COURT OF SESSIONS, New York, May 18th.

The People, vs. Grand Larceny. Edward Smith alias Jones.

Present, His Honor the Recorder, and Aldermen Meigs and Jeremiah. The prisoner stood arraigned upon three indictments, to which he had pleaded not guilty.

The Court was occupied, from its opening until 6 o'clock, with the objections made to the jury, and the panel was not completed until 11 o'clock.

The court took a recess until 5 o'clock, when the District Attorney opened the case. He addressed the difficulty of identifying bank notes, and read that in this instance he believed the evidence would be conclusive.

Mr. G. A. Worth, Cashier of the Bank, identified the $300 note, and explained how he was enabled to do so. He could not identify any other.

Mr. Burling, in reply to a question by the Recorder, stated that the name of Murray, was in custody as a charge of robbing the bank, but he knew nothing more of him than that he was arrested.

Mr. Worth, being again called, said he had expressed an opinion, from hearsay, that the prisoner was probably not the principal in the robbery.

Henry Allen a hack driver, testified, that on Monday following the robbery, he was driving a hack, and between 5 and 6 o'clock in the morning...

Mrs. Mary Hange testified that she lived at 17th street, corner of Broadway, in the month of March 21st, the prisoner came to her house...

Jedediah Corey, a cartman, testified that on the 21st March, he was stopped by two men in front of No. 82 Courtland street, who were standing by his trunk...

Joseph Hays testified to the manner of his arrest by Smith, &c. Being interrogated, he said he had stated his belief that Smith was not in the bank when the robbery was committed.

Benjamin Hays stated the particulars of his arrest, in taking the trunk to his father's house, at the police office. It was delivered in its latter place in the same situation as when taken...

Maria Ann Ripper, a woman living with Mr. Burt testified as to Smith's coming to her house, she showed a man who called for him into his room. On Saturday night Smith went away, with a small leather trunk which he had been living on his table when he took his leave.

Here the evidence for the prosecution closed. Mr. Maxwell stated to the Court that the prisoner's counsel, having done their duty, would not sum up to the jury. They meant to rely on the exceptions that had been taken, as to the empanelling of the jury...

The Recorder, in his charge excluded the trial of the post notes, and of the $300 note which had been laid aside, as constituting a part of the felonious taking. The Jury found the prisoner guilty, without leaving their seats.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the Chairman and Secretary, and published in the Maryland Gazette.

THOMAS FURLONG, Chairman. JOSEPH J. HOPKINS, Sec'y.

A letter of the 25th March, from Bayonne, says:—A report prevails that the Spanish Constitutionists, who had escaped the Royalists, have taken possession of Malaga.

A letter from Madrid of the 22d inst. states that numerous arrests have taken place in that capital, which have afforded proofs of an extensive conspiracy in various parts of Spain.

A letter from Leghorn of March 18th, mentions that the stoppage of the mails from Rome was ascribed to various causes,—to the fall of Civita Castellana, apprehensions of banditti, and disturbances in Rome.

The Augsburg Gazette contains the following extract of a letter from Leghorn, March 18:—'No post has arrived to-day from Rome.'

The courier with the mail from Tuscany, it is stated, has also returned, and forwarded the mail by water to Civita Vecchia.

The fall in the funds continues to day with alarming rapidity. The 3 per cent. which yesterday closed at 78 60 have fallen to 75 30; the 5 per cent. which left off at 47 95 fell to 45 80 and recovered to 46 50; this new fall is ascribed to the march of the Prussians and of the confederate German troops upon Luxemburg, and to the new disturbances in Belgium.

We have no clue to explain the panic which has seized upon speculators and fund holders. Nothing can stop the decline; it is an alarm without example.
