A HIGHLAND ANECDOTE.

BY SIR WALTER SCOTT, BART. The same course of reflection which I transmit to you the account of the of an ancient baronet, induces me to the particulars of a singular incident, at a point which seems highly qualified to be illustrated by the pencil. It was suggested by the spirited engraving of the Huntsman, which adorned the first of your works, and perhaps bears the resemblance to the character of that to admit of your thinking it as a subject another. Of this you are the only test judge.

containing One Hundred and twelve ACRES, more or less, situated in Anne Arundel county and on the main road leading from Elicott's Mills to Snell's Bridge, commonly called the Montgomery Road. The land is well watered, with about 20 acres of good meadow. The buildings consist of a two-story stone House and Kitchen, large, commodious and comfortable, with a large and dry cellar, a good Barn, and Stabling for 18 horses, a threshing floor and sheds for the accommodation of travellers, a Wheelwright shop, a Blacksmith's shop, a pump of good water which communicates with a cool and fine dairy, a nice house, and a large young thriving apple orchard of selected fruit. containing Ninety-Three and half ACRES of land, more or less. On this latter farm is a good log house and stable—Clover and plait tract well on both, and there is sufficient wood on both for the use of them.
