Late from England. Prospect of a General Har in Europe Chingo in the French Ministry)

The ship Georgia, flush, seried at this port year, transfer morning Gons Liverpool, whence she sailed on the 6th of August. Mr. Tonliff has favoured us with the Liverpool advertiser of that date, constaining expracts from London papers to the evening of the 4th, the most important of which, we copy below. The news by this arrival his of a warlike character. It will be seen that Holland had commenced hostilities against Belgiam, assisted; according to one of the papers, by Prussia. If this report be true, a general was between the great powers is meritable. A change in the Prench Ministry had taken place.

This very evening I take my departure with the brave Marshal Gerard—Comrades, we shall meet again on the frontier, and it is in the face of the enemy I will prove that I am as worthy as I am proud of marching at your head." This address was received with enthusiasm, and answered with shouts of 'Vive le Roy,' 'Vive le France.' The regiment commenced its march yesterday morning, and was cheered as they passed along the quave and boulevards, by the cries of 'Vive le Roy,' 'Vive Paris,' 'Vive la France,' from crouds of citizens assembled on each side of the road.

WAR BETWEEN HOLLAND AND BELGIUM.

BELGIUM.

Hostilities have commenced between Hol-and and Belgium, and the troops of the two contending nations are now in presence of contending nations are now in presence of each other on the whole of the line. The Dutch have signalized their entry upon the Belgian territory, on the Flanders side, by devastation, inundation and fire, making war even upon women, and sacrificing defenceless men. Several farmers have been victims of plunder, and have seen their farms, destroyed by fire. The Belgian troops, however, are said to be full of enthusiasm, and the first engagement has shown that this atrocions inengagement has shown that this atrocious inconsidered the consistion of the armia/ce between
