Anne Arundel County Court, October Term, 1829.

ON application to Anne Arundel county court, by petition in writing, of Thomas T. McPherson, praying for the benefit of the act, for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session, 1828, and the several supplements thereto, as the date of his property, and a list of his creditors on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his said petition, and the said Thomas T. McPherson, having satisfied the said court, by competent testimony, that he has resided in the State of Maryland, two years next, preceding the time of his application, and that he is in actual confinement for debt only, and the said petitioner having taken the oath prescribed by law, and entered into bond with security, for his appearance in Anne Arundel county court, on the third Monday of April next, to answer such allegations as his creditors may propose to him, and having also executed to a trustee, by the said court, appointed a good and sufficient deed, for all his property, real, personal and mixed, the necessary wearing apparel, and bedding of himself and family excepted, and delivered the same to the said trustee, and the said trustee having also executed a bond for the faithful discharge of his trust, and certified the delivery into his hands, of all the property of the said petitioner, mentioned in his schedule. It is, therefore, ordered, by the said court, that the said Thomas T. McPherson, be discharged from the custody of the sheriff of said county, and that the said petitioner, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in the city of Annapolis, for three months, successively, before the said third Monday of April next, give notice to his creditors to be and appear on that day, before said court to show cause if any they have, why the said Thomas T. McPherson should not have the benefit of the said act of assembly, and the supplements thereto as prayed.

Anna Arundel County, to wit.

ON application to the Judges of Anne Arundel county court, by petition, in writing, of Jacob Hyland, praying for the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors passed at November session 1828 and the several supplements thereto, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition; and the said Jacob Hyland having satisfied the court, by competent testimony, that he has resided in the State of Maryland, two years next, preceding his application, and that he is in actual confinement for debt only, and the said petitioner, having appointed Joseph H. Calder trustee, for the benefit of the creditors of the said Jacob Hyland, and the said trustee having given bond with security approved of by this court, for the faithful discharge of his trust, and the said Jacob Hyland having executed to the said trustee, a good and sufficient deed of conveyance for all his estate, real, personal and mixed (the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of himself and his family excepted), for the benefit of his creditors, and the said trustee having certified to the court in writing that he is in possession of all the estate of said Jacob Hyland, mentioned in his schedule. It is therefore ordered and adjudged by the court that the said Jacob Hyland be discharged from his confinement, and that he, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the newspapers printed in the city of Annapolis, once a week for three successive months, before the third Monday of April next, give notice to his creditors to be and appear before Anne Arundel county court, on the third Monday of April next to show cause if any they have, why the said Jacob Hyland should not have the benefit of the said act and supplements thereto as prayed.

THE SUBSCRIBER

Is authorized by John F. Barr, Esq. to sell at public auction, in Vienna, Dorchester county, Maryland, on SATURDAY the 27th day of February next, all the right title and interest in law and equity, which the said John F. Barr has in the real estate, lying in Dorchester county, of which the late Robert Dennis died seized, and which was purchased by the said John F. Barr, the 25th day of March last, at a public sale decreed by the authority of the High Court of Chancery.

To those who wish to invest their money in this species of property, this sale is particularly inviting. This estate consists of the following very valuable property, to wit:
No. 1—The home place of the late Robert Dennis, lying in Dorchester county, on the Nanticoke River, three miles below Vienna—Vessels of 300 tons can load within fifty yards of the door. This property, known as LOT No. 7 of Nanticoke Manor, contains about three hundred and twenty-nine acres and a quarter; part of the land is very rich and part of it very heavily timbered, being covered with valuable ship timber.

The improvements consist of a good DWELLING, Kitchen, out houses, and small repairs to make them excellent.

No. 2—Being LOT No. 3 of Nanticoke Manor, and containing about four hundred and fifty acres of upland, and about six hundred and fifty acres of marsh land—unbanked. This property lies along the Nanticoke River, a few minutes walk from the home place, and is most advantageously situated as a grazing farm. On this place there are a good DWELLING HOUSE and out houses, and a sufficiency of wood to support the farm.

No. 3—Also the FARM consisting of three tracts of land, called Bridge Neck, Cox's Addition to Bridge Neck, and John's Industry, situated on the main road from Cambridge to Vienna, about three miles from Vienna and fifteen miles from Cambridge. This farm contains about five hundred acres of land, and is justly considered one of the most productive and profitable farms in that improved district of country.

On this place is an excellent apple orchard, DWELLING and out houses, corn houses, stable, &c. and the farm is under very good fencing.

No. 4—Another FARM called Tripp's Enclosure, situated on a tributary of the Nanticoke River. This tract contains about three hundred and sixty acres of very good quality—a sufficiency of ship timber could be obtained from it to pay for the whole place, leaving still a sufficient quantity to support the farm. This farm is also well enclosed, and has upon it a BRICK DWELLING, &c.

No. 5—A WATER LOT in the town of Vienna, opposite Mr. Coulton's store, unoccupied.

No. 6—I will also sell at the same time, the reversion belonging to Mr. Barr in that well known and highly valuable property called Mitchell's Mills, which consists of a containing ten acres, one mill seat, one large and commodious grist mill in excellent repair, a good DWELLING HOUSE, kitchen, store house in an eligible situation, and other necessary out-houses. The leasehold interest in this property will expire in eight or nine years.

THE TERMS OF SALE ARE—

One fifth of the purchase money cash on the day of sale, the balance to be paid in four equal annual instalments, with interest till paid; the purchase money to be secured by bond and security approved by the subscriber—and on the payment of the whole purchase money, the said John T. Barr will, by a good and valid deed, executed and acknowledged according to law, convey to the several purchasers in fee simple, all his right, title and interest in the property thus sold, free, clear and discharged from all claim of the said John T. Barr. If any person shall bid off any property and fail to comply with the terms of sale, the property will be resold, and the loss arising from the resale, if any, shall be charged to the person failing to comply.

HENRY PAGE, Trustee.

JOURNAL OF HEALTH.

CONDUCTED BY AN ASSOCIATION OF PRACTISERS.
"Health—the poor man's riches, the rich man's bliss."

The primary object, with the conductors of the Journal of Health, is to point out the means of preserving health and preventing disease. To attain this, all classes and both sexes shall be addressed, in a style familiar and friendly, and with an avoidance of such professional terms and allusions as would in any way obscure the subject, or alarm the most fastidious. The fruits of much reading, study, and careful observation, shall be placed before them, so arranged and applied as to conduce most effectually to their bodily comfort and mental tranquility. To whatever profession or calling they may belong, the readers of this Journal will find precepts susceptible of valuable application. Air, food, exercise, the reciprocal operation of mind and body, climate and localities, clothing and the physical education of children, are topics of permanent and pervading interest, with the discussion and elucidation of which the pages of the work will be mainly filled.

Recommendation of the work.

We approve of the plan on which the publication, entitled the "Journal of Health" is conducted, and believe, that it is calculated to be useful, by enlightening public opinion on a subject of high importance to the welfare of society. The numbers which have appeared, evince talent, and may be viewed as a pledge of the continual usefulness of the publication while conducted by its present editors. We, therefore, feel no hesitation in recommending it to public patronage.
