adout any second design of the first second second

Mr. Ferguson and ed. They men-nealth it states if respective ap-cted than to resent an other for sent an officer by temen, and after of state and the in confinement, y was again cul-are will therefore of Oyer and Ver-4 ges of the Su-

or Mr. Clew con-

LISBON, March 18. EXECUTIONS.

I'm r Others Is pu May say So ve

I must Or I I have I'm

Without, I rear, eximple tear—
I'm not a single man!

HE HUNTER & RATTLESNAKE, one of my hunting excursions abroad, fine morning—it was just at this time of year—I was accompanied by my wife.

as a beautiful morning. The stusbine warm but the atmosphere was perfectly as a beautiful morning. The stusbine will bestow upon it a most brilliant effect. When the day is perfectly clear, the light are obscired at the opening of Edge Hill, when there has a mele distant. It was the bright green leaves which elethed the same appearance as that of the upper hear the subscinction of cumberland valley the snow difficulty of weather continued until the Sth of January, when winter made his appearance in all his rudeness and his violence. The snow begin to fall on that day, and continued to fall, occasionally, for more than two months.

During this time, the earth was covered with a coat of snow of from three to four feet in depth on an average: In places, however, it far exceeded this average.

In Cumberland valley the snow difficults of weather continued until the Sth of January, when winter made his appearance in all his rudeness and his violence. The snow begin to fall on that day, and continued to fall, occasionally, for more than two months.

During this time, the earth was covered with a coat of snow of from three to four feet in depth on an average. In places, however, it far exceeded this average.

In Cumberland valley the snow difficults of weather continued until the Sth of January, when winter made his appearance in all his rudeness and his violence. The snow begin to fall on that day, and continued until the Sth of January, when winter made his appearance in all his rudeness and his violence. The snow begin to fall on that day, and continued until the Sth of January when with a coat of snow of fall on that day, and continued to fall, occasionally, oc board the Venus, but were unable, and went sider the discharge of the sury as an acquitto a sloop lying to the leeward. Capt. Sandford, Sir:—I learned last even-ing, from a source that may be relied on, that the Delight was owned at Mill River, and that the men seen in the open boat belonged we board her.

the Delight was owned at Mill River, and that the men seen in the open bout belonged on board her.

Very respectfully, O. KIRTLAND.

Tontis., April 11.

The steam boat President Bunker, arrived yesterday from Providence. Capt. B. states