The bill states that at Calvert county court, May term, 1813, the complainant, Richard Kirby, recovered a judgment against the said Michael Taney, Junior, for the sum of three hundred dollars, with interest from the 12th day of June 1808, and that at May term 1828, a fiat was issued on a second writ of fieri facias, issued on the said judgment, which judgment has been entered for the use of the complainant, James Tongue. That on the 15th day of July 1819 a certain Michael Taney, Senior, the father of the said Michael Taney, Junior, by deed duly executed, acknowledged and recorded, conveyed certain land and personal property to the defendants, Roger B. Taney and Octavius C. Taney, their heirs and assigns, in trust, that the said Roger B. Taney and Octavius C. Taney, and the survivor of them, and the heirs and assigns of such survivor, shall hold and possess the said lands and personal estate, and receive the rents, issues and profits thereof, and after deducting the expenses of cultivating the same, shall pay annually to the said Michael Taney, Junior, one thousand dollars during his life, and after each payment shall apply whatever residue may remain to pay all such debts as are due and owing from the said Michael Taney, Senior, and whenever the said debts shall be fully paid and extinguished, then in trust to apply all the rents, issues and profits thereof (after deducting expenses) to the said Michael Taney, Senior, during his life, and after his death to hold the said lands, or such part thereof, as shall not have been sold under this deed, and personal property in trust for the use of Michael Taney, Junior, Roger B. Taney, Augustus Taney, Octavius C. Taney, Dorothy Taney and Sophia T.
