

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND COLLEGIATE DEPARTMENT

That the public may comprehend the nature of the instruction and plan of tuition, as laid down by the faculty...

1. The classes will commence on Monday, 3d January, before which time, or as soon thereafter as possible, it is expected that persons desirous of being entered as students, will have their names registered.

2. The College course occupies four years—each year is divided into three terms: the first commencing on the 2d Monday of September, the second on the 2d day of January, the third on the Wednesday after Easter day.

3. The course of education embraced in the plan, and for which the most ample provision has been made, in the appointment of professors and tutors, consists of the Latin, Greek, English, French, German, Spanish and Italian Languages, and Literature; Mathematics, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Mineralogy and Geology, Botany and other branches of Natural History; Ancient and Modern History; Political Economy, Rhetoric and Belles Lettres; Moral and Intellectual Philosophy—for each of which departments separate and distinct professors have been appointed.

4. The plan of instruction has been so laid down, that the whole time of the student, during college hours, will be employed in study and attendance upon his classes—a daily record will be kept of his attendance in class, and general conduct throughout the term.

5. Previous to the summer vacation there will be a general examination by the Faculty of all the classes in the college, in the studies of the year. These examinations will be public, so far as to admit not only the trustees of the University, parents and guardians, but all gentlemen of liberal education who may choose to be present.

6. When the student has gone through the whole course of study as laid down by the faculty, and upon examination is found properly qualified for the degree or honours of the University, a diploma, certifying his proficiency will be presented to him.

7. Students who do not intend to offer themselves for the honours of the university, will be permitted to enter any of the classes, with the privilege of attending such parts of the recitations of the class they enter, as may suit their views and intentions, and also attend the lectures of the different professors—such students however, will be subject to the same fee for instruction, as the other students. To these students a certificate under the seal of the university, will be given, testifying to the branches of study they have successfully pursued during the session.

8. The charges of the college for instruction, including attendance upon all the professors, are one hundred dollars per annum.

9. Gentlemen well qualified for teaching the French, Spanish, German and Italian languages, are engaged by the faculty to give instruction in these branches, at the additional annual charge of twenty dollars each.

10. It is on every account desirable that students should enter at the commencement of the session—but they may enter at any time.
