DR. HULL'S TRUSS,

FOR the relief and cure of Hernia or Rupture. This Surgical instrument is now so well known to the Medical profession, and so extensively used by unfortunate sufferers labouring under the disease of Hernia, that a particular account of its mechanical construction of its surgical effects is thought unnecessary.—The subjoined remarks from Physicians and Surgeons of high respectability in our country, are the results of much practical experience in the use and application of this truss.

James Thatcher, M. D. author of the Modern Practice, in his second edition, under the subject of Hernia, remarks "Dr. Hull is exclusively entitled to the credit of first adapting the true Surgical principle for the radical cure of Hernia. He happily conceived the idea that the pad of the Truss should be so constructed as simply to support the muscular fibres around the ring or aperture as much as possible, in the state in which they are maintained in perfect health. Unless this be attained the parts can never recover their natural tone, whatever may be the degree of pressure applied."

Samuel Ackerly, M. D. in his excellent edition of 'Hooper's Medical Dictionary,' under the head of 'Truss,' after enumerating the evils resulting from the use of the defective trusses formerly worn, says, 'This evil was not fully remedied until Dr. Amos G Hull, of New York, turned his attention to the subject, and by his improvement in the construction of trusses, has rendered it certain that all recent ruptures and those of children, may be permanently cured, and those of old people and of long standing, may, in many cases, also be remedied. The pad of Dr. Hull's Truss is concave and not convex; and hence the raised circular margin, by proper adaptation, presses upon the sides of the hernial opening, and tends to close the aperture and cure the hernia.'

M. L. Knapp, M. D. late Physician and Surgeon to the Baltimore General Dispensary, in a communication to Doctor Hull, says: 'I have applied your trusses in several hundred cases during the last three years. A great many upon whom I have applied your trusses, have been radically cured; and some of these were cases of long standing, where all other trusses had failed. I send you a note of thanks from Mr. P. a citizen of great respectability, who was cured of a bad scrotal rupture, of thirty-five years standing, by wearing one of your trusses for two years. He had worn other trusses twenty nine years. His son, also, aged 16 years, ruptured from his infancy, was cured under my care in less than two years.—A case of scrotal rupture, of twenty years standing, in a labouring man forty years old, was cured under my notice by one of your trusses in six months. A case of groin rupture, from lifting, in a labouring man, thirty years old, on whom I applied one of your trusses, the day after the injury, was cured in three months.—Experience alone, can make known to the Surgeon the full powers and excellence of these instruments. Your trusses are exclusively preferred by the Professors in both of the Medical Schools in this city, and the Faculty in general.

Baltimore, January, 1830.

Valentine Mott, M. D. Professor of Surgery, says,' The great and signal benefits which are produced by this Truss, result from its strict subservience to, and accordance with Scientific and Surgical principles.

'The operation and effect of this Truss is directly the reverse of all Trusses heretofore in use; which being convex, tended to enlarge the dimensions of the rupture opening.' 'I am of opinion that the union of Surgical design & mechanical structure in this instrument renders it what has long been the desideratum of Practical Surgeons in Europe and America.'

Professor Mott also in lecturing upon Hernia, recommends Dr. Hull's Truss to the exclusion of all others.

PROSPECTUS

OF A

Series of Standard Works

ADAPTED TO THE USE OF THE

Protestant Episcopal Church

IN THE

UNITED STATES;

TO BE PUBLISHED BY THE

N. Y. PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL PRESS

AND TO BE EDITED BY THE

REV. WM. R. WITTINGHAM, A. M.

Present Editor of the Family Visiter, and of the Children's Magazine of the General Protestant Episcopal Sunday School Union.

The second presentation of this design to the Episcopal public, is owing to no want of encouragement, or anticipation of difficulty in its accomplishment.

A considerable delay in the execution of the former proposals, deemed necessary for the maturing of the original design, and for ascertaining exactly the nature of the wants which the publication is intended to supply, left the Trustees of the Protestant Episcopal Press, free to alter, and, if circumstances should warrant, to enlarge their plan. Communications from several quarters, and from the most respectable sources, produced by this delay, have led to the conviction, upon which the Trustees now propose to act that a plan far more comprehensive than that first presented, is called for by our Church in this country. A mere republication of works of English and American divines was then contemplated. It is now intended, by the introduction of every thing necessary to adapt the works selected to the circumstances of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, to give the publication the character of an original work; and, at the same time, to extend its design so far as to embrace the works of the primitive Christian writers, and if occasion present itself, of foreign divines.

PLAN OF THE WORK.

I. Translations from the precious fragments, still in existence, of the writings of men who derived their knowledge of Christianity immediately from the Apostles, and from each other of the works of the Fathers as are of immediate interest to the Church in the present age, will be given. Prefaces, Biographical and Historical Introductions and explanatory and illustrative Notes, will accompany these in such manner as to render their perusal easy, interesting, and useful, to the modern and unlearned reader, and to apply them to the support of our primitive and apostolic doctrine, ministry, and worship The Epistles of IGNATIUS, POLYCARP and CLEMENT; the Apologies of JUSTIN MARTYR, ATHENAGORAS, TERTULLIAN, MINUCIUS FELIX, and LACTANTIUS; many portions of the works of IRENÆUS, TERTULLIAN, CYPRIAN, CLEMENT OF ALEXANDRIA, ORIGEN, EUSEBIUS, JEROME, AUGUSTIN, and CHRYSOSTOM; and smaller writings of minor note, but not less useful; will thus be made accessible and useful to the English reader.

II. Tracts and Essays by English divines, often called forth by temporary exigencies, but containing matter of lasting interest and utility, are now concealed in our large libraries, unknown and inaccessible, while they should be employed, as they might be with the most advantageous results, in defence and advancement of the interests of our Church. The names of CRANMER, HINDAL, JEWEL WHITGIFT, SANDERSON, HALL, TAYLOR, REYNOLDS, LESLIE, HICKES, WATERLAND, JONES of Nayland, HORNE, DAUBENY, &c. are well known to Episcopalians. Their efforts in behalf of Christian truth and order, and the arms which they wielded in defence of Christ's church, as handed by Himself and his Apostles, it is intended now to hold forth to view, collected, with reference to their subjects, in volumes, and furnished with every thing in the way of Preface, Notes, &c. found needful to facilitate their use.

III Entire works of the master spirits who have been the ornament, and, under God, the support of Protestant Christianity, will be republished in a cheap and convenient form. Thus the influence which BULL, BEVERIDGE, BARROW, TAYLOR, HALL, HICKES, LESLIE, LAW, HALES, WATERLAND, and their fellows: and in more recent times, HORNE, SECKER, JONES, PORTEUS, BURGESS, JERRAM, FABER, GRAY, the SUMNERS, ROSE &c. have so successfully exerted, in the old world, in behalf of the principles of Protestantism and primitive Episcopacy, will be enlisted in the support of those principles in their trans-atlantic contest. Biographical sketches of the writers, notices of their peculiar circumstances and opinions, and notes illustrative of obscure allusions or obsolete expressions, with full indexes, will be given, to complete the measure of their usefulness to the American Episcopalian.

Of works such as the above, while they are the most desirable auxiliaries of which a clergyman can possess himself, no inquiring Episcopalian would, we think, willingly be destitute: one or more copies are almost indispensable to a Sunday School or Parochial Library To facilitate their acquisition, and to render practicable their distribution by benevolent individuals and Societies, the proposed publication has been undertaken, and is offered on the following liberal terms:—

TERMS

FOUR VOLUMES in Duodecimo, will be published yearly, to appear as nearly as possible once a quarter. Each volume will contain 300 pages, neatly printed on a good substantial paper, and well done up in muslin backs, with labels.

Subscriptions will be received for no less term than a year, at FOUR DOLLARS PER ANNUM, if paid within the year, and TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT. LESS, if paid at the time of subscription.

No departure will be made from these terms. Upon a strict adherence to them, depends most materially the success of this plan.

Agencies will be established in most of the principal cities and towns in the United States, where subscribers may obtain their copies free of expense. To those who may so direct, the volume will be sent by mail, stitched in paper covers, at their expense.—Postage, to the extreme limits of the Union, will be 26½ cents per volume; in proportion for a less distance.

Clergymen who may obtain six subscriptions from their parishioners, and forward the payment in advance, will be allowed the seventh copy gratis.

Others disposed to aid in the accomplishment of the undertaking, and becoming responsible for the payment of the subscriptions which they may obtain will be allowed a commission of 10 per cent. upon their amount.

The first volume, for the present year, will appear about the 1st of May; and the second in the month of June: the third and fourth, as nearly as practicable, on the 1st of July and the 1st of October It is proposed that the first two volumes shall consist of the following matter; or as nearly so, as may be compatible with the typographical arrangement of the work.

Communications to be addressed (POST PAID,) to "John V. Van Ingen, Agent New-York Protestant Episcopal Press, No. 46, Lumber-Street, New-York."

THE

JOURNAL OF HEALTH.

CONDUCTED BY AN ASSOCIATION OF PHYSICIANS.

"Health—the poor man's riches, the rich man's bliss."

The primary object with the conductors of the Journal of Health, is to point out the means of preserving health and preventing disease. To attain this, all classes and both sexes shall be addressed, in a style familiar and friendly, and with an avoidance of those professional terms and allusions as would in any way obscure the subject or alarm the most fastidious. The fruits of much reading, study, and careful observation, shall be placed before them, so arranged and applied as to conduce most efficaciously to their bodily comfort and mental tranquillity. To whatever profession or calling they may belong, the readers of this Journal will find precepts susceptible of valuable application. Air, food, exercise, the reciprocal operation of mind and body, climate and localities, clothing and the physical education of children, are topics of permanent and pervading interest, with the discussion and elucidation of which the pages of the work will be mainly filled.

Recommendation of the work.

We approve of the plan on which the publication, entitled the 'Journal of Health" is conducted, and believe, that it is calculated to be useful, by enlightening public opinion on a subject of high importance to the welfare of society. The numbers which have appeared, evince talent, and may be viewed as a pledge of the continued usefulness of the publication while conducted by its present editors. We, therefore, feel no hesitation in recommending it to public patronage.

LIFE'S SUNNY SPOTS.

BY WILLIAM LEGGETT.

Though life's a dark and thorny path,
Its goal the silent tomb,
It yet some spots of sunshine hath,
That smile amidst the gloom;
The friend who weal and woe partakes,
Unchanged whate'er our lot,
Who kindly soothes the heart that aches—
Is sure a sunny spot

The wife, who half our burden bears,
And utters not a moan;
Whose ready hand wipes off our tears,
Unheeded all her own,
Who treasures every kindly word,
Each harsher one forgot,
And carols lightly as a bird—
She's too a sunny spot.

The child who lifts at morn and eve,
In prayers its tiny voice;
Who grieves whene'er its parents grieve,
And joys when they rejoice;
In whose bright eye young genius glows,
Whose heart, without a blot,
Is fresh and pure as summer's rose—
That child's a sunny spot.

There's yet upon life's weary road,
One spot of brighter glow,
Where sorrow half forgets its load,
And tears no longer flow;
Friendship may wither, love decline,
Our child dishonour blot;
But still undimm'd that spot will shine—
Religion lights that spot.

From Sir Walter Scott's new work.

SONG.

When friends are met o'er merry cheer,
And lovely eyes are laughing near,
And in the goblet's bosom clear,
The cares of day are drown'd;
When puns are made, and bumpers quaff'd,
And wild wit shoots his roving shaft,
And mirth his jovial laugh has laughed,
Then is our banquet crown'd,
Ah gay,
Then is our banquet crown'd.

When glees are sung, and catches troll'd,
And bashfulness grows bright and bold,
And beauty is no longer cold,
And age no longer dull;
When chimes are brief, and cocks do crow,
To tell us it is time to go,
Yet how to part we do not know,
Then is our feast at full,
Ah gay,
Then is our feast at full.

From the Tales of the North West.

CHARLES HESS.

The Indians are not the only persons who excite interest in the northwest.—Among the many rude adventurers drawn into that country by love of excitement and impatience of restraint, there are some possessed of qualities that in other situations would command respect, and perhaps admiration. But these qualities are lost to the world. It has often been observed, that men most exposed to hardships, danger and privation, by the nature of their employments, as, for example, soldiers and sailors, are more attached to their occupations than those of more tranquil habits. No where is this more forcibly exemplified than by the persons actively engaged in the Indian trade. Once fairly drawn in, they are seldom known to leave it. A very short residence among the aborigines learns them to despise the refinement and artificial wants of civilized society, and spurn the restraints legally and conventionally established to bind men to each other. The wild, independent habits of the wilderness are at first pleasing from novelty and soon become riveted by custom. An Indian wife and a family of half breed children complete the change; and when they have thus encumbered themselves, they may be considered as chained to their occupation for life.

Charles Hess, the subject of this sketch, was an example of the truth of the foregoing remarks. With a strength of mind and body seldom equalled, and an energy and quickness of apprehension that with the advantages of education would have insured him a high rank in any profession he might have chosen, the circumstances above detailed rendered him poor and miserable all his life. Where he belonged cannot be ascertained. He has a faint recollection of having witnessed the burning of his paternal roof, and the slaughter of his family by a party of Indians, and as he retained his language and remembered his name, he believed himself an American. Having lived several years a savage among savages, and after being many times transferred from one tribe to another, he found himself at last on the Red river of the north, and entered the service of the North American Fur Company, where his talents and activity soon obtained him a Clerkship. (1) According to the custom of the country, he married a Chippeway squaw, by whom he had several children.
