May 26, 1831.

$50 REWARD

AN AWAY from the subscriber, in the Holydays, a Negro man without any provocation whatsoever. He is tolerably black, 33 or 35 years of age, about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, very square built, limps a little in his walk, (occasioned, as he states, by the bite of a snake,) hesitates a little before a reply when spoken to, also turning his head a little on one side, and then talks quick, looking generally towards the ground. His clothing generally not correctly described, but believe he wore away a black suit, with a black for hat. Daz is an uncommon artful fellow, and is good at making out a good tale to excuse himself from a charge.

He was bought of the late Chancellor Johnson's estate in 1825, who had purchased him from the estate of Mr. Higgins of Anne-Arundel county. He has a very general acquaintance, especially in and about Annapolis and Baltimore, has a brother named Sam, living with Mr. Oliver on Elk Ridge; a some of those places he will likely call on his way probably to Pennsylvania. I have reason to believe that he has obtained a forged pass of some sort, or has carried with him either carpenter's or shoemaker's tools as a passport, he is a pretty good rough workman he will likely attempt to pass himself off as free and a mechanic.

The above reward will be given if taken over twenty-five miles from my residence, or twenty-five dollars for that distance or under, and secured in any jail so that I get him again.
BASIL D. MULLIKIN,
Living near the White Marsh, Prince George's county, Maryland.

An Ordinance for the division of the City of Annapolis into four equal Wards, for the City Constables.

Passed April 11, 1831.
BE it established and ordained by the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Annapolis, That the City of Annapolis be divided into the following four wards, to wit:—The first ward to comprise all that part of the City from Prince George's street, including the said street and the College lot, and all to the North East of the said street. The second ward, that space between the said Prince George's street and the said including Church street and North West street intersecting the Church circle. The third ward to commence on the West side of the Church circle, running down Doctor's street to the head of Zetia's creek, following the course of said creek to commencement of Cross street at the dock. And the fourth ward to include West street, and the remainder of said city and precincts to the westward of this street.
Sec. 2. And be it established and ordained by the authority aforesaid, That each of the said wards shall be attended to and visited by one of the City Constables, as hereinafter directed, that is to say, that Alexander Todd shall visit and attend to the first ward; Richard Williams shall visit and attend to the second ward; Thomas Gardner shall visit and attend to the third ward; and that John L. shall visit and attend to the fourth ward: Provided always, That if on any special emergency, any inhabitant shall have occasion to send for, or it comes to the knowledge of any of either of the said Constables, that any tumult or riot is existing, and requires his attention, it shall be his duty immediately to attend for the purpose of quelling the tumult or riot, and to keep the peace, although it may not be within his or their ward at the time, according to the allotment directed as aforesaid.
