The study of the Modern Languages, shall be so arranged, as not materially to interfere with the College course.

The officers of instruction, will endeavour to make the course of study as thorough as possible; and in no case will a Scholar be allowed to pass, to an advanced standing, till he shall have sustained all the previous examinations, to the satisfaction of the Facuity.

In the Departments of Chemistry and Natural Milosophy, instruction will be given, and Lecture, will be delivered, as herefolore, by the Principal, and the other Professors, until these Custos shall be permanently supplied.

A pid rate, than the usual average of agrass. A permanent record of the relative slanding of the Members in each Class, is kept by the Faculty, and serves as a guide, in awarding the honors of the College. The principal test of the Student's proficiency, will be tound in the Lecture Room, where he will undergo an Examination of one hour's duration, for each Lesson; existance and usefulness, may be perpetual. and those Members of the higher Classes, whare permitted, under the discretion of the Prin cipil, to have their rooms out of Co tege, will be visited, by the Principal, and the Professors during the hours appointed, for their encouragement and aid in the prosecution of their studies. They must not be absent themselves from their rooms, during the hours of study, especi ally in the evening, except by permission from one of the Faculty; and a close attention will

The Students will be required to attend public weeshed, in this City, both morning and students and Monitors for the several Courches, will anke returns of all absentees, who will give management of their absence to the Principal. The Roll will be called, also, before the daily deventions at the College. No Student will, at any time, leave the City, without express it any time, leave the City, without expresparticular sectarian influence at this College illuwing clause is extracted from the Char with the letter and spirit of which, the Silver of instruction, will invariably comply, as second section of the thirty seventh chap-er of the laws of Maryland, required, that ter of the laws of Maryland, required, that technical College shall be founded and noin tained forever, upon a most liberal plan, for the benefit of youth of every religious denomination, who shall be freely admitted to equal privileges and advantages of education, and to all the literary honours of the Cellege, according to their merit, without requiring or afforcing to their merit, without requiring or enforcing any religious or civil test, or orging their attendance upon any particular religious worship or service, other than what they have been educated in, or have the consent and approbation of their parents or guardians to attend?"

norals may be cultivated and preserved.

A record of all deficiencies at College exercises will be kept, and sent to each parent of guardian, at the close of every term. And whenever a Student shall be found failing to secure the end for which he will have been placed at the College, he may be sent home privately, except in cases of a misdemeanour. offence against the laws, when he shall be punished by the ordinary penalties. By the aduption of a kind and parental demeanour, on the part of the Officers, it is hoped that such extreme cases will be avoided; and from the various advantages of location for the College, it is believed, that few places promise this inmunity, in a higher degree, than the City of Annapolis. Its population is not large—the situation is central—its healthfulness, is sur passed by that of no place in the Southern States—access to the College, from all parts of the Union, by which parents would wish to hold communication with their sons, is most frequent and easy, and the expenses of living are comparatively small. Annapplis is the Seat of the Givernment of the State and the sinf the Government of the State; and the tin of the Annual Commencements, which hap-pens during the Session of the Legislature, affords a high incentive to young men, to distin guish themselves, by their literary performances

Candidates for any standing in the College, will be required to bring from their teachers, testimonials of good moral character; and, in no case, will a Student be received from any other College, to the same standing in this, unless he shall bring, from the President, or other authoity of such College, a certificate of his honor able dimission.

It has not been thought advisable to establish any commons. Board, including bedding, washing, and roomrent, may be had, however, in private families in the city, for 120 dollars per annum. The charges in the regular College bills, will be, as follows: and are payable quar-terly, and in advance—

English Department, - . 824 per annum Preparatory Classes, - 840 do. do.

Classes, Senior and Junior Classes. - 840 do. do.

An abatement of the College bills may b-made, to necessitous. Students; and provision is secured for the gratuitous instruction of ten Students, who may bring the proper testimonalfor that purpose.

for that purpose.

COMMENCEMENTS.

The Annual Commencements, take place in February, when all Degrees are to be conferred.
