And first—The committee are clearly of opinion, that to certain publications, originating as it is believed, in Boston and New ating as it is believed, in Boston and New York, and addressed especially and directly to the people of colour in almost every part of our country, in which the most odious and detestable doctrines are openly avowed and defended, and to the adoption of which, they, the coloured population, and particularly the slaves are expressly solicited, may justly be attributed the late dreadful and heart-rending occurences in Viterinia; and the committee occurrences in Virginia; and the committee feel assured that but for the timely and most providential discovery of the like intentions on the part of the negroes in other states, si milar outrages might, and probably would, have occurred in every slave holding state in Union. In some of these publications the total de struction of the whites is openly recommend-ed, and in all of them the slaves are incited to disobedience and rebellion. Indeed as we nave seen, one man has been found in the state of New York so utterly lost to all moral sense and decency, as not only to express his approval of the late horrible massacre in our sister state, but to attempt its justification, and that too upon the principle of fair retali-

Of such a wretch however, the committee forbear to say more, and more especially as no language could convey their abhorrence of such depravity.

In connection with these publications, which In connection with these publications, which the committee consider to be the organs of a widely extended conspiracy against the peace and safety of the community, they would ask your attention to one branch of it which has doubtless exercised a powerful influence in the promotion of such atrocious views, and that is the itinerant coloured preachers among the blacks.

The committee will not be so uncharitable as to assert, that among that class there can-not be found some who are free from holding or approving such doctrines, but at the same many others, who under the mask of religion, privately and secretly inculcate principles not only at variance with the laws of God and our country, but which in their tendency and of the Society.

The said bill was then passed as amended. With this brief sketch, and omitting some points of minor importance, to notice which in detail, would require much time and reflection, the committee proceed to lay before your and to recomment for adoption, the following resolutions:

1st. Resolved, That the Governor of Maryland be requested to take:all constitutional steps to bring to punishment, the editor or publisher of any paper calculated to produce marriection among our three, whether the said paper be edited in this or any other state, provided it be circulated in this state.

4th. Resolved, That the manumission of alayes by their owners for the pripose of remaining within this state or the United States, is a great and sore evil; and that the general to prevent any misconception of our motives in thus endeavouring to shield purselves from the evils which surround us, by curtailing them of the privileges which the coloured po-pulation have hitherto enjoyed, we do expressly declare that our objects are their safe-ty and welfare as well as our own; and that to see them on all proper occasions availing themselves of the opportunities of public wor ship and necessary instruction from those wh are able and willing to teach them their du-ties both to God and man, will at all times, afford us the truest gratification.
