Also, the petition of Samuel Graham of Anne Arundei county, praying to be paid for a slave sentenced to the penitentiary.

Mr. Thomas of Cecil, presented the memorial of John B. Morton, and others, also the memorial of John C. Nowland and others, of Cecil county, relative to the black population And, Mr. Laurenson presented the memo-rial of William Patterson and others, relative to the width of Orleans street, of the city of Baltimore. On motion by Mr. Laurenson. The Speaker appointed Mr. Laurenson, on the select committee, to which was referred the memorial of the President and directors of the People's Steam Navigation Company, to supply the vacancy occasioned by the absence of Mr. Hunt.

The house then proceeded to consider the second order of the day, being the preamble and resolutions from the senate, relative to re chartering the United States Bank, Mr. Teackle moved to around the second resolution, by adding at the end thereof the following, "for twenty years from the ter-mination of its present charter;

Provided, That the existing capital of the institution be augmented by fifteen millions of dollars, for the benefit of the people of the U. ted States, to be apportioned among the states, for the supply of means for education in common schools, according to their respective representations in the popular branch of the naional legislature;"

Determined in the negative. Mr. Teackle moved to amend said resolution by adding at the end thereof, the following proviso:- Provided, That no branch shall be established in any state, other than that in which the principal bank is established, without the consent of the legislature of such state, and in that event, to be subject to a rate of taxation, upon the amount of its loans or discounts, or the amount of capital employed therein, at the election of the legislature, not exceeding the average of assesments upon real and personal property thereof.

Determined in the negative. Mr. Teackle moved to amend said resolution by adding at ing proviso:

Provided, That the said bank and all its branches and offices, and all the officers thereof, shall be prohibited from issuing any note of a denomination less than one handred dollars—and from drawing any check in the na-ture, or in resemblance of a bank nots for circulation, or for any other purpose.

Determined in the negative.
