

ANNAPOLIS
Thursday, March 18, 1830.

DEAR SIR,
I take the liberty to state through the columns of your paper, to my friends and fellow citizens of the county, that I decline being a poll for a seat in the Legislature at the ensuing October election. I think it necessary to make this prompt, early and explicit avowal of my determination, that my political friends may have every opportunity afforded of bringing out a suitable candidate in my place. In retiring from public life, and the turmoil and confusion of electioneering, I feel leave to express the gratitude which I feel for the warm, sincere, and undeviating support, which I have always received from a large and highly respectable portion of the voters of my native county. Domestic considerations peculiarly, and other reasons imperatively require that I should pursue this course. In retiring however, I wish it to be expressly understood, that it is my own voluntary act, and that I am not driven, by the threats of a certain gentleman who now fills an elevated station. I wish it to be understood also, that whenever the eagle descends from his Eryx, and stoops towards his prey, he will be met in any shape, manner or form, that suits him. Respectfully,
JOHN S. SELMAN.

AN ACT
To establish a Tobacco Inspection in the City of Annapolis.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That an inspection of Tobacco shall be established in the city of Annapolis, by individual subscription, the original capital stock of which shall be divided into shares of twenty dollars each; and the subscribers towards constituting the said stock, shall, on the second Monday of March next, be opened at the city of Annapolis, under the superintendance of Messrs. Henry Myrlandier, Lewis Nath and James Shaw, a majority of whom shall keep open the said subscription for at least the term of three days, and if the sum of five thousand dollars be not subscribed at the expiration of that term, they shall keep the same open for three days more; but if the subscription shall be filled at any time within the said terms, the said books shall be immediately closed.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any person, co-partnership or body politic or corporate, in person or by attorney, to subscribe for a share or any number of shares not exceeding one hundred, and the amount of the share or shares subscribed for, shall be paid by the several and respective subscribers at the times and in the proportions hereinafter directed.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said commissioners, as soon as conveniently may be, to submit the said subscription, together with an account of the expenses attending the same, to a meeting of the stockholders, to be called for that purpose, of which ten days notice shall be given by publication in the several newspapers printed in the city of Annapolis.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the said stockholders, when so assembled, shall proceed to the election of a president and three directors from amongst themselves, to manage the affairs of said company, which said president and directors shall continue in office until such time as the stockholders or a majority of them, shall think proper to have a new election; and at such elections each stockholder shall be entitled to as many votes as he may have shares of the said capital stock.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of each subscriber to pay to the said commissioners for the benefit of said company, the sum of one dollar for each and every share for which he may subscribe, and the sums so received by said commissioners, shall be by them paid over to the President and Directors immediately after their appointment.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That the President and Directors, shall from time to time, as the interest of the company may require, call upon the stockholders for such instalments of the capital stock, as they may think proper, provided three weeks notice by publication as aforesaid be given; and no instalment shall be made exceeding ten dollars for each share at any time be called for.

and inspection of Tobacco shall have been provided, the President and Directors, shall, as soon as they may be, give notice as aforesaid to the Commissioners of Anne Arundel thereof to the said Commissioners, or a partner, county, and the said Commissioners, and a majority of them, shall nominate and recommend to the Governor and Council, three persons well skilled in the curing and packing of Tobacco, one of whom shall be commissioned as Inspector of said warehouse.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That before the said Inspector shall enter upon the duties of his said office, he shall qualify and enter into a bond to the state of Maryland, with security, in the same penalty and with the like conditions, as are required of the several Inspectors of Tobacco in Anne Arundel County.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the President and Directors of the said Company on the first Monday of October in each and every year, to declare a dividend of the profits, and to pay over the same to the stockholders, in proportion to the amount of stock by them respectively held.

Sec. 11. We hereby certify the foregoing to be a true copy of the original Act which passed both branches of the Legislature at the session thereof of 1829-30.

Witness our hands at the City of Annapolis this 12th day of March 1830.

MR. GERRY. will oblige a subscriber by publishing the following:
Should we not love to bring all times in view, And set our minds to find what is true? For we all know, we cannot win a race, While we continue lingering in one place. Have you not heard by faith the world was made, And all its vast proportions fully laid, That God made man, and gave him glorious mind? Put off his guard, the man by freewill did. The very thing his Maker had forbid, We hear woe to the World was then proclaim'd, The times were numbered; and were twice nam'd, Seventeen times ten months, one week and day, The world only stands, till the Prophets say, Twelve months make a time, a scripture name, For eight Sabbaths weeks is just the same, Faith by freewill said atonement he'd make, And offered himself to die for man's sake. At the fullness of time or twelve parts by name, Twelve months make a time, a scripture name, Two hundred twice two weeks past, Marking more wick'd grew at last; When the decree the world to drown, No righteous man but Noah was found, By faith he saw the ark and danger shunn'd, Prepared an ark and danger shunn'd, Two hundred years with oil and sweat, And when prepared all creatures met, And enter'd into that small pen, The flood all other's life did end, And he was saved by faith to shine, The middle of fullness of time, For he believ'd a Son would come, To die, and raise again to some, Thus by faith he offer'd his son, Against nature the promise won, We would in our wisdom transgress, And say and do things that we should not do; For you have told me so and so, How numerous his seed should grow, He reason'd not with whom he talk'd, For he believ'd, and so he rais'd the dead, He thought not what he had said, Moses by faith cross'd the Red Sea, And Pharaoh's host down'd did see.

THE POST OFFICE AND POSTMASTERS.
So many complaints are made in the newspapers of the Post Office and of the mistakes and even alleged neglect of Post Masters, that it may be an agreeable diversity to state, that we have much pleasure in saying, that we have great cause to be thankful for the prompt attention we experience, as well from the office in our own city as from distant ones, in giving us not only those notices which are expressly directed, but in cases of mistake or omission originating in our own office. Our attention is called to this subject to-day, by an obliging notice from a Post Master, not required by his duty, of an error in the misdirection of papers, which if continued might cause the loss of some subscribers. Balt Gaz.

FRIDAY, MARCH 12.
The resolution offered by Mr. Frelinghuysen, to instruct the committee on the Sabbath, to report a bill repealing so much of the act on the regulation of the Post Offices, as requires the delivery of letters, packets, and papers on the Sabbath, and further, to prohibit the transportation of the mail on that day.

INCHANCERY,
16th of March, 1830.
Thomas B. Owings and Cordelia, his wife.
vs.
James Owings, John Iiams and others.
The object of this bill is to obtain an assignment of dower in a certain warehouse in the city of Baltimore. The bill states that a certain Beale Owings and Richard Owings, were, in their lifetime, seized in fee of said warehouse as tenants in common, and being so seized the said Beale died intestate in the year 1822, leaving the complainant, Cordelia (since married to the other complainant) his widow, as such, entitled to dower in the premises. The Richard Owings took the rents and profits of said warehouse, from the death of the said Beale, until the year 1819, when he conveyed the same to the defendant, James Owings, who has ever since been in possession, and the complainants for arrears of dower. The bill also states that the defendant Henry Stevenson and Mary, his wife, Nathan Owings and John Iiams, and Harriott, his wife, are the heirs and representatives of the said Beale Owings, and that John Iiams is a non-resident. It is the complainant's prayer, that the court do give judgment for the complainants by assigning a copy of this bill in some newspaper printed at Annapolis, once in each of three successive weeks, before the 15th day of April next, give notice to the said non-resident defendant, of the substance and object of this bill, that he may be warned to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the first day of August next, to answer the premises, and shew cause why a decree should not pass as prayed.

PROSPECTUS of a
Series of Standard Works
ADAPTED TO THE USE OF THE Protestant Episcopal Church
IN THE
UNITED STATES;
TO BE PUBLISHED BY THE
NEW-YORK PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL PRESS
AND TO BE KEPT BY THE REV. WM. B. WITTINGHAM, A. M.
President of the Family Y. Sem., and of the Church of St. Margaret of the General Protestant Episcopal School, New York.

The second presentation of this design to the Episcopal public, is owing to a want of encouragement, or anticipation of difficulty in its accomplishment. A considerable delay in the execution of the former proposals, deemed necessary for the maturing of the original design, and for ascertaining exactly the nature of the wants which the publication intended to supply, led the Trustees of the Protestant Episcopal Press, free to alter, and if circumstances should warrant, to enlarge their plan. Communications from several quarters, and from the most respectable sources, produced by this delay, have led to the conviction, upon which the Trustees now propose to act, that a plan more comprehensive than that first presented, is called for by our Church in this country. A mere republication of works of English and American divines was then contemplated. It is now intended, by the introduction of every thing necessary to adapt the work to the peculiar circumstances of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, to give the publication the character of an original work; and, at the same time, to extend its design so far as to embrace the works of the primitive Christian writers, and if occasion present itself, of foreign divines.

PLAN OF THE WORK.
I. Translation from the Greek and Latin of the writings of men who derived their knowledge of Christianity immediately from the Apostles, and from such of the works of the Fathers as are of immediate interest to the Church in the present age, will be given. Professors, theologians, and historical introductions and explanatory notes, will accompany these in such manner as to render their study interesting, and profitable to the modern and unlearned reader, and to supply the want of the support of a private tutor in the study of the Greek and Latin languages. II. The works of the ancient Fathers of the Church, such as Irenaeus, Tertullian, Epiphanius, and others, will be translated into English, and accompanied by explanatory notes, and by a translation of the original text into Greek and Latin. III. The works of the modern divines, such as Bull, Beveridge, Ridge, Barrow, Taylor, Hall, Hickes, Waterhouse, Law, Hale, Warfield, and others, will be translated into English, and accompanied by explanatory notes, and by a translation of the original text into Greek and Latin. IV. The works of the modern divines, such as Bull, Beveridge, Ridge, Barrow, Taylor, Hall, Hickes, Waterhouse, Law, Hale, Warfield, and others, will be translated into English, and accompanied by explanatory notes, and by a translation of the original text into Greek and Latin.

TERMS.
FOUR VOLUMES in Quarto will be published yearly, to amount as nearly as possible once a quarter. Each volume will contain 200 pages, neatly printed on a good substantial paper, and well done up in muslin backs, with labels.
Subscriptions will be received for no less term than a year, at Four Dollars and FIFTY CENTS, if paid within the year, and FIVE DOLLARS PER COPY, LESS, if paid at the time of subscription.
No discount will be made from these terms. Upon a strict adherence to them, depends most materially the success of this plan.
Agencies will be established in most of the principal cities and towns in the United States, where subscribers may obtain their copies free of expense. To those who may so direct, the volume will be sent, mail, stitched in paper covers, at the express Postage, in the extreme limit of a less distance, 25 cents per volume, and one cent per copy for the postage. Those who may wish to receive their copies in advance, will be allowed the seventh copy gratis. Others disposed to aid in the accomplishment of the undertaking, and becoming responsible for the payment of the subscription which they may obtain will be allowed a commission of 10 per cent. upon their amount.

The first volume, for the present year, will appear about the 1st of May, and the second as practicable, on June the third and fourth, and the third on the 1st of July and the 1st of October. It is proposed that the first two volumes shall consist of the following: matter, or as nearly so, as may be compatible with the typographical arrangement of the work.
Communications to be addressed (Post Paid), to John Y. Van Ingen, Agent, New-York Protestant Episcopal Press, No. 46, Lumber-Street, New-York.
