities, clothing and the physical education of children, are topics of permanent and prevailing interest, with the discussion and elucidation of which the pages of the work will be mainly filled.

Recommendation of the work. We approve of the plan on which the publication, entitled the Journal of Health is conducted, and believe that it is calculated to be useful, by enlightening public opinion on a subject of high importance to the welfare of society. The numbers which have appeared, evince talent, and may be viewed as a pledge of the continued usefulness of the publication while conducted by its present editors. We, therefore, feel no hesitation in recommending it to public patronage.

Anne Arundel County, to wit.

ON application to the Judges of Anne Arundel county court, D. petition in writing, of Jacob Hyland, praying for the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1825, and the several supplements thereto, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them being annexed to his petition; and the said Jacob Hyland having testified the court, by competent testimony, that he has resided in the State of Maryland two years next preceding his application, and that he is in actual confinement for debt only; and the court, having appointed Joseph H. Calder trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Jacob Hyland, and the said trustee having given bond with security approved of by this court, for the faithful discharge of his trust, and the said Jacob Hyland having executed to the said trustee, a good and sufficient deed of conveyance for all his estate real, personal and mixed, (the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of himself, and his family excepted,) for the benefit of his creditors, and the said trustee has verified to the court in writing that he is in possession of all the estate of said Jacob Hyland, mentioned in his schedule. It is therefore ordered and adjudged by the court that the said Jacob Hyland be discharged from his confinement, and that he, by causing a copy of this order, to be inserted in one of the newspapers printed in the city of Annapolis, once a week for three successive months, before the third Monday of April next, give notice to his creditors to appear before Anne Arundel county court, on the third Monday of April next to show cause if any they have, why the said Jacob Hyland should not have the benefit of the said act and supplements thereto, as aforesaid.

Witness my hand and seal, this 12th day of October, 1829. William S. Green.
