

IN CHANCERY, March term, 1831. Charles Salmon

Elizabeth Claggett, Edmund Claggett, Richard Claggett, Samuel A. Claggett, John W. Claggett, Thomas Claggett, Mary Claggett, and William Claggett, and Charles Roe executor of Henry Roe Junior.

THE object of the bill filed in this case is to obtain a decree for the sale of certain land, negroes, and other personal estate, mortgaged by the defendants Elizabeth, Edmund, Richard, Samuel, John, and Thomas Claggett, to the complainant, to compel the execution of a commission heretofore ordered, on the application of the defendants Mary and William, by their guardian Edmund, for the partition of the real estate of William Claggett deceased, and to obtain an injunction restraining the defendant Charles Roe, executor of Henry Roe Junior, from levying a fieri facias on certain property in the bill mentioned, and if levied prohibiting the sale thereof until the further order of this court.

It is ordered, that the defendant Thomas Claggett, having a short time previous to the twenty second day of September eighteen hundred and twenty seven, engaged in business in the city of Baltimore as a merchant, the complainant undertook to give credit to and to become surety and endorser on notes drawn by the said Thomas, in the prosecution of his said business, to the amount of ten thousand dollars, and that with a view and for the purpose of indemnifying the complainant against all loss which the complainant might incur by reason of such credit and engagements, the said Thomas, and his mother Elizabeth, and his brothers Edmund, Richard, John and Samuel, executed in due form of law a deed of mortgage bearing date the twenty second day of September eighteen hundred and twenty seven, whereby they conveyed to the complainant all their estate, right, title and interest, in and out of all that tract or parcel of land lying in Anne Arundel county, called Poplar Bottom, being the real estate of the said William Claggett, and also all the right, title and interest, of the said Elizabeth, Edmund, Samuel, John, and Thomas Claggett, in and to the personal estate of which the said William Claggett died possessed, consisting of Negroes, Horses and Cattle, which said land and personal estate, at the time of the said conveyance and now, is in the possession and occupation of the said Elizabeth and Edmund Claggett. The bill further states, that the complainant, in pursuance of his said agreement with the said Thomas Claggett, at various times between the date of the said mortgage, and the twelfth day of May eighteen hundred and twenty eight, did give credit to the said Thomas Claggett for goods sold and money loaned, and did endorse divers notes drawn by the said Thomas Claggett, and did become drawer of divers other notes, which were afterwards negotiated for the accommodation and benefit of the said Thomas Claggett, and that upon a statement of accounts between the complainant and the said Thomas Claggett, he was indebted to the complainant, for goods sold, in the sum of ten thousand eight hundred and six dollars and seventy cents, for money loaned in the sum of three thousand two hundred and seventy dollars, and on account of endorsements and other liabilities contracted by the complainant for and on account of the said Thomas Claggett, in the sum of twenty four hundred and eleven dollars and sixty four cents, the whole amount being on the day last mentioned sixteen thousand four hundred and eleven dollars and sixty four cents. The bill further states, that certain goods, wares and merchandise, and debts, were heretofore to wit, on or about the twenty sixth day of May in the year last mentioned, transferred by the said Thomas Claggett, and certain persons acting as his trustees, to the complainant, the proceeds of which the complainant was to apply to the payment of the debts due by the said Thomas Claggett to divers individuals, and the complainant claims so far as the said property would extend; that the proceeds of said property have been applied in the manner required by said agreement, and have been found sufficient for that purpose, and the complainant charges, that there is now due to him the sum of nine thousand two hundred and nine dollars and fifty four cents, with interest. The bill further states, that the complainant, being ignorant of the description of the personal property, and of the number, ages and sex, of the negroes, and the amount of the other personal property intended to be conveyed to him by the said mortgage under the general words used therein, and apprehending that the mortgagees would remove the same beyond the reach of the complainant and of this court, filed his bill in this court on the fourteenth day of July, eighteen hundred and twenty eight, praying a discovery of the number, ages and sex, of the several negroes, and the number and description of the horses and cattle intended to be conveyed by said mortgage, and for an injunction prohibiting and restraining the said mortgagees from selling, disposing, removing and concealing the whole or any part of the personal property intended to be conveyed by the said mortgage, on which such proceedings were had, that on the thirtieth day

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE, ANNAPOLIS.

Rev. HARRIS HANBURY, A. M. Principal, and Professor of Moral Science. EDWARD SPARKS, M. D. Professor of Ancient Languages. THOMAS B. SUDLER, A. M. Professor of Mathematics and Civil Engineering. Rev. JOHN DROKER, A. M. Professor of Grammar. CHARLES T. FLUSSER, Professor of Modern Languages. Present number of Students, 63.

COURSE OF STUDIES, EXPENSES, &c. The following information, by order of the Board, will show the present state and prospects of the Institution.

The Professor of Grammar, will take charge of the English Department, and will have his classes under his inspection, at the College, during the hours prescribed by the Board. Besides the ordinary course of instruction in this department, students will be fitted for admission into College, and they may take standing as Freshmen, whenever they shall sustain an examination on the following PREPARATORY STUDIES, viz. English Grammar; Geography; Arithmetick; Latin Grammar; Cædærus; Æsop's Fables; Erasmus; Cæsar's Commentaries, or Sallust; Eclogues, and first six books of the Æneid of Virgil; Mar's Introduction, or Latin Tutor; Greek Grammar; Greek Delectus; and Jacob's Greek Reader and Prosody.

Pupils not intending to enter College, will also be received into the English Department, and will pursue such branches of Education, embraced in the course, as may suit their particular views. A course of Lectures on Education in Primary Schools, will be delivered, whenever a class of young men shall have been formed, who may wish to qualify themselves to become Teachers.

The course of studies for the classes in College, have been arranged as follows, viz.

FRESHMAN CLASS.

- Folsom's Livy. Græca Majora—(Xenophon, Herodotus, Thucydides.) Greek and Roman Antiquities, History, and Mythology. Horace, (Odes.)—Virgil's Georgicks. 2d Term. 2d Term.

- Tacitus.—(History.) Chemistry, with Lectures. Tacitus.—(Manners of the Germans and life of Agricola.) Natural Philosophy, with Lectures. Elements of Criticism, with Lectures on the Fine Arts. Debates, Compositions, and Declamations during the year.

SENIOR CLASS.

- 1st Term. Natural Philosophy, finished, with Lectures. Horace's De Arte Poetica, with Lectures on Taste, and a Revision of Latin. Logic, and philosophy of the Mind. Astronomy—with Lectures. Political Economy—with Lectures. Evidence of Christianity, & Natural Theology.

2d Term.

- Laws of Nations; Constitution, and Civil and Political History of the United States. Butler's Analogy. Civil Engineering—(construction, of Machines, Bridges, Roads, Canals, &c.) 3d Term. Mining and Geology. Declamations of Original Pieces, Extemporaneous Debates, and exercises in Criticism, during the year.

The study of the Modern Languages, shall be so arranged, as not materially to interfere with the College course. The officers of instruction, will endeavour to make the course of study as thorough as possible, and in no case will a scholar be allowed to pass, to an advanced standing, till he shall have sustained all the previous examinations, to the satisfaction of the Faculty.

In the Departments of Chemistry and Natural Philosophy, instruction will be given, and Lectures will be delivered, as heretofore, by the Principal, and the other Professors, until these Chairs shall be permanently supplied. Particular attention will be given to exercises in Rhetorick and Oratory, and one forenoon of each week, will be spent, drilling the Students, in a thorough course of Reading and Speaking. These exercises, will be conducted by the Principal; and the Members of the Senior Class, will always be required to declaim pieces of their own composition. The Classification, which takes place at each general Examination, subjects those who are deficient to the necessity of remaining in a lower grade; while, on the other hand, the hope of reaching a high standing, in a shorter than ordinary period, is held out to all who are ambitious to advance at a more rapid rate, than the usual average of a Class. A permanent record of the relative standing of the Members in each Class, is kept by the Faculty, and serves as a guide, in awarding the honors of the College. The principal test of the Student's proficiency, will be found in the Lecture Room, where he will undergo an Examination of one hour's duration, for each Lesson, and those Members of the higher Classes, who are permitted, under the discretion of the Principal, to have their rooms out of College, will be visited, by the Principal, and the Professors, during the hours appointed, for their encouragement and aid in the prosecution of their studies. They must not be absent themselves from their rooms, during the hours of study, especially in the evening, except by permission from one of the Faculty; and a close attention will be paid to the habits of the Students, that good morals may be cultivated and preserved.

PUBLIC WORSHIP.

The Students will be required to attend public worship, in this City, both morning and afternoon; and Monitors for the several Churches, will make returns of all absentees, who will give an account of their absence to the Principal. The Roll will be called, also, before the daily devotions at the College. No Student will, at any time, leave the City, without express leave obtained from the Principal. That the public may rest assured of the prevalence of no particular sectarian influence at this College, the following clause is extracted from the Charter, with the letter and suit of which, the Officers of instruction, will invariably comply. The second section of the thirty seventh chapter of the laws of Maryland, requires, that the said College shall be founded, and maintained forever, upon a most liberal plan, for the benefit of youth of every religious denomination, who shall be freely admitted to equal privileges and advantages of education, and to all the literary honors of the College, according to their merit, without requiring or enforcing any religious or civil test, or urging their attendance upon any particular religious worship or service, other than what they have been educated in, or have the consent and approbation of their parents or guardians to attend."

DISCIPLINE, &c.

A record of all deficiencies at College exercises will be kept, and sent to each parent or guardian, at the close of every term. And, whenever a Student shall be found failing to secure the end for which he will have been placed at the College, he may be sent home private, except in cases of a misdemeanor, or offence against the laws, when he shall be punished by the ordinary penalties. By the adoption of a kind and parental demeanor, on the part of the Officers, it is hoped that such extreme cases will be avoided; and from the various advantages of location for the College, it is believed, that few places promise this immunity, in a higher degree, than the City of Annapolis. Its population is not large—the situation is central—its healthfulness, is surpassed by that of no place in the Southern States—access to the College, from all parts of the Union, by which parents would wish to hold communication with their sons, is most frequent and easy, and the expenses of living are comparatively small. Annapolis is the Seat of the Government of the State; and the time of the Annual Commencements, which happens during the Session of the Legislature, affords a high incentive to young men, to distinguish themselves, by their literary performances.

ADMISSION.

Candidates for any standing in the College, will be required to bring from their teachers, testimonials of good moral character, and, in no case, will a Student be received from any other College, to the same standing in this, unless he shall bring, from the President, or other authority of such College, a certificate of his honorable dismission.

EXPENSES, &c.

It has not been thought advisable to establish a commons, Board, including bedding, washings, and roomrent, may be had, however, in private families in the city, for 150 dollars per annum. The charges in the regular College bills, will be, as follows: and are payable quarterly, and in advance—

- English Department, - - 824 per annum. Preparatory Classes, - - 840 do. do. Freshman and Sophomore Classes, - - 840 do. do. Senior and Junior Classes, - - 850 do. do.

An abatement of the College bills may be made, to necessitous Students; and provision is secured for the gratuitous instruction of ten Students, who may bring the proper testimonials for that purpose.

COMMENCEMENTS.

The Annual Commencements, take place in February, when all Degrees are to be conferred. The Faculty will assign to the Candidates for the Baccalaureate, and for the Master's Degree, the parts to be performed; and if any one should refuse the part assigned, or neglect to attend, his Degree may be withheld.

VACATIONS.

The regular Vacations, shall be from the last Wednesday in July, till the first Monday in September—from the 25th of December, till the first Monday in January—from Good Friday, till the Monday week following; and the Fourth of July.

The alterations, in the course of studies, which have taken place, on the late appointment of a Principal, seemed to be required, by the general advancement of Education; and it is hoped, that the advantages for a substantial and complete acquaintance with the several branches of knowledge, which the Institution now holds out to the public, will meet the wants and wishes of its numerous friends, and especially of the sons of Maryland.

St. John's College, was founded and endowed, in the year 1784, under the auspices of men venerable for their patriotism and learning, and has the honor of having educated for the State, some of her most distinguished public men. The Board of Visitors and Governors, in their efforts to discharge the duties of the trust devolving upon them, look for the cordial approbation and co-operation of the alumni, of their alma mater, and for such a portion of the public favour, as may seem due to an ancient and cherished Seminary of the State, that her existence and usefulness, may be perpetual.

By order of the Board, A. C. MAGRUDER, President. March 5.
