in Rhetorick and Orstory; and one forenoon of fes of its numerous friends, and especially of Anne-Arundel County, St. each week, will be spent, drilling the Students, the sons of Maryland. in a thorough course of Reading and Speaking. These exercises will be conducted by the Principal; and the Members of the Senior Class. will always be required to declaim pieces of their own composition. The Classification. which takes place at each general Examination. waich takes place at each general Examination, subjects those who are deficient, to the necessity of remaining in a lower grade; while, on the other hand, the hope of reaching a high standing, in a shorter than ordinary period, is held out to all who are ambitious to advance at a more rapermanent record of the relative standing of the Members in each Class, is kept by the Fa the members in each class, is kept to the reculty, and serves as a guide, in awarding to bonors of the College. The principal test of the State of the French proficiency, with be found in the Lecture Room, where he will undergo an Examination of one hour's duration, for each Lesson: and those Members of the higher Classes, who and those stembers of the higher Classes, who are permitted, under the discretion of the Principal, to have their rooms people. Co tege, will be visited, by the Principal, and the Professors during the hours appointed, for their cucourage ment and aid in the prosecution of their studies. They must not be absent themselves from their rooms, during the hours of study, espec-ally in the evening, except by permission from one of the Faculty; and a close attention will be paid to the habits of the Sudents, that good murals may be cultivated and preserved.

PUBLIC WORSHIP. The Students will be required to attend only it worship, in this City, both morning and at ernoon; and Monitors for the several Churches will make returns of all absentees, wh an account of their absence to the Prinki The Roll will be called, also, before the daily devotions at the College. No Student with at any time, leave the Coy, without expossible obtained from the Principal. That the public may rest assured of the privalence of no particular sectarian influence at this Collegine following clause is extracted from the Charter; with the letter and spirit of which, the Officers of instruction, will invalidity compty. A record of all deficiencies at College exercises will be kept, and sent to each parent or guardian, at the close of every terms. And whenever a Student shall be found failing to secure the end for which he will have been placed at the College, he may be sent home pri vately, except in cases of a misdemeanour, of offence against the laws, when he shall be pu nished by the ordinary penalties. By the adop-tion of a kind and parental demeanour, on th part of the Officers, it is hoped that such extreme cases will be avoided; and from toa ious advantages of location for the Coll :: it is believed, that few places promise this im-minity, in a higher degree, than the City of Annapolis. Its population is not large—the situation is central—its healthfulness, is surpassed by that of no place in the Southern states—access to the College, from all parts of the Union, by which parents would wish to hold communication with their sons, is most requent and easy, and the expenses of living are comparatively small. Annapolis is the Seat of the Government of the State; and the time of the Annual Commencements, which hap nens during the Session of the Legislature, affords a high incentive to young men, to distinguish the measure with the property of the company of the session of the Legislature, affords a high incentive to young men, to distinguish the measure which it has a way for the company of the company o guish themselves, by their literary performances

ADMISSION. Candidates for any standing in the College, will be required to bring from their teachers, testimonials of good moral character; and, in no Cose, will a Student be received from any other College, to the same standing in this, unless he shall bring, from the President, or other author rity of such College, a certificate of his honor

EXPENSES. &c. It has not been thought advisable to establish any commons. Board, including bedding, washing, and roomrest, may be had, however, in private families in the city, for 120 dollars per annum.
