IN CHANCERY,

15th December, 1829.
George Douglass vs. John Peter Bonard, Jobstain a decree for a bill of sale in the cause is to be made in favour of the defendant in the complaint. The bill states, that on the 10th day of September, in the year 1821, the complainant contracted with the defendant for the sale, for the sum of twelve hundred dollars, of all that piece of ground situate in the city of Baltimore, which was conveyed to said Bonard by Foster Maynard and Thomas Mortimer, administrators of Thomas Mortimer deceased, by deed dated the 27th of March, in the year 1806, and recorded among the land records of Baltimore county, being part of the lot distinguished on the plat of Howard's late addition to Baltimore town, by the number seven hundred and forty seven, and including excepting out of said ground that part thereof sold and assigned by Thomas Mortimer to Owen M'Manus, subject to the payment of the yearly rent of seven pounds current money. That complainant paid said Bonard on entering into said contract, of said purchase money, the sum of three hundred dollars, and for the balance of said purchase money executed to said Bonard three promissory notes; that thereupon the said Bonard executed to complainant a bill of conveyance for the piece of ground before mentioned; that an said bill of conveyance of said piece of ground, and has ever since possessed and enjoyed the same. That complainant has long since fully paid and satisfied said promissory notes, and the whole of the claim for said purchase money, but has received no conveyance of said piece of ground. The bill also states, that the said defendant, John Peter Bonard, resides out of the state of Maryland. It is therefore adjudged and ordered, that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted once in each of three successive weeks, in some newspaper, before the 15th day of January next, give notice to the absent defendant of the substance and object of the bill, that he may be warned to appear in this Court in person, or by a solicitor, on or before the 15th day of May next, to show cause if any he hath, why a decree should not pass as prayed.

JOURNAL OF HEALTH.

CONDUCTED BY AN ASSOCIATION OF PHYSICIANS.
"Health is the poor man's riches, the rich man's blessing."
The primary object of the conductors of the Journal of Health, is to point out the means of preserving health and preventing disease. To attain these ends, the Journal will be addressed, in a style all changes and both sexes shall be addressed, in a style familiar and friendly, and with an avoidance of such professional terms and allusions as would in any way obscure the subject or alarm the most fastidious. The fruits of much reading, study, and careful observation, shall be placed before them, so arranged and applied as to combine most beneficially to their bodily comfort and mental tranquility. To whatever profession or calling they may belong, the readers of this Journal will find precepts susceptible of valuable application to their own minds and bodies, and to the physical education of children, are topics of permanent and pervading interest, with the discussion and elucidation of which the pages of the work will be mainly filled.

Recommendation of the work.

We approve of the plan on which the publication, entitled the "Journal of Health" is conducted, and believe, that it is calculated to be useful, by enlightening public opinion on a subject of high importance to the welfare of society. The numbers which have appeared to date, evince talent and may be viewed as a pledge of the continued usefulness of the publication while conducted by its present editors. We, therefore, feel no hesitation in recommending it to public patronage.

CONGRESS.

Monday January 4, 1830, SENATE.

Mr. Clayton submitted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Treasury be directed to communicate to the Senate, what measures have been taken to procure a site for, and building a Light House near the mouth of Duck Creek, adjoining the Delaware Bay, as authorized by an act of Congress approved, May 23d, 1828; also, whether the amount appropriated is sufficient to effect the object, and for what reason the building has been delayed.

Mr. Smith, of Md. presented the petition of David Keiser stating that he had entered at the patent office a specification of his discovery for rendering leather impervious to water; that the discovery had been made public and he had thus been deprived of the benefits which he expected: he therefore prayed Congress to take his case into consideration, and grant him such relief as might be deemed just and necessary: referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. Smith, from the Committee on Finance, submitted a resolution authorising the Secretary of the Senate to employ two additional clerks, the aggregate of whose salaries is not to exceed $1500 per annum.

The President communicated a report of the Secretary of the Navy, prepared in compliance with a resolution of the Senate of the 15th Dec. 1815, transmitting a copy of the Register of the Navy for the year 1830.

Tuesday, January 5, 1830.

The following Message was received from the President of the United States: To the Senate of the United States:

I submit, herewith, a report from the Secretary of the Treasury, giving the information called for by a resolution of the Senate of the 24th December, 1828.

ANDREW JACKSON.

The following Message was also received from the President of the United States; and an motion of Mr. Hayne, was ordered to be referred to the committee on Military affairs, and together with the accompanying documents to be printed.

I have been requested by the Legislature of South Carolina, as will appear from the documents accompanying this communication, to submit to the consideration of Congress certain claims against the United States for advances made by that State during the late war. It is conceded that the redress sought for can only be obtained through the interposition of Congress. The only agency allowed to me is to present such facts in relation to the subject as are in the possession of the Executive, in order that the whole may be fairly considered.

This duty I perform with great pleasure, being well satisfied that no inducement will be wanting to secure to the claims of a member of the confederacy, that has, under all circumstances, shewn an ardent devotion to the cause of the country, the most ample justice.

By a reference to the Department of War, for information as to the nature and extent of these claims, it appears that they consist of—

1st. Interest upon Moneys advanced for the United States, which have been heretofore reimbursed;

2dly, Certain advances which, on settlement of accounts between South Carolina and the United States, were disallowed, or suspended, by the accounting officers of the Treasury.

In regard to the former, the rule hitherto adopted by congress, has been to allow to the States interest only where they had paid it on moneys borrowed, and had applied it to the use of the United States
